

Norman Thomas To Address Three Local Audiences

Norman Thomas, four-time Socialist candidate for President, will speak to State College audiences three times Monday. Sponsoring organizations for Mr. Thomas' speech as PSCA, All-College Cabinet, AVC, Common Sense and PCA.

Mr. Thomas, former associate editor of Nation, will address the Westminster Hall Presbyterian Church, 4 p.m. Monday, on the "Economic Basis for a Lasting Peace."

After Dinner Speech

The second talk of the former candidate for Mayor of New York will be an after dinner speech, which will also be given at the Westminster Church. "A Critical Analysis of American Policy" is the title of the second speech.

Mr. Thomas will speak on "An Immediate Program for Peace," in Schwab Auditorium at 8 p.m. There will be no admission charged for this talk.

Left Ministry in 1931

Ordained a minister in the Presbyterian Church in 1911, Mr. Thomas left the ministry in 1931. He was a candidate for governor of New York on the Socialist ticket in 1934.

He has been featured several times on the Town Hall of the Air, and is still a contributor to both the Socialist and labor press.

Trustees Approve New Stop Light

Trustees of the College have granted permission for the placing of a traffic light on College property at the intersection of Allen street and College avenue.

The light, which will permit safe crossing for pedestrians and aid in control of vehicular traffic at the busy intersection, will be placed adjoining the east pavement that extends through the Main Gate to the campus. Other signals to control the pedestrian and vehicular traffic would be placed on the opposite side of College avenue, according to the plans presented by the borough.

Late AP News

Courtesy Radio Station WMAJ

Poultryless Thursdays

WASHINGTON—The Citizens Food Committee maintained its stand yesterday that poultryless Thursdays must stay on the menu until a more constructive alternative program is worked out. The poultry and feed industries have failed to convince the committee that the chickenless and turkeyless days should be dropped from the grain-saving program.

President Truman has scheduled a Thursday conference of congressional leaders who will have to approve his winter aid plan for Europe. Mr. Truman's move has renewed talk of the possibility of a special session of Congress.

Breaks Relations

SANTIAGO—Chile has followed the lead of Brazil in breaking diplomatic relations with Russia. The Secretariat General of the Santiago government announced today that Chile also has cut its diplomatic ties with Czechoslovakia.

The Brazilian Congress yesterday gave the Rio De Janeiro government a vote of confidence on its break with Russia.

New Bomber

WASHINGTON—The Army Air Force's huge new Northrop eight-jet flying wing bomber successfully completed a 34-minute maiden flight from Hawthorne, California, to the Muroc Air Base yesterday.

Waring Plugs New Schwab

At the close of the Fred Waring broadcast from Schwab Auditorium Monday night, the master arranger and leader made another plug for improving the College's auditorium.

"When you get an auditorium big enough to hold everyone," he said, "we'll be back and play for hours."

He said this in connection with the crowds of anxious students, faculty members and townspeople that had to be turned away from all three radio broadcasts.

Schwab Hasn't Changed

At the Thespian Revue Saturday, Mr. Waring said to the alumni audience that this would be a great time to do something about Schwab Auditorium. He remarked that it hadn't changed since he attended the College in 1920.

"I spent the afternoon going over your plans for the future with officials of the College," he said, "and I'm very impressed. They're great plans."

Spoke With Officials

He also said that he had been talking with College officials about the possibility of erecting a new auditorium.

After the broadcast for the General Electric Company was over, Waring and the Pennsylvanians put on a request number show.

Nittany Council Forms Committees

Three temporary volunteer committees were formed by the Nittany Dorm Council at its first meeting Monday night, said Gordon Van Wylen, resident counselor.

A constitutional committee, headed by Wesley Eckenfelder, is to draw up a constitution for the dorms and present it to them next week for ratification.

Assisting Eckenfelder are Charles Brackbill, Robert Harrison, George Land, Walter Lander, and Nicholas Suoron. They will use the Pollock Circle constitution as a guide. Eckenfelder said.

Ward Hout, Peter Kalandiak, and James Patrick volunteered to act as a temporary athletic committee which is drawing up a schedule for a Nittany Dorm league.

A committee on janitorial service was set up to attempt to improve the general cleanliness of the dorms. This committee is composed of Robert Wine, chairman, Anthony Alexa, Theodore Kunin, and Thomas Lavinka.

First Ag Forum Features 'Agricultural Electronics'

The first monthly Agricultural Forum of the current school year will be conducted at 109 Agriculture, 7:30 o'clock tonight, with John E. Nicholas, professor of agricultural engineering, as speaker.

Professor Nicholas' topic of discussion will be "Agricultural Electronics." The forum is open to all faculty and students.

The Agricultural Forums were instituted last semester by the Ag Student Council. This group sponsors the lecturers, who speak on broad subjects only. Robert R. Pennington is the student chairman of the forum committee.

Tonight's subject, according to A. H. Imhof, assistant in agricultural journalism, will embrace what is to be expected in the future of agriculture from electronic advances in heat, light, power, and radiant energy.

The speaker, Prof. John E. Nicholas, is a graduate of Lehigh University and of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He is the author of more than 60 technical papers on such diverse topics as frozen foods and the influence of electric lights on poultry.

He is also chairman of a joint committee of engineering societies and manufacturers on the establishment of home freezer standards.

PSCA Sponsors Party At Ralph Watts Lodge

An All-College cabin party sponsored by the Penn State Christian Association will be held at Ralph Watts Lodge Saturday and Sunday, said Scott Rhodes and Jean Ropps, co-chairmen of the Lodge committee.

Tickets are available at 304 Old Main for $1.00 each, and include transportation and meals.

