

WRA Executives Announce Members of Social Board

At the WRA executive board meeting in White Hall Friday, Claire Lee, vice-president of WRA and social chairman of the organization, announced a social board for the year.

Members of the board include two journalism majors, Dorothy Jones and June Snyder; two art majors, Kay Courtney and an additional one to be appointed later; and four other members, Jo Fox, Jean Murphy, Jane Slifer, and June Wiley. There are four sophomores and four juniors.

The chief work of the board this semester will be to plan the annual Christmas party at White Hall for needy children of State College. A Santa Claus will be present to distribute gifts among the children. Games will be played and refreshments served.

Tournaments

Nancy Romig, intramural chairman, announced that the basketball and bowling tournaments would start this week.

Miss Romig pointed out that anyone participating in intramural competition was required to have put in at least an hour's practice at one of three special sessions in White Hall last week.

Polly Globish, club chairman, reported that the modern dance club would purchase the first gift for the French war orphan adopted by WRA and Cwens. During the semester, each club belonging to WRA will prepare a package to send to their "orphan."

Scorers Needed

Shirley Gauger, sophomore representative to WRA, reported that more timers and scorers for the WRA basketball games and bowling matches must be secured.

Anyone interested in either timing or scoring for one or two hours a night, from 7 to 8 p.m. or 8 to 9 p.m., on either Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday is requested to contact Miss Gauger, first Jordan.

Frances Nichols, secretary, was appointed by Lee Ann Wagner, president of WRA, to handle the WRA scrapbook.

In this book are gathered all records of WRA events as well as snapshots of tournament play and formal pictures of championship teams.

Heavy Rains Halt Hockey Play Day

Because of heavy rains last Saturday morning, the Field Hockey Play Day at Bucknell was cancelled.

Three schools were planning to compete in the competition at Bucknell, including Penn State's varsity team, captained by Lee Ann Wagner.

According to an announcement by Miss Mildred Lucey, WRA advisor and field hockey coach, it is too late in the season to plan another tournament.

Twelve College women, chosen from the interclass hockey teams which have been playing four nights a week at Holmes Field, were to have made the trip.

'Skirt at the Knee' Wins 'Corkie' Title For Jo Berry

Jo Berry, sophomore liberal artist, has a new title. It's official, too. She's "Corkie, Queen of the Short Skirt Skip."

ISC's Short Skirt Skip Friday night was the beginning of an All-College short skirt week. Miss Berry was chosen by the judges at the dance as the most typical example of how a coed should look in a skirt. Needless to say the judges were male.

Her skirt wasn't above the knee, Miss Berry explained, but it wasn't exactly below, either. She admits that she doesn't wear 'em that short ordinarily but she does go on the record as being opposed to the extreme lengths of this season, especially for class.

Kappa Sig pledge Don Langer, who was Miss Berry's date for the dance, agrees implicitly with the current campaign against the "new look."

Miss Berry, a Chi O pledge, is from Lock Haven and attended Lock Haven Teachers College her freshman year.
