Engineer Council Sets Nominations

Nominations for six sophomore seats on the Engineering Student Council may be made in the mechanical engineering office in Main Engineering until 4 p.m. Monday, said Alexander Petrowski, council president.

The engineering curricula from which representatives will be elected are aeronautical, architectural, civil, electrical, industrial and mechanical.

Nominees require a one average for their freshman work. Petrowski said that engineering sophomores may nominate themselves. He added that the elections will take place next Thursday.

Bible Fellowship To Hear Pastor

Rev. William L. Pettingill, D.D., of Wilmington, Del., will speak in 316 Sparks at 3:30 p.m. Sunday. Rev. Pettingill, author, editor, and teacher, will be the guest of the Penn State Bible Fellowship, chapter of Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship.

Pastor of the North Baptist Church of Wilmington for 20 years, Rev. Pettingill is well known as a consulting editor of the Scofield Reference Bible, founder and editor of "Serving and Waiting," a Bible Study magazine, editor of "Just a Word," magazine, and the author of several books.

From 1914 to 1928 he served as Dean of the Philadelphia School of the Bible and was co-founder of that school. For many years Rev. Pettingill has been a Bible Conference speaker and teacher. "Bible Questions Answered" is one of his best known books.

All students and faculty members are invited to hear him speak Sunday afternoon.

Nittany Party Meets Tonight

Nittany Independent party will meet in 417 Old Main at 7:30 o'clock tonight, said temporary clique chairman William Wilson.

The purpose of this meeting, Wilson revealed, is to acquaint interested fraternity and independent sophomores with party policies and structure. Originally scheduled for Tuesday, the program was postponed because of difficulties in obtaining a room.

A general business meeting of the Nittany-Independents will be held in 10 Sparks, 7:30 p.m., Sunday.

Colds Rage On Campus

So you think that you are the only one on campus with a cold. Well, you're due for a rude awakening. The College Infirmary reports 15 cases serious enough to be admitted, with many times that number being treated daily in the dispensary.

Business is booming at the local drug stores. "Sales have doubled over last year's sales of the same period," said Robert Heiser, registered pharmacist of Rea and Derick's. "Head colds seem to prevail with chapped lips and cold sores running second and third."

Joseph Fink, pharmacist at McLanahan's stated, "Every other customer who walks to the drug counter asks for a cold medicine. Nose drops and cough drops are the two largest sellers in the cold line."

One drug store noted no marked increase in sales, while Mr. Griggs, of Griggs and Kreamer, said that there was an increase but he couldn't determine if the rise was due to the large influx of students or an increase in the number of colds per capita.

Although no definite cure is known for the common cold, doctors agree that plenty of rest is the prime factor in getting rid of that "petit rheum".

Hoot Owl Appears In Pollock Circle

"The Lost Weekend" had its disappearing mice, some people see pink elephants, but Ed "Hoot" Koval saw a large economy-size owl resting in his Pollock Circle room last week when he returned from Bellefonte.

Koval, genial student lieutenant in the Campus Patrol, opened the door to his room in Dorm 9 and looked straight into the eyes of Mr. Owl.

The lights and Mr. Koval frightened the owl and the bird flew madly about the room. Resourceful Ed quickly grabbed a flashlight and blinded his visitor long enough to take him by the leg and release him outside.

Later the mystery was cleared up. Friends of Koval had captured the owl near the dairy barns and had deposited it in his room as a practical joke.

Neither Koval nor the owl could be contacted for quotable comments.

Penn State Club Adds 17 Members

Seventeen new members were added to the roll of the Penn State Club at their last meeting, according to Richard Howe, vice-president of the club and chairman of the membership committee.

The new members include Richard Almony, James Balog, William Betler, Jerome Degen, Lane Dorsett, John King.

Ralph Lantz, James Minarovich, Carl Nagel, Melvin Redmount, Robert Rehmann, George Scheurer, Donald Tanner, Rogera Watkins, and James York.

Plans of future social and intra-mural sporting were disclosed by Michael Zanecasky, social chairman, and Robert Stefanko, athletic chairman. All independent men are urged to join the club immediately so that they can take advantage of the activities.

Professors Write Article

Three members of the department of agricultural and biological chemistry at the College are authors of an article published in the September 28 issue of "Science."

Titled, "Triphenyltetrazolium Chloride as a Dye for Vital Tissues," the article was written by Dr. R. A. Dutcher, Dr. C. O. Jensen, and A. M. Mattson.

Coaches Show Football Movies

Moving pictures of Saturday's 54-0 football victory over Bucknell will be shown in 119 New Physics at 7:15, 8:00 and 8:45 tonight.

