

JV Gridders Adopt 'T' for Navy Tiff

An innovation in Penn State Junior Varsity football tactics will occur Friday when the Little Lions tackle Navy at Annapolis, Md., with a different offensive weapon—the "T" formation, announced Head Jayvee Coach Jim O'Hara yesterday.

The Jayvee gridmen are employing the "T" in current scrimmage sessions with the varsity to familiarize the latter squad with the West Virginia eleven's type of offense.

As starting "T" formation quarterback in Friday's game, Mentor O'Hara will call on Russel Leib, sophomore who played a similar role last season at Millersville State Teachers College.

Because of a request by Colgate authorities, the Junior Varsity grid contest originally scheduled with the Red Raiders has been cancelled. This leaves Penn State's Jayvees with one more tilt, a November 14 date with Bucknell following the Navy game.

Basketball Call

Basketball Coach John Lawther requests all men with prep or high school experience who are interested in trying out for the court team to report to Rec Hall where basketball practice sessions are being held nightly from 6:30 to 8:30.

Fred Morecraft, veteran end, was acting captain of the West Virginia University Mountaineers for their season's opener against Otterbein College. Morecraft will start at left end. He played considerably as a sophomore in 1942 but was used little last year, after returning from military service, because of a leg injury. Morecraft stands six-two and weighs 192.

Basketball Managers

All candidates for assistant managership in basketball should report to the Rec Hall at 6:30 this evening.

Karver and Ashenfelter Vie For First in X-Country Meet

By ELLIOT KRANE

Who is the fastest man on the cross-country team; Jerry Karver, the triple-crown national champion, or Horace "Fearless" Ashenfelter, who jumped from the ranks of the unknown to become one of the nation's best harriers in just two years?

This question has never been put to the test this year, but Saturday afternoon on the College course, the team will be disbanded for a few minutes and the Cornell himself acair. We've had enough of this holding-hands-across-the-finish-line-and-waiting-for-the-others races," emphasized Coach Chick Werner. "It's time for a show-down. 'Wild' Bill Smith set the Penn State cross-country record in 1938," he continued, "and it will never be approached or broken unless we race for 'blood'."

"In Karver we have a national champion," he said. "He holds the IC-4A, NCAA, and NAAU titles, but on the other hand there are some days when I don't see how anyone can possibly defeat Ashenfelter," the towering mentor continued. "Even if one of the men defeats the other, the loser could easily have had an 'off' day and there is a strong chance that he would defeat the winner in another meet."

Asked who was the best runner he ever coached, Chick stated, "There have been many men that were outstanding on the squad, but Smith holds my vote until someone can come along and break the record he set."

It was in the Penn State - Syracuse meet October 29, 1936 'Wild' Bill Smith set the record of 25 minutes and 24 seconds for the five mile course. Starting fast, Smith passed the mile mark in four minutes and 35 seconds, a full ten seconds better than the mark set in the harriers' N.Y.U. meet. He ran the second mile in 5:07, the third in 5:27, the fourth in 5:18 and the last mile in five minutes flat.

This Saturday's meet will start during the first quarter of the football game and will finish before the half.
