

Gridders Aim for 4th Win; Orange Holds Series Edge

Penn State's Nittany Lions will be out to even up the score on the series win column when they meet a tough Syracuse eleven at New Beaver Field Saturday before an expected Homecoming crowd of 20,000.

The Lions have defeated the Orangemen nine times while losing ten and tying five. The series was started in 1922.

Syracuse coach, "Ribs" Baysinger, who succeeded Biggie Munn, has had to do a large rebuilding job on the Orange team.

Bill Orange lost eleven of last years lettermen including Captain Dick Whitesell and Jerry Pellegrini, veteran snapperback. Huge shoes to fill have been left vacant by Joe Watt, who was rated one of the best wingbacks in the country.

Heading a list of talented backs is Walt "Silvers" Slovenski, who's amazing speed and effective change of pace brought him starring honors with the Fleet City eleven while in the Navy. Slovenski, like Penn State's own Larry Joe, has been clocked doing the 100-yard dash in less than 10 seconds.

Capt. Larry Ellis, George Davis and John Foley are all good ball handlers and passers. Also a shifty runner, an accurate passer and a capable kicker is Eddie Dolan, a Syracuse grid veteran for three years.

HORACE ASHENFELTER

Ace Harrier In 2nd Year

Starting as an unknown just a year ago this fall, Horace Ashenfelter, who crossed the tape with Gerry Karver in tie for first place last Saturday, has a success story that could vie with any Horatio Alger work.

"Ash" was fooling around the track one day when Curt Stone, nationally famous Penn State track star, told him to get a suit and try out for the team. Taking Stone's advice, Ashenfelter put on a suit and within a year he not only made the squad but he also placed third in the National A.A.U. meet.

In the first meet that Ash ever ran, he placed fourth behind Karver, Stone, and Mitch Williams.

Jayvee Footballers Open Three Game Season Friday

Hoping to fare as well as their varsity counterparts, Penn State's Junior Varsity gridmen next Friday inaugurate their first football season since the war by tangling with Syracuse on Beaver field. Kickoff is slated for 4 p.m.

PROBABLE STARTERS

A virtually certain starter in Friday's gridiron fracas will be Quarterback Charles Murray, from Uniotown, while in the tailback spot Skipper O'Hara will choose from Bob Harter, State College; Stan Dombrowski, Midland; Russell Leib, Lancaster, and John Gray, Arlington, N. J.

Principal competitors for the starting wingback assignment are Bill Brown, of DuBois, and Al Tkac, from McKeesport. Fullback duties will fall either to Carl Henry, Union City, or Bill Corman, State College.

In the Nittany forward wall, starting tackles will probably be Rus Powell, from Northeast, and Bob Titus, from Carmichaels; however, Tom Reese, from Clark Summit, is a strong contender. Either Al Peluso, from New Brighton, or Frank Mathias, from Carnegie, will fill the center slot, while guards may be Gene Shaffer, Cecil Jackson or Mervin Metz, all three from Huntingdon.

END CANDIDATES

Top candidates for the starting terminal berths include Dalton Rumberger, Mt. Lebanon; Lloyd Amprim, Monessen; Jack Storer, Wilkinsburg; Dan Kline, Progress; Dominick Abrunzo, Williamsport.

Of the Jayvees named above,

Again in the next meet he hit the four spot, but in the Colgate run he kept pace with the more experienced members of the squad and tied for first with Karver, Stone, Longenecker, and Williams in 23:27. This time was a new record for the 4 1/2-mile run.

Ashenfelter surprised everyone in the IC-4A races in New York when he came in third over a field of 200 runners. He followed up this win with a third place in the National A.A.U. meet, but in the N.C.A.A. cross-country run he missed a turn and fourteen men passed him before he realized his mistake.

WHO HAS THE TOUGHEST COACHING JOB IN FOOTBALL?

Some say it's Lynn Waldorf, the fourth coach in four years at the University of California — once a renowned football power, but now chiefly known as the school where the students can, and do, fire their coach. Read this revealing article in today's Post.
