

Blue and White Soccermen Seek Sixth Win, Encounter Syracuse

Seventeen Lion soccermen left for Syracuse at 8:30 o'clock this morning for tomorrow afternoon's game against the Orangemen at Archbold Stadium. First string goalie Gene Graebner, who suffered an ear and head laceration at Monday's practice, will not make the trip with the Jeffreyemen.

Boasting an .800 average for the current season, the Lion booters will be gunning for their sixth win of the campaign against the New York aggregation. The Lion's record includes wins over Bucknell, Colgate, Penn, and Cornell with Navy's 2-1 victory the lone blemish of the season.

PAST PERFORMANCES

Penn State holds an overwhelming past performance advantage over the Orangemen, having dropped only one game to the Syracuse in 22 years. This loss, however, was one of Bill Jeffrey's most costly defeats for it marked the only setback suffered by a Lion squad on home ground in the seventeen year period from 1926 to 1943.

Coached by Arthur Horrocks of England, the Syracuse turfmen have not been impressive in booting competition this season. The Orangemen's record of one win and four losses includes defeats by Cortland, Ithaca, and Colgate with their lone victory coming over Mohawk College. Last season the Lions roared to a 6-0 win over the New Yorkers as high-scoring Kenny Hosterman ran wild with a five goal scoring spree against the invaders.

LION STARTERS

With goalie Graebner sidelined for tomorrow's tiff, Coach Jeffrey has slated lanky Ed Watson for the starting net tending position with Lancaster's husky Jim Doman in the relief role.

Undecided on his fullback starters, the Smiling Scot will give the nod to either the Jim Kline, Frank Taucher or the Dave Binns, Chuck Margolf duo. At halfbacks, Ralph Hosterman, Dean Hartman, and Jack Campbell will start with Dick Hanna standing by for reserve duty.

Forward wall posts will be handled by Hal Hackman, Dean Witmer, Fred Kretzer, Bill Shellenberger, and Ted Lieb. For substitutes "Bagpipe Bill" has chosen his two standout diminutives, Pete Buzad and Will Kraybill.

IM Basketball

Entries for intramural basketball must be turned in at the Intramural Athletic Office at Rec Hall by 5:00 p.m., Friday, November 7, Clarence Sykes, Assistant Director of Intramural Athletics, announced today.

Each fraternity or independent organization may enter one team. There will be separate leagues for fraternities and independents. The entry fee is $1.00 per team. No physicals are required.

Cross-Countrymen Trek to New York; Face Stiff Test Against Manhattan

A cross-country team with a big job before it left State College this morning for New York. The proposition of facing the New York City champion, Manhattan, a team that has a record that equals Penn State's record, will give the Nittany harriers something to think about as they take the trip for Saturday's meet.

To prepare his runners for the rough and hilly Van Cortland Park course, Coach Werner took them to the Centre Hills Country Club golf course for a work-out. The Centre Hills course is similar to the Manhattan course in that it has very few level places in it.

"Saturday's meet will not be just another dual meet," said Coach Chiock Werner. "We are meeting one of the top teams in the nation, and since the Van Cortland course is used for the IC-4A races, the team will have a good chance to practice against stiff competition in preparation for the championship race just ten days off."

WERNER

Manhattan rose to national prominence Tuesday when it dethroned NYU as the New York City Champions. CCNY, a team that has not lost a duel meet in two years, NYU, last year's IC-4A champs, and three or four other city colleges competed for the metropolitan championship. The New Yorkers upset Penn State last year for the Lion's only defeat. Curt Stone and Ashenfelter placed first and third, but as in last Tuesday's meet, the Jaspers bunched their men in the strategic positions to win 25-30. The runners making the trip are: Jerry Karver, Horace Ashenfelter, Fred Lennox, Pappy Lorgenecker, Mitch Williams, John Bates, and Bob Auman.

Lion Booter Cheers Quakers After Kindness in Hospital

By ARNOLD GERTON

Penn State has one University of Pennsylvania rooter on campus, and that is Ken Hosterman, high-scoring center forward, who suffered a fractured leg during the Penn State-Penn game Oct. 18, which State won 3-2.

His high regard of Penn may seem strange, but as he explained, sitting in an easy chair at his home in State College with his injured right leg resting on a cushion, "I couldn't have been treated better anywhere."

HOSTERMAN

"While I was laid up in the hospital in Philly, their coach, Charlie Scott, and members of the team visited me practically every one of the seven days that I was in bed."

COACH'S ATTENTION

Ken said that after the accident happened on the field, one of Penn's soccer managers came over to him to see if he could do anything. He said that Penn's coach was with him even while the game was continuing.

"I didn't know he was the coach," Ken said, "until one day in the hospital, I asked this visitor if he were one of the managers. I was pretty embarrassed when he told me who he was."

Score Swim Wins

A new intramural swimming mark for the 120-yard relay was set for the second time this week as Phi Gamma Delta crushed Kappa Sigma, 33-8; in another meet, Sigma Chi trounced Sigma Nu, 27-14.

Peck, Pillsbury, Houck, and Mallory of Phi Gamma Delta raced the 120 yards in 1:03.3, clipping more than two seconds off the previous record.

Sigma Chi, defending its crown for the first time this season, triumphed easily over Sigma Nu, with Kirkpatrick sparkling for the victors.
