Delta Sig Leads Lion Suit Drive

A total of $57.40 has been collected toward a new suit for the Lion. Delta Sigma Phi still leads with a contribution of $7.40. An estimated $500 is needed for a new suit.

Donations are needed if students are to see the Lion cavorting around the football field next year, said John Bengalian, president of Druids, which is sponsoring the drive.

All students are urged to drop pennies, nickels, and dimes in the contribution boxes as they pass, added Bengalian. This is in addition to regular contributions from organized groups.

Boxes are now in the Pollock Circle and Nittany Dorm Dining Commons, Student Union, Windcrest Co-op and laundries, Atherton Hall, Grange, Watts Hall, Irvin Hall, Jordan Hall, Cody Manor, Locust Lane Lodge, New College Diner, Cook's, the Corner Room, and Graham's.

Foreign Students Engage In International Festival

The first International Festival on campus will be held in 304 Old Main from 3-5 p.m. Sunday under the sponsorship of Commission I of the Penn State Christian Association.

Active participants in the affair will be students from Albania, Bolivia, China, Hungary, India, and South America, said William Niering and Dorothy Park, commission co-chairmen. William Stumpf will be master of ceremonies.

Features of the program are skits, displays, and songs by the foreign students. Refreshments will also be served.

Miss Park said that the primary purpose of the festival is to afford the students a chance to become better acquainted with these unofficial ambassadors. What they take back home, she added, will be the impressions from contacts made here.

Although it is unfortunate the program has to be this weekend, she went on to say, it will give those students remaining at school something to do.

State Party—

3000 sophomores cast ballots. No violations of the elections code were reported.

President-elect Allen will be installed at the All-College Cabinet meeting which follows the Thanksgiving vacation. He will represent the sophomore class for the remainder of the fall semester, and the entire spring semester.

Vice-president Nancy Cray will cast the sophomore vote at Cabinet meetings in case of the president's absence. Allen will call and preside over all sophomore class meetings. He will receive $100 compensation.

Charles Beatty Jr., secretary-treasurer, automatically becomes a member of Inter-Class Finance Board. This group handles all class funds. Beatty will receive $50 for his services.

College Official Dies Suddenly

Fred S. Hanson Jr., coordinator of building maintenance and repair at the College, was found dead at his apartment yesterday morning.

Mr. Hanson became ill at work Wednesday and was assisted home by fellow workers. He was found by John D. Hart, the landlord of the apartment.

A graduate of Dartmouth College, Hanson first began work in the College's department of grounds and buildings in 1922. Besides working for the Civil Works Administration in the Central Pennsylvania area, he was employed in Massachusetts, Georgia and the Panama Canal Zone in the construction and surveying field.
