

Ken Hosterman Fractures Leg as . . . Quakers Bow to Jeffreyemen As Boovers Cop Third Win

Battling without the services of center forward Ken Hosterman, leading Lion point manufacturer who fractured his right leg after five minutes of the opening quarter, Bill Jeffrey's rampaging soccermen garnered their third victory of the season over a powerful University of Pennsylvania, Saturday.

Fred Kretzer, starting at outside right, replaced the injured Hosterman at the center spot and registered all three Lion goals.

Hosterman, who captured team scoring honors last season, sustained his injury when Penn's All-American goalie, Sitler, blocked one of his first period net shots. Ken was immediately removed to the University's hospital where x-rays showed both bones in the lower leg were fractured. Following a second x-ray late yesterday, decision would be made whether to return the booter to his home in State College or keep him for further observation in Philadelphia.

FIRST SCORE

After Hosterman's injury, the Lions settled down to a concentrated attack against the burly Quaker defense. Crisp passing and tricky footwork by the Nittany forward line worked the ball deep into Penn territory several times with no results. Finally, after 14 minutes of the first period, the Jeffreyemen broke into the scoring column when Kretzer tallied his first marker from a few feet in front of the net.

HOSTERMAN

Three minutes later, Lownes, Quaker inside left, evened up the contest with a sizzling angle shot that ended first period scoring.

Taking the offensive in the third quarter, the Penn forward wall swept past the Lion halfbacks time after time. Hard working fullbacks Dave Binns and Jim Kline, however, kept the Nittany net well guarded. Later in the stanza, Kretzer took a long pass from midfield and pocketed his second goal of the tussle.

GOALIES OUTSTANDING

Outstanding third period play

by Lion goalie Gene Graebner and the Quakers' Sitler thwarted several scoring thrusts from both lines, while doughty midfield performances by both halfback trios prevented any scoring.

Quickening the tempo of their offensive play in the fourth quarter in an effort to overcome the Lions' 2-1 lead, the Quaker soccermen broke through the harried State defense when Lownes registered his second tally after 13 minutes to tie up the game.

Deadlocked until the waning minutes, the Statemen girded themselves for a final scoring drive. Driving upfield with four minutes to go in the final period, the Lions shook Kretzer clear several yards from the Quaker goal from where he booted his final and winning score.

Time-Consumer

Perfection of pass defense is college football's No. 1 time-consumer, according to Coach Bob Higgins, who says his own team spends more time in this department every year. Lion teams rate consistently high in pass defense.

Player of the Week

Fullback Francis Rogel receives Collegian's Player of the Week recognition for his work in last Saturday's game with Syracuse.

A newcomer to the midday Lions this season, Rogel pushed over two Lion touchdowns, and lateraled to Walter Palmer for a third score.

First-string fullback last year at California teachers, the power-puncher has been doing a fine job spelling Joe Colone and will probably see much more action in coming games.

Swimming Candidates

All candidates interested in the varsity swimming team are requested to try out for the squad at the Glennland Pool at 7 o'clock tonight. A meeting for all candidates for assistant managerships of the swimming team will be held at the same time.

Duel in Making

Johnny Chuckran and Jimmy Waltheil, opponents for the first time as freshmen in 1944, will renew their football rivalry when Penn State and West Virginia clash again this season.

500th Game Ahead

Penn State will have played its 500th intercollegiate football game before the 1947 season ends. A group of Penn State musicians composing music for their spring show.

Harriers Take Perfect Meet; Defeat Pitt by 15-40 Count

"Sudzina is the man to beat," said Coach Chick Werner to his cross-country squad before the State-Pitt meet, and beat him they did. Five Nittany harriers crossed the finish line in front of Sudzina to give the College a perfect 15-40 win over the previously undefeated Panthers Saturday morning at Pittsburgh.

As Coach Werner predicted, Ed Sudzina, a former high school champ, jumped to the lead in the first mile and held on to the lead until the three-mile mark. At that point Karver, Williams, and Ashenfelter passed him and from there "Pappy" Longenecker and Fred Lennox took over.

At the three-mile mark Sudzina came to the fore and passed Longenecker and Lennox. From there to the 4 1/4-mile mark the trio battled for third place. In the final quarter mile Sudzina faded and Longenecker and Lennox passed him to join Williams, Karver, and Ashenfelter at the finish line.

Since this was the first meet ever run on the Schenley course, the 28:49.2 mark set by the College squad is the present course record.

Even though Wilson and Hall of Pittsburgh crossed the finish line just 8 1/2 seconds behind Al Vigilante and John Bates, both Al and John held their seventh and eighth places throughout the race.

Previous to this meet, the Panthers defeated two Ohio colleges by large margins while Penn State defeated N.Y.U., 18-37.

Jayvees Drop Contest to Orangemen

Although they scored first, Penn State's Jayvee gridmen could not cope with an effective aerial attack displayed by the Orangemen from Syracuse and yielded to the visitors, 12-6, Friday.

Completing six out of nine attempted passes, the victors amassed a total of 101 yards via the aerial route to spoil the Little Lions' opener of the 1947 campaign, which includes two more tilts.

Score by quarters follows:

State 6 0 0 0-6
Syracuse 0 6 6 0-12

Guard Cecil Jackson's interception of a Syracuse pass set the stage for the Nittany touchdown late in the first quarter. After grabbing the ball on the Syracuse 40-yard line, he lateraled to Tailback Bob Harter, who picked up six yards. A 15-yard clipping penalty on Syracuse placed the pigskin on the Orangemen's 19-stripe. Five plays later Harter reeled off ten yards behind good blocking to score.

40 Wrestlers Answer Call As Mat Practice Begins

Over 40 aspirants answered Coach Charlie Speidel's call for wrestlers Thursday afternoon. The group decided that for the first weeks, practice would be held Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday nights.

"Conditioning will be stressed this year," said Coach Speidel. "We lost quite a few matches last year because the other team was in better condition than we were," he continued, "and it won't happen again if I can help it."

After introducing this year's captain, Ernie Closser, and the assistant coach, Charlie Ridenour, Coach Speidel stated that there is still need for men in the lower weight brackets. If any men missed the meeting Thursday they can see Coach Speidel at the wrestling mats in Rec Hall any evening after 4:00.