The group will leave from the rear of Old Main at 4:45 p.m. Saturday, and return Sunday morning.

Chaperones for the party are Mr. and Mrs. Alex Atty.

College Team Debates Oxford In Opening Match Tonight

OXFORD DEBATERS. From left to right: David K. Harris, the Honorable Anthony N. W. Benn, and Sir Charles G. Boyle.

Gilbert Hill to Meet British Speakers

That the danger of war can best be averted by an all-purpose Anglo-American alliance is the subject of the formal debate between Oxford University and the College in Schwab Auditorium, 8 o'clock tonight. There will be no admission charge and the debate is open to the public.

Sir Edward C. G. Boyle and the Honorable Anthony N. W. Benn, representing the British university, will argue the negative point of view, with Harris J. Gilbert and Richard K. Hill of the Men's Debate squad taking the affirmative.

Parliamentary Candidate

The Honorable A. N. W. Benn is a Labour candidate for Parliament. A graduate of Westminster School and New College, Oxford, the Parliamentary candidate is on the Executive Committee of the Oxford University Socialist Club.

Since 1942 the Honorable A. N. W. Benn has been a member of the British Labour Party. During World War II he was a Royal Air Force Pilot Officer and saw action in both England and South Africa.

Graduate of Eton College

Sir Edward C. G. Boyle is a graduate of Eton College. He was a History scholar at Christ Church, Oxford. At Oxford he is Treasurer of the Conservative Association and secretary of the Union Society. In the war he served with the British Foreign Office.

Harris J. Gilbert, manager of Men's Debate, is president of Phi Sigma Delta. Gilbert is on the Inter-Fraternity Council, Forensics Council and on All-College Cabinet.

Won Distinguished Flying Cross

Gilbert was a first lieutenant in Army Air Forces and had three years' service as liaison pilot and bombardier. He was on 36 missions and won the Air Medal with two Oak Leaf Clusters and the Distinguished Flying Cross.

Richard K. Hill is on the Forensic Council and a member of Phi Eta Sigma. Hill came in first in the John Henry Frizzell Extemporaneous Speaking contest.

A sway-of-opinion audience ballot will decide the winner of the debate. Prof. Joseph F. O'Brien, coach of the College Debate team, will be chairman.

Board Appoints Psychiatrist To College Health Service

A psychiatrist has been appointed to the College Health Service by the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees, College officials reported yesterday.

Two physicians have also been appointed and other appointments, retirements and personnel changes were approved by the board.

Dr. George M. Lott who was named psychiatrist in the College Health Service has been director of mental hygiene for the State of New York since 1941. His appointment was made effective as of October 1.

Dr. Anna O. Stephens, who had been a physician in the Health Service from 1941 to 1945, has returned to that position.

Dr. Reid B. Brader, also appointed as physician, was with the Princeton Health Service for two years and the U. S. Army for four before coming to the College.

Other appointments to faculty and staff include Dr. John D. Ridge, a geologist with the New Jersey Zinc Co., as associate professor of economic geology beginning December 1.

Warren R. Shenk, who has been with the College as an accountant for the past two years, will replace Walter S. Hiester as College auditor. Mr. Hiester was named chief accountant in the office of the executive accountant.

The Executive Committee approved at the same meeting the retirement of P. F. Henshall.

Circle President Names Chairmen

Ten committee chairmen were appointed by James MacCallum, president of the Pollock Circle Council, at its second meeting last night.

The appointees, all presidents of dorms in Pollock Circle, are Donald W. Mitchell, fire commissioner; Edmund Koval, scholarship committee; Edward Walsavage, social committee; James T. McGilloway, recreation committee; and Stanley Spinweber, athletic committee.

Karel E. Yedlicka, public works committee; Harry C. Dunegan, cultural committee; Leo H. Skelchock, health and sanitation committee; Howard L. Atwell, program committee; and Walter V. Bienko, public safety.

Blindfold Champion Plays Exhibition Chess Match

George Koltanowski, world's blindfold chess champion, has accepted the Chess Club's invitation to play an exhibition match at the College, January 10, said John Ekey, president of the club.

Mr. Koltanowski will play 30 members of the club simultaneously and will play a match blindfolded. Last year one Penn State player defeated him and four tied him.

An important meeting of the Chess Club in connection with the present preliminary tournaments will be held in 7 Sparks, 7 o'clock tonight, said Ekey. All members are urged to be present.

Liberal Arts Election

Election of members to Liberal Arts Student Council will be held in the lobby of Sparks building from 8:50 o'clock this morning to 4 o'clock this afternoon, according to Ted Rubin, president pro-tem, and Jean Moore, elections chairman. All Liberal Arts students are eligible to vote.

News Briefs

Last Day for La Vie

Today is the last day for all sixth semester students and seniors who expect to graduate in June to fill out an activity card in 412 Old Main, warned Roberta Hutchison, La Vie editor.

There will be a meeting of candidates for the La Vie photography staff in 412 Old Main at 3:30 o'clock tomorrow.

Senior pictures for La Vie will be completed by November 10 instead of May 10 as was erroneously announced.

Oxford Lecture

David K. Harris, of Oxford University, will lecture on "Oxford University" in 10 Sparks, 4:15 o'clock today. Eugene Fulmer will be chairman of the discussion following the talk.

Dramatics 61 Movies

Movies for Drama's 61 students will be shown in 119 New Physics at 7 o'clock tonight, said Arthur C. Cloetingh, head of the dramatics department. The movies furnished by the Museum of Modern Art are "The Last of the Line" and "Civilization." Other interested students are also invited to attend.

(Continued on page two)