All students are invited to attend the showings and coaches will be on hand to explain the play. The three performances have been scheduled in order that everyone may have an opportunity to see the film, Earl Edwards, end coach, said.

Efforts to obtain the use of Schwab Auditorium for the movies were unsuccessful, thus requiring the use of the smaller chemistry lecture room, he added.

Ray Conger handles the film showings, which are sponsored by the Student Recreation Committee and the School of Physical Education.

Outing Club Invites Sophs

All sophomore women are invited to a cabin party sponsored by the Outing Club, at the WRA cabin, Saturday and Sunday, said Lou Frazier, Outing Club president.

The group will meet at White Hall, 4:30 p.m. Saturday, and return Sunday morning. Girls should wear dungarees or slacks.

Sophomores who are interested must sign up at Student Union before Saturday noon. A fee of 75 cents will be charged to cover the cost of the two meals.

The Outing Club is also planning a scavenger hunt at the College picnic grounds, 6:30 p.m., Sunday, for members and their guests.

Shelley Names Lecture Topic

Lectures on the life and culture of the Pennsylvania Germans will be presented for interested faculty members and students during the month of October, according to Professor Phillip Shelley, head of the German department.

English spoken in the Pennsylvania German area is the topic of Albert Buffington, associate professor of German, for the next lecture in 228 Sparks, 4:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Peculiarities due to influence of Pennsylvania German dialect on pronunciation, intonation, vocabulary and syntax will be included, said the speaker.

Fishburn Names New Members For Symphony

Names of the successful candidates for the College Symphony Orchestra were announced yesterday by Professor Hummel Fishburn, director of the organization. The first rehearsal of the group will be held in 117 Carnegie Hall at 7 p.m. next Tuesday.

The members are asked to schedule Music 77 with their advisors immediately if they have not already done so. Professor Fishburn asks that all students who play either viola, cello, or bass and did not know about try-outs to contact him at once if they wish to join the group. One credit is given for the activity.

Members of the Orchestra are Violins: Martin Alpern, Mary Austry, Chester Beam, Birdie Berman, James Chircosta, Beverly Corman, Mildred Dromgold, W. V. Engstrom, Marian Fister, Sarah Gilleland, Jacqueline Heckert, Joseph Jackson.

Science Group Presents Speech

Earth Science Club will present Dr. P. D. Krynine speaking on "Physical Processes in Nature" at a lecture in Mineral Industries Art Gallery at 7:45 o'clock tonight.

Dr. Krynine's discussion of geological processes operating in nature as contrasted with the same processes in the laboratory will interest students in technological and scientific courses. The lecture is open to all.

Temporary officers elected by the Earth Science Club are Robert Zeller, president, and Betty Cutler, secretary.

Book Exchange Returns Unsold Books to Owners

All unsold books will be returned at the Book Exchange in the basement of Irvin from 9 to 12 o'clock this morning and from 1 to 4:30 o'clock this afternoon, said Jane Weigle, chairman.

Books may be picked up or stored for resale next semester. Owners will receive notices when their checks are available at Student Union.

Unclaimed books will be sent to another exchange, and checks will be mailed to their owners.

FBI Nabs Two Vets

WASHINGTON—The FBI has taken two former servicemen into custody on charges of stealing highly confidential photographs from the atomic energy project at Los Alamos, New Mexico. The arrests bring to five the number of persons taken into custody in connection with removing documents from atomic energy projects.

Saving Drive Grows

WASHINGTON—The national drive to save 100,000,000 bushels of grain by mid-1948 is picking up momentum. Agriculture Secretary Anderson said today that distillers have agreed to make all their grain available for export, and farm leaders promised the White House 100 percent cooperation to slash their use of grain.

The New Look

DES MOINES—A girl reporter asked Senator Taft about the New Look. What did the Ohio senator think about long skirts? Taft laughed and said, "That's one I don't have to vote on."

Russian Block Fails

LAKE SUCCESS—Russia made an unsuccessful attempt to block a proposal to establish a United Nations watch commission for the Balkans. Andrei Vishinsky charged the United States with serving an ultimatum on Bulgaria, Albania and Yugoslavia, and the Russian delegate accused America of cowardice.

However, the political committee approved the Balkan Watch Commission proposal by a vote of 34 to 6. The Russian orbit alone voted against the move.

Lovett Answers Reds

WASHINGTON—Undersecretary of State Robert Lovett issued a carefully worded statement to newsmen which can be regarded as the first official reaction to the formation of a new international Communist organization. The statement says American aims have been maligned, and it charges the Communists with attempting to prevent the recovery of Europe.
