

Bergdoll Elected Senator In Sophomore Balloting

Joan Bergdoll was elected WSGA sophomore senator in the final WSGA-WRA elections Tuesday.

WRA officers are Frances Nichols, secretary-treasurer; Shirley Gauger, sophomore representative; and Gertrude Fetzter, assistant intramural chairman.

All of the women were prominent in activities during their freshman year. Joan Bergdoll was freshman representative of the Women's Governing Association at Bloomsburg State Teachers College. She was a member of the Student Christian Association and the basketball, baseball, and swimming teams.

Assists Vice President

Miss Bergdoll will assist the WSGA vice president in the house of representatives. Other duties of the new sophomore senator will be working on the Christmas drive and assisting the committee for the May Day celebration.

Frances Nichols comes from the state teachers college at Cheyney, where she was assistant treasurer of the freshman class. Miss Nichols managed the varsity hockey team at Cheyney and played on the volley-ball and basketball varsity teams.

As secretary-treasurer, Miss Nichols will be a member of the WRA executive board, record the minutes of all board meetings, and will be responsible to the faculty financial advisor. In addition, she will handle all WRA correspondence.

Was Class Secretary

Shirley Gauger, who comes from Bloomsburg State Teachers College, served as class secretary, freshman representative of the Women's Government Association, and librarian of the women's chorus. She was a member of the "Maroon and Gold" staff, Student Christian Association, and took part in the freshman talent show.

Miss Gauger will be a member of the WRA board as the official sophomore representative. She will be responsible for securing timers and scorers for all competitive events and will manage the WRA cabin.

Gertrude Fetzter, the assistant intramural chairman of WRA, is from Shippensburg State Teachers College. As a member of WAA, Miss Fetzter played on the basketball and hockey teams. She took part in the school aquacade and May Day program. In addition, Miss Fetzter was drum major and served on the staff of the "Campus Reflector."

Member of WRA Board

As assistant intramural chairman, Miss Fetzter will be a member of the WRA board; she will be present at all meetings of the intramural board, secure umpires and referees for all team games, and assist in the organization of competitive sports.

In 1915 coeds were permitted to dine at fraternity houses if a chaperone were present. They could go horse-back riding or sleighing with men unchaperoned—but not for more than two daylight hours if such rides did not extend over meal hours. When motoring with men, however, young ladies were accompanied by a chaperone.

2 Extension Agents Retire

Eureka Nitzkowski and Anne Forbes, home economics extension representatives of the College, have retired after 25 years of service. College officials said today.

Miss Nitzkowski began her extension work in Wilkes-Barre and was the first home economist extension representative in Luzerne county. For ten years she served both Luzerne and Wyoming counties, then was assigned exclusively to Luzerne county.

Miss Forbes began her extension activities in Lancaster county and also was assigned a section of Berks county. Later, another representative was assigned to Berks county and Miss Forbes worked in Lebanon as well as Lancaster counties. She later was assigned only the one county—Lancaster.

First War Works Wonderful Changes

The first time women were cast in the Thespian show, in March, 1915, the program explained somberly "On account of war conditions, it has been necessary for women to take the place of men in the female roles and the management hopes that the audience will note how satisfactorily the women do the part of men in these difficult parts." Surely, the war works wonderful changes.

New officers of the WRA Outing Club are Lou Frazier, president; Norma Lash, vice-president; Jean Wilcox, treasurer; and Joyce McGlaughlin, secretary.

Panhel Announces Plans For Formal Coffee Hours

Formal rushing ends at 5 o'clock today. Silent period will be enforced from this time until the formal coffee hours, which will be held 1:30 to 3 p.m. and 3:45 to 5:15 p.m. Sunday, said Mona Smulyan, Pan-Hellenic President.

Each rushee may attend two different coffee hours. Girls interested in joining a sorority should attend, said Miss Smulyan.

Sororities should submit their invitations to the Pan-Hellenic post office, 8 a.m. tomorrow.

Kappas Penalized By Panhel Judicial

Self accusation by Kappa Kappa Gamma resulted in a penalty to that sorority for illegal rushing, said Mona Smulyan, President of Panhel.

The sorority will discontinue formal rushing at 1 o'clock tomorrow until Sunday evening when bids are submitted to the Dean's Office.

