Philadelphia Reporters Cover Large Enrollment

Earl Selby, feature writer for the Philadelphia Bulletin, and Domonick Ligato, nationally famous photographer, have been visiting the campus for two days to observe how Penn State is reacting to the bumper crop of enrollees.

Mr. Selby interviewed farmees, veterans, married students, and upper classmen in order to see from various angles how the inflated enrollment has affected classes, living accommodations, activities, and social life.

Accompanied by Mr. Ligato's campus photographs, the feature will appear in a future issue of the Bulletin.
