

SAVE FOOD, WIN THE PEACE

The Daily Collegian

WEATHER
Partly cloudy and cooler

VOL. 46—No. 12

TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 14, 1947—STATE COLLEGE, PENNA.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

Late AP News

Courtesy Radio Station WMAJ

WASHINGTON—The head of the Citizens Food Committee, Charles Luckman announced today that most of the nation's distilling industry will close down for 60 days at midnight on October 26th. Luckman expects the move to save up to 20,000,000 bushels of grain, mostly corn. Luckman's announcement followed a conference with industry representative in Washington.

LAKE SUCCESS—Russia yesterday backed a proposal in the United Nations to divide the Holy Land into Jewish and Arab states. It described the idea as more practical than a federated Palestine, in view of present tension between Arabs and Jews.

LAKE SUCCESS — The U-N political committee defeated Russia's demand for withdrawal of American and British troops and military personnel from Greece. Russia also lost a move to have the U-N supervise the economic aid to Greece under the Truman program.

WASHINGTON — France received American permission yesterday to spend $93,000,000 on coal and raw materials, rather than on machinery and other equipment for reconstruction. The money is part of a $650,000,000 reconstruction credit granted to France by the Export-Import Bank last year.

SAN FRANCISCO — President William Green of the A F of L declined yesterday a CIO offer of joint political action. Green told the A F of L convention in San Francisco that merger of the two labor organizations should preclude political cooperation. He added that the A F of L would launch an all-out political campaign of its own next year.

Sororities Issue Date Cards Today

Sorority rushees may get their date cards and check dates for tomorrow, Thursday and Friday in the Dean of Women's office between 1 and 5 today, Mona Smulyan, Panhellenic president, announced this morning.

Date cards for this second period of open rushing must be returned to the Dean of Women's office between 7 and 8 o'clock tonight.

Rushees are not limited to one hour a day at any one sorority but may schedule as many hours as they wish, Miss Smulyan said. Formal rushing will end Thursday, October 23, instead of Friday, October 24, as previously announced in the The Daily Collegian.

A schedule of the last two rushing periods will be printed in The Daily Collegian later this week.

Grad Student from Orient Finds Long Skirts Appealing

"I must lengthen all my skirts!" declared Wan pei Pauline Chang.

Although she admits that shorter skirts are easier to "get around in," the new Chinese graduate student commented that she finds long skirts quite appealing to the eye.

Questioned on her impression of the College, Miss Chang thinks the people are friendly and helpful but she is constantly confused by the American slang used on campus. She is interested in the different activities and organizations on campus, and expressed a sincere desire to participate in things and become "one of the gang."

The democratic system at the College is one of its greatest assets, believes Miss Chang. She said she never saw so many people work and live together as one and be free to choose their

Pollock Circle Elects Officers

Elections of Pollock Circle dormitory officers have been completed, and the Circle Council will hold its organization meeting Thursday night, said Thomas Reissmann, resident counselor.

Officers of the individual dormitories are as follows:

Dorm 1: Richard Amberling, president; Herbert Blaicher, Vice-president; Walter Defaiffe, secretary; and D. N. Mosher, treasurer.

Dorm 2: Stanley Spinweber, John Biggers, Joseph Walker, and Norman Blumenstock.

Dorm 3: Donald Mitchell, John Poffrath, Vincent Bassett, and William Grafton.

Dorm 4: William Walker, J. W. Roth, Richard Baillentine, and J. R. Rindosh.

Dorm 5: Edward Urbansky, Robert Harris, Robert Schmidt, and George Armstrong.

Dorm 6: Edward Walacavage, George Miller, William Jeglenski, and John Smith.

Dorm 7: Edward Opforman, Walter Diffendorfer, Benjamin French, and John Ewers.

Dorm 8: Harry Dunegan, George Bienhart, Gordon Morget, and Leon Cottrell.

Dorm 9: Edmund Koval, C. D. Jamison, Bernard Miller, and Jerome Swanson.

Dorm 10: James MacCallum, Frank Walker, Kenneth Shafer, and Joseph Anderson.