Pledging for the Kappa's will be Monday evening, the same as all other sororities.

Rushees may pick them up from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. the same day. Their formal written replies must be in the Pan-Hellenic post office by 12:30 Saturday. The sororities will pick up these replies at 1 p.m. Saturday.

The bid lists from each sorority must be in the Dean of Women's office at 6:30 p.m. Sunday. Preference cards must be filled out by rushees who are interested in joining a sorority. These cards may be filled out from 7 to 9 p.m. Sunday or from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. Monday. Each sorority will notify its new pledges Monday evening.

WRA Field Hockey

In the WRA field hockey tournament the Red and White teams have chalked up two games apiece.

The opening game of the season ended in a 4-4 deadlock. In the next two games the White team, captained by Mary Failor, took over the field by defeating the Reds 4-2 and 2-0.

This week, Susie Geiger's Red team edged out the Whites 1-0 on Monday. On Tuesday, the Reds tied up the tournament score by winning over the Whites, 5-1.

Sing a song of sixpence, pockets full of dough. Here's the way you'll get it from Pepsi-Cola Co. Make us laugh . . . if you can. We'll pay you $1, $2, $3 . . . as much as $15 for stuff we accept—and print. Think of it. You can retire. (As early as 9 P. M. if you like.) You don't have to mention Pepsi-Cola but that always makes us smile. So send in your jokes and gags to Easy Money Dept., Box B, Pepsi-Cola Co., Long Island City, N. Y.

The very next day you may receive a de-luxe radio-phonograph combination and a nine-room prefabricated house. It won't be from us. We'll just send you money if we feel like it. Easy Money, too.

Little Moron Corner

Mohair Moron, the upholsterer's son, was found huddled up and shivering in his refrigerator one day. He explained by saying, "I was th-thirsty for a P-pepsi-C-cola and was t-told it should be d-drank when cold. Now I can drink it. I'm c-c-cold!"

You don't have to be a moron to write these . . . but it helps. $2 for each accepted we'll pay you, and not a penny more.

EXTRA ADDED ATTRACTION

At the end of the year we're going to review all the stuff we buy, and the item we think was best of all is going to get an extra

$100.00

—HE-SHE GAGS—

If you're a "he" or a "she" (as we suspect) writing HE-SHE jokes should be a cinch for you. If you're not a "he" or a "she" don't bother. Anyway, if you're crazy enough to give us gags like these, we might be crazy enough to pay you a few bucks for them.

He: Give me a kiss and I'll buy you a Pepsi-Cola . . . or something.

She: Correction. Either you'll buy me a Pepsi . . . or nothing!

He: When a man leans forward eagerly, lips parted, thirsting for loveliness, don't you know what to do?

She: Sure, give him a Pepsi-Cola.

He ghost: I'm thirsty. Let's go haunt the Pepsi-Cola plant.

She ghost: That's the spirit!

$3.00 (three bucks) we pay for stuff like this, if printed. We are not ashamed of ourselves, either!

CUTE SAYINGS of KIDDIES

(age 16 to 19 plus)

A famous sage has said that people are funnier than anybody. If that were true, all you'd have to do would be listen to what the kiddies are saying, write it down, send it in, and we'd buy it. If that were true. It might be, for all we know. We haven't the slightest idea what we'll accept. Chances are it would be things like these unless we get some sense.

GET FUNNY... WIN MONEY... WRITE A TITLE

This is easier than taking candy away from a baby. And less squawking. Maybe you don't want to be rich, but just force yourself. You'll like it. And, if we like the title you write for this cartoon we'll force ourself to give you $5. Or if you send us your own cartoon idea we'll up it to $10. For a cartoon that you draw yourself, we'll float a loan and send you $15 if we print it. Could you expect any more? Yes, you could expect.

"My George, who will just be 17 on next Guy Fawkes Day, had his appendix removed last month. When the doctor asked him what kind of stitching he'd like to have, George said, 'suture self, doctor'."

"Elmer Treestump says his girl Sagebrush, only 22¼, brings a bottle of Pepsi-Cola along on every date for protection. She tells everybody, 'that's my Pop!'"

$1 each for acceptable stuff like this.
