

Lions Win Lambert Trophy Reign as East's Top Power

Soccer All-Stars Please Onlookers

The spectators at the all-star soccer games played over the Thanksgiving holidays in Pittsburgh, St. Louis and Chicago, were pleased with the showing of the collegiate all-star team, according to Bill Jeffrey, Penn State soccer mentor.

Weather was the only bad factor of the trip. The collegiate kickers lost to a Pittsburgh all-star team, 5-2, in four inches of mud, and were defeated by a squad of Chicago all-stars in the last twenty seconds of the game, 3-2, in a snowstorm. The collegians bagged their lone win in a night game at St. Louis, winning 2-0, on a cold, hard field.

Jeffrey coached the team in its western trip, in which it met amateur all-star teams from those cities. Included in the collegian squad were five Penn Staters: Gene Graebner, Dean Hartman, Ralph Hosterman, Freddie Kretzer, and Dean Witmer.

The "Smiling Scot" was im-

Penn State's undefeated, untied Cotton Bowl bound football team is the 1947 winner of the Lambert Trophy, symbol of Eastern gridiron supremacy.

Receiving 68 of 108 votes cast, the Lions thus ended Army's three year reign as the top football power in the East and brought the much-vaunted award to Nittany Vale for the first time in Penn State's football history. Although it has not definitely been announced when the trophy will be presented to the College, preparations are under way so that the presentation can be made before the Lions depart for Dallas.

Coach Bob Higgins and Jim Coogan, director of sports publicity, will leave for New York this morning to meet with the Lambert Trophy committee and arrange for the actual presentation of the award.

STEVE SUHEY

Suhey Cops AP Berth

Steve Suhey, 205-pound Nittany Lion star from Cazenovia, N. Y., captured a first team guard berth on the Associated Press All-American squad, released last night.

This is the second national All-American selection that has awarded a first team spot to the rugged Lion running guard. Suhey copped a similar post on the International News Service All-American.

Associated Press honorable mention was given Jeff Durkota, hard-running wingback; John Nolan, powerful tackle; Joe Colone, brilliant fullback, and Larry Joe, fleet-footed tailback.

Boxing Candidates

Candidates for the varsity boxing team and managerships are requested to report to the ring at Rec Hall after four o'clock any day this week, said Leo Houck, boxing mentor.

Lions Still Fifth in Nation, Hold Light Practice Session

Fifth place was still Penn State's level in the weekly Associated Press ratings released late yesterday. In spite of a 19-19 tie that knocked them from the country's undefeated and untied ranks, Southern Methodist's Mustangs, the Lions' Cotton Bowl foes, retained fourth place over State by 94 points.

Michigan's Rose Bowl-bound Wolverines crept closer to Notre Dame in this week's poll, narrowing the gap to eight points between first and second place.

Unbeaten, once-tied Southern California, which battles Notre Dame Saturday and Michigan on New Year's, retained the third spot.

Ranking is determined by voting of 246 sports writers throughout the country. Following is the total vote figured on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis, first place votes in parentheses:

1. Notre Dame (58½)	1184
2. Michigan (54½)	1176
3. Southern Calif. (2)	836
4. Southern Methodist	745
5. Penn State	651
6. Texas (2)	565
7. Alabama	531
8. Pennsylvania	473
9. Georgia Tech	208
10. North Carolina (9)	207

About three light practice sessions per week and several chalk talks make up the Nittany Lions' probable schedule until they leave for the Cotton Bowl about Dec. 20.

The State eleven staged its initial practice yesterday since thumping Pitt, 29-0, in the season finale.

Nittany end Ed Czekaj, who will graduate in February, is now student teaching in Williamsport.

Suhey, Tamburo, Colone Honored At NYC Banquet

Three Nittany gridmen—Steve Suhey, Sam Tamburo and Joe Colone—circled last Saturday as a red-letter day to remember.

For it was Saturday that they were three of 55 outstanding football players from various colleges and universities throughout the nation who were honored guests at a Winter Ball at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City.

An annual event sponsored by the Outdoor Cleanliness Association of New York City, the Ball included a huge banquet and a

IM Cage Squads Resume League Tilts

Nine games highlighted Monday night's program as intramural basketball teams resumed competition following the holiday lay-offs.

A classy Berks Independent five showed speed-to-burn and shooting accuracy as it downed the Penn State Club 39-10. Shellenberger led the Berks attack with 14 points, most of them made with beautiful left-handed hook shots.

A tall Cody Comets cage squad was too much for the Eagles as they used their superior height well at the boards to register a 31-11 win. Preston was high scorer for the victors, sinking 5 field goals for 10 points.

Murgas surprised the Newman Club team, which was staffed with 7 football players including Nolan, Tamburo, and Chuck Drazenovich, 20-16 in a hard fought battle.

Other scores are:

Warriors 15, 300 Club 10; Dorm 314, Dragons 11; Red Flashes 16, Dorm 6 10; Anonymous Five 13, Dorm 5 8; Dorm 37 25, Dorm 41 8; Dorm 24 won by forfeit from Dorm 39.

Tonight's tilts are:

8:45 Dorm 27-Dorm 35, court 1; Dorm 29-Dorm 33, court 2; Dorm 25-Dorm 38, court 3.

9:25 Dorm 28-Dorm 36, court 1; Dorm 30-Dorm 34, court 2; Nittany Co-op-Berletics, court 3.

10:05 Dorm 13-Miners, court 1; Drawlers-Zeros, court 2; Whiz Kids-Dorm 9, court 3.
