

Jefferymen Try for Fourth Win In Clash With Cornell Booters

Bill Jeffrey's Lion soccermen will attempt to climb back into the win column as 20 Nittany booters don uniforms for the fifth game of the season against the Big Red of Cornell on the soccer field at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Victims by a 2-1 score of a powerful Navy team last Saturday, the Lions record now stands at three wins and one defeat. In their three first tiffs, the booters downed Bucknell 3-0, Colgate 2-1, and Penn 3-2.

CLASH PREDICTED

If past performances can serve as reliable criteria, tomorrow's game should develop into a spirited, hard fought tussle. Last season, the Jefferymen, playing at Ithaca, ran into a rugged, hard-charging Big Red aggregation that surrendered a 2-1 win to the Lions only after 88 minutes of heated conflict.

Coached by Jim Smith, a former intercollegiate soccer great, the Ithacamen have won two and lost two in their four games this season. Defeated by Colgate 4-3 and Haverford College 1-0, the Red Raiders registered their first win over Mohawk College two weeks ago.

Except for one change in his choice of reserves, Coach Bill Jeffrey will field the same 20 turfmens that squared off against the Mid-dies last week. In place of substitute fullback Bud Pierce, the genial Scot has summoned half-back Ed Wilson for relief duty.

JEFFREY

Starting for the Lions at goalie will be reliable Gene Graebner, with big Ed Watson of State College on hand for reserve detail. Frank "the Smasher" Taucher and Jim Kline get the nod at the fullback slots with Dave Binns and Chuck Margolf in relief roles.

Midfield chores will be handled by Jeffrey's sparkling halfback trio of Captain Dean Hartman, Ralph Hosterman, and husky Jack Campbell. Jim Eiters, Dick Hanna, and Ed Wilson are slated for substitute duties.

In the forward line, Fred Kretzer, who has tallied all four markers the Lions have scored in the last two games, will start at center forward. Dean Witmer and Ted Lieb will hold down the right flank of the offensive wall, while sharp passing Bill Shellenberger and lithe Hal Hackman will fill the left side positions.

Aggressive Pete Buzad, impressive in relief play last Saturday against Navy, will be joined by Will Kraybill and Spence Boyer to spell the forward starters.

Jayvees Perform

For the first time in years Penn State is sponsoring a junior varsity football program this fall.

Pigskin Forecast

Collegian presents football forecasts by Joe Harris of this week's leading intercollegiate football games. Last week Harris predicted 77 right, 21 wrong, with one tie, for a 78.6 per cent average. His season's average stands at 400 right, 99 wrong, and 15 ties for an 80.2 per cent accuracy.
