

Major Brown Addresses Organized Reserve Corps

Walter N. Brown Jr., research assistant in physics at the College, will address the Penn State Organized Reserve Corps at a meeting to be held at 7 o'clock tonight in Room 3, Carnegie Hall.

Brown, who is a major in the air corps reserve, will speak on "Guided Missiles." He has done extensive research in this field and recently returned from Wright Field, Ohio.

Following the meeting, the Penn State chapter of the Reserve Officers Association will meet. Reserve officers attending the College are eligible for membership in the association.

Hat Council Elects Foster President

Lawrence Foster, Skull and Bones, was elected president of the Hat Society Council at a meeting Sunday night. Vice-president is Robert MacGregor, Parmi Nous, and secretary-treasurer is Nancy Ault, Junior Service Board.

The question of the legality of the recent Blue Key tapping was discussed. The members voted unanimously to postpone a final decision until more information can be gathered by an investigating committee. Members of this committee are Nancy Ault, Sally Henry, Reginald Kimble and Robert Tomlinson.

New members of Blue Key cannot be chosen unless a quorum, two-thirds of the eligible voters, is present. A sufficient number of members was present, but the question is whether or not several seniors who voted are to be ruled active members of the society, a junior men's honorary, said Foster.

Eleven of the 12 members of the Hat Society Council attended the meeting in Old Main. The council consists of the president and secretary-treasurer of each of the six societies in the council.

Exhibit of Hardware Aids Fraternity Key Pickup

One of the oldest collections of "gismos" and "whatcha-ma-call-its" in State College is on exhibit at the entrance of the Smith Tailor Shop near the post office.

In order to identify their mailbox keys, each fraternity has some device of weird distinction attached to its key ring which is hung on a board in front of the shop. These objects range in variety from a gear wheel to a lamp fixture.

"Richard's" doorknob graces one of the keys, while a brass pipe elbow is the mark of distinction of another. A hand-forged chain link, an electric outlet fixture, a paintbrush handle, a turnbuckle, a baggage ticket, a miniature license plate, and odd pieces of wood and string complete this veritable open air hardware store.

Hat Society Committee

The Hat Society Council Pep Rally Committee will meet tonight in Room 8 Carnegie Hall at 8 o'clock said Richard Sarze.

Debaters Choose Twelve New Men

Twelve new members have been added to the men's debate team, according to Joseph F. O'Brien, coach of the team.

The new members are Emory J. Brown, Harold E. Brown, Frank Glackin, Thomas A. Hopkins, Theodore Horner, Melvin Katinsky, John H. Kelly, D. Lockwood Stanton F. Roth, Richard S. Schweiker, Albert J. Sitter and Samuel M. Weinberg.

Selection of the new members was made after each candidate spoke for five minutes on the topic: Resolved: That a federal world government should be established.

Coach O'Brien asked that each of the members audit the Oxford debate, and report to 316 Sparks at 7 o'clock every Wednesday night.

Those men who tried out for the squad, but were not selected, the coach added, are invited to participate in future tryouts.

In 1888, a coed was selected as associate editor of Free Lance, a predecessor of the Daily Collegian.
