

Blue and White Clashes With Mountaineers

Welcome
'Mountaineers'

The Daily Collegian

WEATHER
Clear and Cooler

VOL. 46—No. 20

FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 24, 1947—STATE COLLEGE, PENNA.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

Rally, Prom Start Festivities

20,000 To See Eastern Titans Risk Records

An avenging Nittany Lion squad will be on the field tomorrow with the memory of 1944's 28-27 defeat at the hands of the Mountaineers still fresh in mind.

Both squads this year are powerful high scoring aggregations, and tomorrow's game will see the use of one of these two teams from the ranks of the undefeated. The kickoff is slated for 2 o'clock.

West Virginia overpowered little Otterbein, Waynesburg, NYU and Washington and Lee. Penn State has been rated ninth in the nation by the Associated Press weekly football poll due to the crushing defeats handed a highly touted Washington State team. Syracuse, Fordham and Bucknell.

This game, one of the best in the nation, will be a battle of giants, and neither team looks for an easy victory. Although the underdog, Bill Kern's Mountaineers have a formula for coming on to the field supercharged whenever they are rated in this manner.

In '42 the Nittany Lions were unbeaten when they went to Morgantown to help the Mountaineers dedicate their new stadium, but they collapsed under West Virginia's relentless single wingback and finished up on the short end of a 24-0 score. It was the only defeat for the Lions.

Some of the boys who played in that game are back from the wars and anxious to avenge the shame they felt as the aftermath of the 1942 defeat. Larry Joe and Joe Colone were freshmen then, and Steve Suhey, Jeff Durkota, Bob Weitzel and Bobby Williams were others among the Lion players who opposed the Mountaineers on that fateful day.

(Continued on page four)

Late AP News

Courtesy Radio Station WMAJ

President Calls Session

President Truman called a special session of Congress to handle the questions of European aid and inflation at home, November 17.

Playground Ablaze

A summer playground of the rich, Bar Harbor, Maine, was threatened with destruction by forest fire this morning. As 2000 people awaited evacuation from the island by boats, police informed the Coast Guard that unless winds abated, the town of 4300 faced destruction.

Maine's Governor, Horace Hildreth, called upon citizens of the state to organize on a wartime basis to combat the Bar Harbor fire, and other forest fires throughout Maine. He said that the fires are causing the greatest economic catastrophe in the history of the state.

Extension Aviation

Extension courses, offered by the Air Corps, now make possible home-grown aviators. Material and text books for 18 courses in flying are issued according to the applicant's experience. Information and applications are obtainable from the War Department, AGO Form 145.

Rally Features Blue Band Jive

Jive numbers played by the Blue Band and a skit presented by Henry Glass, Thespian, Player, and campus entertainer, will be featured at the "Beat West Virginia" rally on the steps of Old Main at 7:15 o'clock tonight.

An all-College parade, led by the Blue Band and cheerleading squad, will start at the Tau Kappa Epsilon house, 346 E. Prospect avenue, at 6:45 o'clock.

The time has been set early, so that students planning to attend the Junior Prom later in the evening may first participate in the rally, said Stanley Eisman, chairman of the rally.

The procession will pass through the fraternity section of town, down College avenue, and up the Mall, the rally site.

Songs and cheers led by the cheerleading squad will be projected on a large screen. The program, conducted by Thomas J. Lannen, All-College president, will be carried over a public address system.

Neither James Milholland, acting president of the College, nor Harold R. Gilbert, graduate manager of athletics, will speak at the rally as previously planned.

Honest Alumnus

A former Penn State student paid today for a football game at which he and five friends were non-paying customers five years ago.

A check for $13.20 accompanied this note to the office of the graduate manager:

"This is a delayed payment for six football admissions which I cheated the College out of in the Fall of 1942."

His signature was preceded by "Yours for a clear conscience."

Students Asked To Join Co-Op

Fraternities and independent living houses now have an opportunity to purchase groceries cooperatively by becoming members of the local co-op grocery store on W. Beaver avenue, announced Emory Brown, chairman of the campus co-op committee.

The co-op store at Windcrest has operated only one year, but has already saved the married couples living there hundreds of dollars. This cooperative store was organized by a group of people to provide themselves with quality goods and services at low prices.

Anyone may join for $1.00. The purchaser receives sales slips for each purchase. Since the store is entirely cooperative, after expenses are paid and a certain percentage set aside for contingencies, the net savings are returned to the purchaser in proportion to the amount of his purchases.

All the purchaser must do is save the sales slips and present them at the end of the year for the refund. Any member is eligible to become a member of the seven-man board of directors which governs the co-op store. Books are open for member inspection at any time.

"By cooperating in this venture," said Emory Brown, "the houses will be building a business that they can really call their own."

Orders should be called into the store by Saturday morning of each week so as to obtain delivery ten days later.

Barnet Hails Class of '49 At Year's First Big Weekend

Hailing the class of '49, Charlie Barnet and his 21-piece band will sound the inaugural note of the year's first "big" weekend at the Junior Prom in Recreation Hall at 9 o'clock tonight.

Fraternity houseparties, dances, a pep rally, and a three-feature sports afternoon complete the traditional houseparty cycle.

Prom tickets, costing $4 including tax, are being sold at the Athletic Association window in Old Main until 5 p.m. They may also be obtained at the door of Recreation Hall while the dance is in progress. Special 2 o'clock permission have been granted for all coed tonight. Regular 1 o'clocks are effective tomorrow night.