Dorm 11: Leo Skedlchock, E. Laskel, Martin Simons, and Bernard Strozskie.

Dorm 12: Howard Atwell,
(Continued on page two)

La Vie Sets Deadline To File Activity Cards

All sixth semester students who will graduate in June and seniors who have not yet filed out a La Vie activity card must do so before Friday at Student Union. Marjorie Mousley, photo editor, announced today.

Seniors who have not yet received their appointment cards will receive them within the next two weeks. However, cards are not necessarily being mailed in alphabetical order.

In the event an appointment cannot be kept because of illness or some other emergency, the Photo Shop should be notified immediately for a reappointment. If the student neglects to do this, there can be no guarantee of a rescheduled appointment.

Glee Club

All Glee Club members who desire a copy of the list of radio stations broadcasting the recorded Pennsylvania Week program, please contact Jack Nesbitt, 250 S. Gill street immediately, or call 4654.

Lion Nursing Injuries In New York 'Home'

Saturday was homecoming day for the Nittany Lion.

On Friday afternoon Penn State's mascot disguised himself in a pasteboard box and hitched four rides to New York City where he spent the night on the seventh floor of the Hotel New Yorker.

Early Saturday morning he boarded a Sixth avenue bus and rode up to 48th street on the west side of town. Arriving at the Chenko Studios, his birthplace, he renewed his acquaintance with the gang at "home."

Expressing sorrow that he couldn't attend the Fordham game, but intent on getting in shape for future home games, the Lion gave this brief message to a Collegian staff member:

"Not only are my feet and hands in need of repair, but I spent the morning sightseeing and now to add to my woes I have a stiff neck and sunburned tonsils from looking at the tall buildings. Tell the gang at State that I'll write every day."

Greeters Sponsor Belle Hop Queen

Some lucky College coed will reign as queen at the second annual "Belle Hop" sponsored by the Penn State Junior Greeters Club at Recreation Hall, November 1, said Daniel A. Botkiss, publicity chairman.

Chosen from photographs submitted by various fraternal, sorority and independent organizations, the queen will be presented with a free weekend for the Pitt game at one of the Pittsburgh hotels plus two tickets for the game.

Each organization may submit an 8x10 photograph to the Hotel Administration Office in the basement of the Home Economics building. Deadline for all entrance photographs is October 27.

Judging will be done by prominent men of the Pennsylvania Hotels Association, said Botkiss.

No Critique Today

Critique will not go on sale today because of printing difficulties, said Alex Gregory, for. The magazine will be ready later in the week.

Engineering Council Sets Nominating Date

The deadline for nominations for six sophomore seats on the Engineering Student Council has been extended until 4 o'clock this afternoon, said Alexander Petrowski, council president.

Nominations for representatives from aeronautical, architectural, civil, electrical, industrial, and mechanical engineering curricula may be made in the mechanical engineering office in Main Engineering.

Nominees require a one average for their freshman work. Petrowski said that engineering sophomores may nominate themselves. Elections will take place on Thursday.

Windcrest Community Elects Stokes Burgess

Windcrest citizens elected community officers recently. Carl Stokes was elected burgess.

New councilmen are Elmer Sealover zone 1; Howard Beaver zone 2; Carl Sherman zone 3; Thomas Jackson zone 4; Robert Hurm zone 5; James Blakeslee zone 6; and Frank Allen zone 7.

Fees Deferred

Payment of fees has been deferred because of alumni registration Friday at Recreation Hall, said Russell E. Clark, bursar. The new date will be announced later.

Special Music Groups To See Two Fred Waring Broadcasts

Fred Waring

Music groups at the College and at the State College High School will be guests of Fred Waring at his morning broadcasts from Schwab Auditorium next Monday and Tuesday, Mr. Waring said today.

He has made arrangements to have as his special guests for the morning programs the Blue Band, the College Choir, the College Symphony, the Penn State Glee Club, Treble Singers, members of Phi Mu Alpha, the Louise Homer Club, and members of Theatians.

