

IM, JV Football, Lacrosse Calls

JV Football

All candidates for junior varsity football are requested to report to Coach Jim O'Hara on the third floor of the Water Tower after 3:30 p.m. Monday. To be eligible to receive equipment, the candidate must first have passed his physical examination at the College Dispensary and secured a towel. Practice will be held at 4 p.m. Monday.

Lacrosse Candidates

All members of the lacrosse squad should report to the Lacrosse Room at Rec Hall on Wednesday for fall lacrosse practice. Sophomores wishing to try out for lacrosse, regardless of experience, should also report. The only requirements are a physical examination and a towel ticket.

Lacrosse Managers

Sophomores desiring to try out for second assistant lacrosse manager should report to the Lacrosse Room at Rec Hall on Wednesday.

Congratulations!

JOE COLONE
Fullback

Collegian proudly salutes Joe Colone as its first Player of the Week. Colone's timely and beautifully executed punts, outstanding work on the defense, and several nice runs in the victory over Washington State earned for him this selection. His 63-yard quick kick paved the way for our first touchdown, and another 46-yard coffin corner boot proved the game's turning point, as the Washington State kick from behind the goal line was blocked and Penn State recovered for the second touchdown.

Forward Wall Holds Well As...

Penn State Backs Roll Over Wash. State 27-6 at Hershey

The Nittany Lions impressed coaches and "people who know" when they opened the '47 season with a 27-6 victory over the Washington State Cougars before 15,000 Saturday at Hershey Stadium.

It was a field day as far as the men on the bench were concerned, for Coach Higgins used every one of the 40-man squad that made the trip to Hershey.

The Cougars, whom early season Pacific Coast news dispatches had become as the possible far western Rose Bowl entry, were kept bottled up during most of the game. This fact should show that a well operated single wing can hold its own and do better than the highly vaunted T formation.

Deceptive to Fans

So far, the T has proved to be more deceptive to the fans than to the players whenever the Lions have opposed it. According to Coach Higgins, the T will probably fade out in popularity in a few more years, as more teams are finding defensive play against it.

and with the educated, booted the extra point.

Colone Paves Way

Later in the second period, Colone paved the way for the second touchdown by punting out of bounds on the Cougar four-yard line. On the first play, Washington State was penalized to the two, and quarterback Dean Eiders went into the end zone to kick. Four Nittany linemen broke through to block the kick, and the ball was recovered by tackle Bill Kyle. He was credited with the score, the first one of his career. Czekaj again made the point good.

A broken nose sustained by Captain John Nolan during the Washington State game will not keep him out of the Bucknell game. He has been practicing with the team and wearing a special nose guard.

Speedy Larry Joe

Just before the half ended, the Lions were again deep into enemy territory and in scoring position. Larry Joe sparked a drive which carried 60 yards to the Cougar two in seven plays. Joe ran brilliantly, making all but four of those yards.

With 15 seconds left, Joe was replaced by Bobby Williams with instructions to pass. The half ended just as Williams' pass was intercepted on the four.

Early in the third period, starting from their own 35, the Nittany Lions, despite a costly clipping penalty, worked the ball to the Washington State 15. Wally Triplett, on a wingback reverse around the right end, scored the touchdown behind beautiful blocking. Czekaj booted good.

Longest Run

Larry Cooney made the longest run of the game, going 32 yards on a fake quick kick. Rogel, on the first play of the fourth period, went through the line for the final Lion score. The extra point was missed when there was a bad pass from center.

Opening up a passing attack, the Cougars advanced from their own 37 to the Lion ten-yard line. From there, behind nice blocking, Bob McGuire swept around his right end for the lone Washington State score. The attempted conversion by guard Johnny Godfrey was blocked.