Cabinet Rejects $450 Appropriation

All-College Cabinet last night rejected the Chess Club request for $450 to finance intercollegiate matches.

The decision was made after a half hour debate, during which several Cabinet members pointed out that interclass finances could not withstand a series of such grants. Majority opinion appeared to be that granting the appropriation would establish a dangerous precedent.

Cabinet voted to establish a committee to investigate the possibility of a student referendum concerning student assessment for the creation of a general activity fund. Such a fund would be available for activity organizations, confronted with the problem of financing trips and intercollegiate matches. The committee would also work out a tentative basis for administration of the money, so that only worthy groups would apply for aid.

Lawrence Foster, chairman of the newly enlarged Student Union Committee, reported on that group. Foster, Eugene Fulmer, and Mona Smulyan were elected to three of the five positions in the student delegation which is to work with the Administrative obtained at the door of Recreation Hall while the dance is in progress. Special 2 o'clock permission have been granted for all coed tonight. Regular 1 o'clocks are effective tomorrow night.

(Continued on page three)

Pep Rally Parade

At 6:45 tonight an All-College parade, starting at the Tau Kappa Epsilon house, will wind through the fraternity section, and up the Mall to the steps of Old Main. The procession will be led by the Blue Band. Songs and yells at the rally will be directed by the cheerleading squad.

Recreation Hall, scene of the Prom, will be wearing a new Autumn dress for the evening. A low fabric ceiling, and green and white side wall coverings with painted fall foliage, pumpkins, and corn stalks will heighten the effect. Footballs, '49 numerals, goal posts, and colored lights complete the theme.

Punch will be served at the dance, under the balcony, so as not to cut out any dancing space. Fraternity booths will not be used, but plenty of chairs will be available for the weary, according to

(Continued on page seven)

Thomas Speaks On Lasting Peace

"Economic Basis for a Lasting Peace" is the theme of the first speech to be given to State College audiences by Norman Thomas, four-time Socialist candidate for President.

Mr. Thomas' first talk will be at Westminster Hall, Presbyterian Church, 4 p.m. Monday. He will also give an after dinner speech at Westminster Church. The title of the second speech is "A Critical Analysis of American Policy."

The former associate editor of Nation will speak on "An Immediate Program for Peace" in Schwab Auditorium 8 p.m. Monday. No admission will be charged for this talk.

Mr. Thomas is a contributor to both the Socialist and labor press. He has been on the Town Hall of the Air.

Mr. Thomas has been a candidate for both governor of New York and mayor of New York City. He was ordained a minister in the Presbyterian Church in 1911, but left the ministry in 1931.

Delts Celebrate 75th Birthday

Tau chapter of Delta Tau Delta, the oldest fraternity at Penn State, will observe its 75th anniversary this weekend, reported James Saling, Delta Tau Delta publicity chairman, yesterday. An estimated 125 alumni are expected to return to the College for the celebration, Saling said.

Main event of the weekend will be a banquet at the University Club where Dean of Men Arthur R. Warnock will be guest speaker. G. Herbert McCracken, national president of Delta Tau Delta, is also expected to be present for the celebration.

W. VIRGINIA—PENN STATE

GAME LINE-UP

NEW BEAVER FIELD — 2 P.M.

WEST VIRGINIA

72	Cox	.....	L. E.	.....
65	Kulakowski	.....	L. T.	.....
55	Stuvek	.....	L. G.	.....
63	Benjamin	.....	C.	.....
75	Corum	.....	R. G.	.....
83	Remenar	.....	R. T.	.....
10	Spelock	.....	R. E.	.....
24	Keane	.....	O. B.	.....
42	Walthall	.....	L. H. B.	.....
25	Devonshire	.....	R. H. B.	.....
	Bumgardner	.....	F. B.	.....

Referee: David H. Behrhorst, Allegheny. Umpire: C. Lee Spillers, W. & J. Linesman: Paul S. Templeton, Pittsburgh. Field Judge: Karl W. Bohren, Pittsburgh. Electric Clock: Louis S. Demmler, Brown.

— For Penn State Roster, See Page Five —

PENN STATE

85	Tamburo	.....
71	Norton	.....
66	J. Drazenovich	.....
55	Wolosky	.....
62	Suhey	.....
70	Nolan	.....
83	Potsklan	.....
23	C. Drazenovich	.....
42	Williams	.....
12	Triplett	.....
33	Rogel	.....

West Virginia Substitutions: Becca, b; Bellas, b; Benjamin, c; Birurakis, t; Bonfilli, b; Bom, g; Boyles, g; Bumgardner, b; Caldwell, b; Cavatassi, g; Combs, b; Corum, g; Cox, e; Daley, b; Devonshire, b; Feher, c; Fought, b; Freese, b; Guido, g; Harris, t; Hoffman, t; Huntz, e; Hyre, b; Keane, b; Kulakowski, t; Lester, e; Lewellen, e; Lopez, c; Main, t; Malyk, b; Manchin, g; Manzo, g; Maylander, e; Metro, e; Moran, e; Morecraft, e; Morton, b; Pence, c; Pozega, g; Remenar, t; Reno, e; Richmond, b; Schrader, b; Smolin, b; Spelock, e; Stoken, e; Stuvek, g; Thomas, c; Thornton, b; Torchio, t; Visnic, b; Vrotsos, t; Walthall, b; Ware, c; White, b; Wilson, b; Wilson K, e; Zinaich, b; Zubel, g.