Rothstein Wins First Title in IM Golf Matches

Larry Rothstein became the first player to be crowned champion in the All-College Golf Tournament last week by defeating Art Evans 4 and 3 in the final match of Flight I.

Evans had beaten Bob Cleland 2-1 in the semi-finals, and Rothstein stopped N. Shaak by the score of 3 and 2 in his semi-final match.

Jack Harper and Don Hart were unable to play off their semi-final match this past week to decide who will meet Jerry Smith for the Championship in Flight I. The match will be played this week and the winner will meet Smith for the final play-off by Friday.

KIMBLE BEATS WOLF

In the most grueling match of the Tournament Reggie Kimble finally beat Bob Wolf after having to go 29 holes. At the end of the regulation 18 holes both these boys were tied up. Under the rules of the tournament they then had to play a Sudden Death round the first one to win a hole won the match.

Wolf and Kimble started all over again and matched stroke for stroke and hole for hole for 10 more holes and it wasn't until the 11th extra hole had been played that Kimble finally won the match.

In the other semi-final match in the third flight, Bob Shadley defeated Bob Stirling 5 and 3. Stirling and Kimble will now battle it out for the final in this flight.

In the fourth flight, John McKean had a close one in beating Hal Frey 1-up and will meet Bob Shettig in the finals. Schettig beat Ted Pety 5 and 4 in his semi-final match.

PARK ADVANCES

R. E. Park advanced to the finals in the fifth flight after eliminating Chuck Strain in the semi-final match by the score 2 and 1.

Between The Lions

by BEN FRENCH

A Few Football Statistics

When the Lion grid team meets Washington State on September 20, the sixtieth Penn State football campaign will be underway. When we saw that notice in a Collegian story last week, we decided to go back through the records and see how Lion teams have made out in the past 60 years of tusseling with other collegiate elevens.

BOB HIGGINS

Penn Staters first donned football togs in 1887 when they met the Bucknell Bisons in the College's first intercollegiate game. The Lions tasted victory in their baptism in the sport and racked up a resounding 54-0 score. The two teams played again that year and this time the Penn Staters won 24-0.

However, the Lions' victory streak ended then when they lost to the Lehigh Engineers in 1889 to the tune of 106-0. That score still stands as Penn State's worst defeat in intercollegiate football. Captain of the first squad was G. H. Lins.

While we're on the subject of high scores, the records show that Penn State's high was a 109-7 win over Lebanon Valley in 1920. Other free scoring contests were Penn State 80, Gettysburg 0 (1917); Penn State 99, Bonaventure 0 (1917); and Penn State 82, Susquehanna 0 (1926.)

The Lions lone appearance in the Rose Bowl was in 1923 when they bowed to Southern California, 14-3. That was the year Joe Bedenk, present line coach and baseball mentor was selected on Walter Camp's All-American team. Bedenk never made the trip, however, as he was side-lined with an injury.

Only undefeated and untied season was in 1912 when the Lions won all of their seven games and ran up a score of 200 points to 15 for their opponents. Other undefeated seasons were 1911 (8-0-1), 1920, 7-0-2, and 1921 (7-0-2). The worst seasons were in 1913, 1931, and 1932 when the Lions won only two games each year.

In 1912, Penn State met Ohio State in the first Lion inter-sectional contest and the Lion gridgers won, 37-0. However, the game was not completed with the Buckeyes claiming a forfeit. The records list the game as a 1-0 Penn State victory.

An undefeated streak of 29 straight games began in 1919 and ran to 1922. In 1919, Walter Camp named a Penn State end to his All-American roster. That end was Bob Higgins and 11 years later that end was elevated to the post of head football coach. Since 1915 only two other men have held that position. Dick Harlow, present Harvard coach and a College grad, held the reins from 1915 until Hugo Bezdek, a one-time manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates, took over in 1918.

Incidentally, from 1912 to 1938, the Lions failed to win a game against Pitt although Penn State held a healthy advantage over the Panthers prior to that. Since 1939, the two teams have each won four games.

Fifty-nine seasons have gone by; number 60 is coming up. Win or lose, Penn State fans are looking forward to another schedule of top-notch football.

Alpha Phi Delt Meets Footballers For Title

With Ray Uliniski tossing his fifth straight mound victory in the tournament, the Football House entry took the opening game of the Intramural Softball League playoffs by blanking Alpha Phi Delta, 3-0, Thursday night.

Both teams, winners of their respective brackets, will meet in the second game on the softball field below the College golf course at 8:30 o'clock today. If the gridgers should win they will be given the championship, but if the Alpha Phi Delt can tie up the series, the title-deciding game will be played Thursday.

HURLING DUEL

The game was a hurling duel between Uliniski and Alpha Phi Delt hurler Rouse. The winning runs were scored on two errors in the third inning. Both pitchers tossed shutout ball the rest of the way.

Alpha Phi Delt manager Joe Pepperli will attempt to even the series tonight by sending Rouse back to the mound. Uliniski will also hurl again for the Football House.

The Football House clinched League I on Tuesday night by edging J.E.M. to the tune of a 4-2 score. Milt Simon started the fireworks for the gridgers with a home run in the third inning.

Hummel led the footballers to the title with a home run and two other hits that accounted for the other three runs.

ALPHA DELTS TAKE TITLE

Alpha Phi Delta tripped Alpha Zeta, 7-4, in a Tuesday evening game and took the League I title when Phi Delta Theta bowed to Pi Kappa Phi, 7-5. The Alpha Phi Delt led all the way and were in little danger of being upset throughout the game.

Larry Joe's Windcrest team finally hit its stride Tuesday evening when it smacked Beaver House for an 8-2 victory. In the only other game, Delta Upsilon won in its usual manner by coming from behind in the last inning to tie up the score and edge out Phi Gamma Delta, 1-12 in 11 innings.
