

WSGA Issues Coed Booklet

A new booklet published by WSGA will be distributed to upper and lower class women in their dormitories this week.

The purpose of the booklet is to help all women, especially new sophomore coeds, to acquaint themselves with their student government and its functions.

The pamphlet's twenty-eight pages are devoted to the WSGA Senate, House of Representatives, Freshman Council, Freshman Customs Board (now inactive), Junior Service Board, Judicial Committee, WSGA regulations on hours and special permissions, and the general conduct of their meetings. The relation of the coed to her student government is especially stressed.

Coeds To Compete In Hockey Play Day

Penn State coeds will compete with three other schools in a Field Hockey Play Day at Bucknell University, Saturday, according to Miss Mildred Lucey, WRA advisor.

Bucknell, Dickinson University, and Susquehanna University will also participate in the meet.

Members of the team include Mickey Barnet, Jean Bossart, Sally Brooks, Eva Davies, Mary Faylor, Sally Hostetter, Anna Keller, Marian Memory, Virginia Miller, Frances Nichols, Pat Rauterberg, and Lee Ann Wagner, captain.

Team members were chosen by Miss Lucey from a group of about thirty coeds who participated in interclass hockey this fall. The tournament, under the direction of Miss Lucey, was played four nights a week at Holmes Field.

Miss Marie Haidt, associate professor of Physical Education, Miss Dorothy Briant, and Miss Lucey, both of the Physical Education Department, will accompany the team on the trip.

Engagements

Newton—Rice

Miss Mary Kay Rice has announced her engagement on October 31, to Guy Newton, '46.

Miss Rice who is a seventh semester education student is chairman of the Judicial Committee, president of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority, and senior board member of La Vie. Her fiance was graduated in February of 1946 in commercial chemistry and is now employed by the Firestone Co. in Pottsville. While at the College, Mr. Newton was head cheerleader, a member of Skull and Bones and Lion's Paw, and president of Delta Sigma Phi fraternity.

Alpha Gamma Delta

Alpha Gamma Delta's alumnae will entertain Mrs. G. W. Schindehutte, province president, on Sunday evening. She will be guest of honor at a dessert party, sponsored by the sorority, in the southwest lounge of Atherton Hall at 7 p.m. Tuesday night. One representative from all sororities on campus will be invited to attend.

Coeds Elect Presidents For Dorm, WSGA Delegates

New dormitory presidents, who will also serve as delegates to the WSGA House of Representatives, were recently elected in all coed living units.

Representatives are Helen Baker, Women's Building; Madelyn Bush, Watts; Rita Cota, Kappa Delta; Eleanor Fehnel, Phi Mu; Lois Kinsley, Nittany Co-op; Norma Lash, southeast Atherton; Madelyn McCall, Alpha Xi Delta; Marian Memory, Gamma Phi Beta; Jeanne

Mowry, Locust Lane Lodge; Gloria Parks, northeast Atherton; Ann Pearson, Grange; Norma Prutzman, Zeta Tau Alpha; Joan Seltzer, McAllister Hall; Joy Stewart, Wiley Dorm; Betty J. Williams, Alpha Chi Omega; Shirley Yarus, Sigma Delta Tau.

Each girl is required by the WSGA constitution to have at least a 1.5 all-college average and no major judicial record.

Janet Lyons, vice-president of the Senate, is also Speaker of the House. Madelyn McCall is secretary. The secretary is elected from the House by its members.

The House of Representatives, which meets in the second floor lounge of Old Main at 5 p.m. each Tuesday, discusses and legislates on matters brought by the various dormitory representatives. The living unit president reports to the girls in her dormitory what has been planned and discussed at these meetings.

This organization is also in charge of the annual Christmas Drive and the May Day Program.

A member of the Dean of Women's Office acts as an advisory member of the House.

Honoraries Plan Mixer

Lakonides, women's physical education honorary society, is planning a "Fizz-Ed" mixer, together with Phi Epsilon Kappa, men's physical education honorary group. This project will be held in White Hall at 8 p.m. on Monday.

This "Fizz-Ed" mixer is for all students enrolled in the Physical Education School. High spots of the evening will be a series of relay races. There will also be dancing.

Last Saturday afternoon, following the football game, Lakonides gave a cabin party for all the new sophomore physical education girls. The party included skits, stunts, a hike, a fireside sing, a spaghetti dinner, and an all-night stay at the WRA cabin.

The officers of Lakonides are Nan James, president; Josephine Bihl, vice-president; Mary Margaret Barnett, secretary; and Kay Bitner, treasurer.

Lakonides now has 22 members, as well as honorary members.

Intramural Teams To Start Tourney

Practice for WRA basketball and bowling intramurals began Tuesday night. Tournament play will start next week.

To be eligible for a team, each player must have put in one practice period at White Hall either Tuesday night, last night, or tonight.

Included in the intramurals are sorority, dorm, and independent teams. All teams have been assigned to either of the three WRA leagues.

A fall schedule listing the days and hours the different leagues will play was released recently by Nancy Romig, WRA intramural chairman, and Miss Mildred Lucey, WRA advisor.

About twenty-five teams will compete in the intramurals this year.