Members of the College music organizations will not report with other student groups for their tickets but will receive them, one to a person, for either of the two morning broadcasts, in 216 Carnegie Hall beginning at 1:30 today.

Members of these special groups must present their A.A. books, which will be punched, and their names will be checked on a master list.

Ticket distribution for the general student body remains the same as stated in Friday's Collegian. Seniors will apply with A.A. books at Student Union desk tomorrow from 8 to 5 o'clock. Juniors will apply Thursday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. The remaining tickets, if any, will go to sophomores on Friday from 8 to 12 a.m.

LA Council Seeks Names

Nominations for the Liberal Arts Student Council can be made in Dean Ben Euwema's office, 132 Sparks, this morning through 5 p.m. Friday, according to Ted Rubin, president pro-tem of the Council, and Jean Moore, elections chairman.

Persons interested in running must nominate themselves, they added. Other nominations will not be accepted.

Qualifications for membership on the Council are being registered in the Liberal Arts School and having a 1.5 all-college average.

Forty names from the list of nominees will be selected by the present members of the Council to run in the election. Of this number 20 will be chosen in proportion to their class. Five will be sophomores; 10, juniors; and five, seniors.

The election will be held in the lobby of Sparks from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. October 22.

Steelwork for Dorms On East Campus Begins

Steelwork on the two women's dormitories under construction on East Campus was started Thursday as the first 12 carloads of steel arrived at the Bellefonte Central Railroad freight station.

Edmond H. Sharp, project engineer for Henry E. Baton, Inc., contractors for the $6,000,000 project, explained that the steel girders are being put into place as they are unloaded from the trucks.

It is hoped to have the steel work completed and brick layers at work within 30 days, Sharp said. All excavating has been completed except for a service drive to the rear of the buildings.

Vets To Turn Receipts For Books In To Bursar

Veterans should turn in their receipts for purchases of books and supplies at the Bursar's office any time starting today, said Charles F. Mattern, co-ordinator of veterans' affairs.

Fill out the receipts with complete information desired, veterans are advised, or receipts will be returned unpaid.

Wyand Speaks

Charles S. Wyand, administrative assistant to the president, will lecture in Schwab Auditorium, 4:10 p.m., Friday. The topic of Mr. Wyand's talk is "Factors Influencing the Economic Outlook."

Students enrolled in senior lecture course, engineering 2 or 3, are requested to attend.

Cwens Move Drag To White Hall

The Cwens Dugaree Drag will be held in White Hall instead of Rec Hall 9 to 12 p.m. Friday, stated Dorothy Park, general chairman of the dance. Since tables for the alumni luncheon on Saturday must be set up on Friday, Cwens moved their dance to White Hall.

The Campus Owls will furnish the music for this girl-ask-boy affair. Intermission entertainment is being planned by Pauline Globisch, committee chairman, and Elizabeth Parkhurst and Sara Joanne Pepper.

Tickets, which will go on sale at Student Union later in the week, will be $1.20 per couple.

News Briefs

College Symphony

The College Symphony Orchestra will be photographed for La Vie tonight. Men are requested to wear coats and ties, and women dark jackets.

Members should report for rehearsal at the usual time.

La Vie Candidates

Art staff candidates for the 1948 La Vie will meet in 223 Engineering F at 7 o'clock tonight, according to Robert Widder, art editor. Students do not need to have attended the meeting last week in order to come tonight. Juniors and sophomores are eligible.

PSCA Publicity

PSCA publicity committee will meet in 303 Old Main, 7 o'clock, tonight. Co-chairmen, Joanne Hobbs and Ralph Temples, urge all interested to attend.

Club 50

Club 50 will hold its weekly meeting in 405 Old Main, 7:30 p.m., tonight.

A film, Man Without a Country, will be shown, besides dancing and group singing.

Faculty Picnic

A "Pot-luck" picnic for new faculty members and their families of the rank of instructor and above will be given by the New-comers Club in Hort Woods, 4 p.m., Sunday.

If there is anyone who has not received a card explaining what to take to the picnic, please call Mrs. W. M. Hench, 2173. In case of rain or snow, the picnic will be cancelled.