Players, Thespians, Debate Hold Early October Tryouts

By John Marion

Penn State's three forensics, Players, Thespians and Debate have a heavy schedule planned for the coming year.

Thespians, musical comedy group, are celebrating their fiftieth anniversary this year. Plans are under way for an all alumni show to be given on Homecoming weekend. Only former Thespians will take part in the show.

The regular fall musical, a "book show," will be given in December. Tryouts will be in mid-October. All interested students should plan to participate in the tryouts. tryouts.

Players, the dramatics group, have an ever heavier schedule ahead. The arena productions, so popular last year, will be continued this year on a weekly basis. Performances will be given in Woodman's Hall every Saturday night, starting in November. The first production will be "Out of the Frying Pan."

To Hold Shindig

"A Sound of Hunting," with the action taking place on the Anzio Beachhead, will be given November 13, 14, and 15.

A general get-together, the annual "Shindig," will be held in Schwab Auditorium, Monday evening, September 29, from 7 to 9 o'clock. All new and interested students are invited to attend, according to Arthur Cloetingh, head of the Dramatics department.

Last year players utilized 100 students in acting parts and be-tween 150 and 200 on technical work. They are offered experience in acting, scenery construction and painting, lighting, costuming, properties and advertising. Debate With Oxford

The re-opening of debating re-lations with Oxford University of England for the first time since before the war, will be the initial appearance of the men's debate squad.

Penn State will take the affirmative on the subject, "Resolved that an era of war can best be averted by an all-purpose Anglo-American alliance."

Joseph F. O'Brien is coach of the men's squad and Clayton H. Schug leads the women's team. Later announcement will be made.

Later announcement will be made as to the time and place of try-

Trustees Restrict Student Licenses

In an effort to alleviate the Campus parking problem, the Board of Trustees of the College has prohibited the further issu-ance of operating and parking permits to most undergraduate

Following the recommendation of a faculty and staff committee appointed by President Hetzel to study campu. and traffic regulations, the Board has restricted un-dergraduate students in the use of cars on the campus as follows:

1. Driving on the central campus roads is prohibited during the hours from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday to Saturday noon, except that physically handicapped students who are certified by the College Health Service may be granted special operating and parking per mits.

2. Cars may be used by students for special class or laboratory work if arrangements are made with the Office of Campus Patrol by the faculty member in charge. 3. Student car operators, including commuters, may park only in West Parking Area and a designated student parking area on East Campus.

Musical Groups Seek Additional Student Talent

Symphony, Glee Club, Choir Open to All

The music department offers an opportunity for students with musical ability to make use of their talents as members of various vocal and instrumental en-sembles. These music organizations are campus-wide in scope and students from all curricula are eligible to participate.

Chapel Choir

Composed of approximately 110 voices, the Choir sings each Sunday at the Chapel services in Schwab Auditorium. In addition to their regular appearances, the Choir gives special musical services at Christmas and Easter.

Plans for the coming year also include the presentation of a complete oratorio. Guest soloists will accompany the Choir in this program.

Members of the organization, which include both men and women, receive one half credit per semester. Tryouts are sched-uled for the first week of school, the time to be announced later.

Men's Glee Club The Penn State Glee Club has enjoyed a reputation as a fine singing organization for many years. This all-male club is composed of approximately 70 voices.

Besides giving concerts at the College, the Glee Club takes a spring road trip. It is a non-credit organization whose personnel are chosen on the basis of competitive tryouts.

Members of the Varsity Quartet are chosen from among the men belonging to the Glee Club. 1. All students taking courses on the State College campus or at Mont Alto will be assessed $20 College Symphony

The College Blue Band is known not only as a spectacular marching unit, but also as a fine musical organization. Actually the band is divided into two units. The Blue Band Marching Unit is made up entirely of male students and includes all regular band instruments and a drum major.

In order to be ready for the home football games, rehearsals for the Marching Unit will begin immediately after the opening of school. These rehearsals will be held one evening and three late afternons a week until the close of the football season. Professor Hummel Fishburn leads the Blue

In addition to the local football games, the band will take at least two trips, leaving the campus on Friday and returning on Sunday. Concert Unit

The second division of the band, the Concert Unit, includes women students as well as men. A series of concerts are given by this organization during the spring months. Rehearsals of the Concert Unit which will take place one night a week, begin at the close of the football season.

As is the case in all the College music groups, membership in the Blue Band is on the basis of competitive tryouts.
