

Organization Meetings Set For Seven WRA Activities

Organization of WRA Clubs will take place in White Hall at 7 o'clock today and tomorrow.

All women interested in bridge, bowling, badminton, or modern dance should report to White Hall tonight to register as new or old members and to choose a convenient meeting night. Tomorrow evening the swimming, outing, and fencing clubs will organize.

Miss Marie Haidt, associate professor of physical education and rifle club coach, announced recently that rifle club's opening meeting will be delayed until October 28.

Although membership is limited to 125 in rifle club, everyone interested is urged to attend the first organization meeting. Both a beginner's group and an advanced group will be formed. From the advanced group comes the varsity squad which won first place in the Women's National Intercollegiate Telegraphic Rifle Meets last spring. Wanda Rickert will serve as this year's acting president.

The badminton club organizes its own tournaments during the school year and participates in the All-College Badminton tournament held in the spring. Club president is Jackie Wengert.

Bridge Club

Both a beginners and an advanced group will be formed in the bridge club. The Culbertson specialist, Joan Burchal, will be on hand at every meeting to give instruction to club members. It is proposed that a small fee be collected from members for this expert instruction, according to Mary Kapp, acting president of the club.

Members of bowling club will take part in intramurals and compete in the women's intercollegiate telegraphic bowling meets under the guidance of Miss Jesnak, advisor, and Betty Vanderbeck, bowling club president.

The swimming club is headed by Yvonne Worrell and coached by Miss Marian Whallon. As winners of last year's Eastern Regional Intercollegiate Swimming Meets, the swimming team will be hosts for the swimming meets this spring. All results will be wired to White Hall and evaluated there. Another activity of swimming club is the annual aquacade

Modern Dance

Modern dance club presents an annual spring concert and takes part in the May Day program. Members of the concert group are chosen from the club. Gladys Lou Miller is dance club president and Miss Dorothy Briant, advisor.

Lou Frazier, outing club president, will be on hand at tomorrow evening's meeting to explain the club's activities, including hikes, picnics, bicycle hikes, and overnight cabin parties at the ski lodge.

Fencing club will be headed by Jane Kyle. Plans are being made to secure a member of last year's men's varsity fencing team to coach all fencing club members.

Panhel Penalizes

Phi Sigma Sigma

Phi Sigma Sigma has been penalized by the Pan-Hellenic Judicial Committee for illegal rushing, announced Mona Smulyan, Pan-Hellenic president, today.

The sorority will not hold its second open house, issue invitations during the first week of formal rushing, nor issue invitations to its first party October 20.

Miss Smulyan also said the only exception to the silent period will be contact between big and little sisters. A big sister may meet her little sister but may not take her to the sorority house.
