

New Series Lists Noted Musicians

The 1947-48 Artists' Course series will bring to the College four programs featuring internationally-known musicians.

Place and time for student purchase of series tickets will be announced in a later Collegian. Admission for the complete series will cost $8.10 and $6.90, including tax.

The program line-up includes the musical drama, "Madame Butterfly", November 17 - 18; Carol Brice, young Negro contralto, January 12-13; the National Symphony Orchestra with Georges Enesco conducting, March 15-16; and William Kappel, pianist, April 21-22.

As the programs are given on two nights, tickets must be purchased for either the first or second showing.

Puccini's opera, "Madame Butterfly" will have Edwin McArthur as musical director and Desire Defrere, stage director for the Metropolitan Opera, as artistic director.

The National Symphony Orchestra appeared at The College four successive years from 1935 to 1939. Georges Enesco, famous Romanian conductor, composer, and violinist made his third appearance at the College last year.

Dahle Receives Awards For Articles, Research

Dr. Chester D. Dahle, head of the dairy manufacturing staff at the College, received, this summer, the Borden Award, one of the highest in dairy manufacturing research, plus a $1,000 check from the American Science Association.

The award was based on his many recent contributions to the dairy industry. He has published over 95 scientific articles and is widely known for his research in the field of ice cream manufacture.

Two-Day Registration Begins for X-GI Nursery

Registration of children for the X-GI Nursery School will be held today and tomorrow, September 26 and 27, between 9 and 12 o'clock in the Religious Education building of the Presbyterian Church, located at the corner of Beaver avenue and Frazier street.

Children between the ages of two and four whose father or mother is a veteran will be eligible for acceptance. Selection will be made on the basis of urgency of need should there be too many applicants.

Further information is available through Mrs. D. W. Carruthers, phone 2264.

Married Women

The reinstatement of College regulations, relaxed during the war period, prohibiting married women students from living in dormitories, will be effected beginning with the Fall semester, according to Pearl O. Weston, dean of women.

Party Refreshments

- Iced and Filled Cookies
- Fancy Sandwiches
- Hors d'oeuvres
- Birthday Cakes and other Cakes
- Punch

FRIDA STERN

122 Irvin Ave.
PHONE 4818

Players Invited To Conference

An invitation has been extended to the Penn State Players, as the College's representative student dramatic group, to attend the Eastern Theatre Conference at the University of Delaware on October 18 and 19.

Members of hundreds of community and college theatres are expected to attend the regional conference, along with representatives of the professional theatre.

This will be one of the first meetings through which American National Theatre and Academy hopes to implement its plans for an American Theatre, announced Dr. C. Robert Kase, director of dramatics at the University of Delaware.

Club Opens Drive For Independents

A two-week membership drive was opened today by the Penn State Club, Albert Lucas, president, announced. The club is a social organization for independent men.

The Club room, 321 Old Main, will be open to those interested at all times. A Club member will be there between 9 and 5 to discuss activities with the prospective members.

Membership fees are 50c per semester, with an initiation fee of 50c. Club activities in addition to the social functions include intramural athletics and club-sponsored parties. The Club is open during the day to spend sandwich hours or in the evening for entertaining.

Fun Night

A typical sophomore coed will be picked from those at the mixer tonight and will be interviewed during the Groovology 54 program over WMAJ starting at 10:30 p.m. Sunday night, reported Robert Wilson, manager of the radio station.

Choir Tryouts

Tryouts for Chapel Choir will be held Monday and Tuesday of next week. Times and places are announced in the Collegian Calendar (page 2). Candidates for the Glee Club, Treble Singers, Blue Band Marching units and the Symphony Orchestra will also be notified of their meetings in the future through the Calendar.

Sophomores Seek Work

There should be no labor shortage in State College.

Mary-Frances Gregory, of the Personnel Relations Office at the College, reported today that sophomores, now on the campus for Orientation Week, are seeking part-time work of every type.

More sophomores have already filed cards for part-time jobs than did sophomores, juniors, and seniors during all of the Spring semester, Miss Gregory reports.

The cards are filed and persons

Your Paper

Daily Collegian subscription fees are included in the general College bill for all regular students it was announced today by Donald Ellis, business manager. Copies may be picked up at Student Union and will be delivered to fraternity sections and campus dormitories. Subscriptions by mail are on sale for faculty members, townspeople, and parents.

desiring to hire a baby-sitter, dish washer, chauffeur, or worker of any trade, are referred to the proper persons when they call the Personnel Relations Office.

Veterans May Obtain Medals For Service

Veterans who received awards and decorations during their service in World War II may now obtain the medals for these awards, according to the ROTC department.

Interested veterans should send one copy of the orders authorizing decoration to The Adjutant General's Department, Washington 25, D.C., Attention: Decorations Section.

The World War II Victory Medal and the American Theatre Medal are among the decorations available.

JUST AS SURE AS COLUMBUS

DISCOVERED THE NEW WORLD

YOU'RE SURE TO DISCOVER THE

"DAILY COLLEGIAN"

OFFERS

Readers

A complete coverage of the College news, plus sports, fashions, lively editorials and many features of timely interest and - - -

... Offers Advertisers

a media with a circulation that reaches 98 percent of the students, faculty, and College employees. This is a select market that can be reached only by advertising in THE DAILY COLLEGIAN. Advertise today and every day in THE DAILY COLLEGIAN.

AT PENN STATE

NEARLY EVERYONE READS "THE DAILY COLLEGIAN"

TEXTBOOKS — NEW and USED

for All College Courses

DESK PADS

BLOTTERS

LAUNDRY CASES

FOUNTAIN PENS

DRAWING SUPPLIES

STATIONERY

INKS

REFERENCE BOOKS

Always — Trade at KEELER'S

W. COLLEGE AVENUE

CATHAUM THEATRE BUILDING