

Suhey, Tamburo —

dance afterward. Dancing partners for the gridders were chosen from New York debutantes.

Suhey, Tamburo and Colone attended the Ball and stayed overnight at the Waldorf—Astoria with expenses paid by the Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company. They attended the New York Yanks—Buffalo Bills pro football game and received silver footballs as souvenirs of their trip.

Also present at the dance and banquet were Bobby Lane of Texas, Bob Chappius of Michigan, Charley Bednarik of Penn., and many other top-flight grid stars.

More plaudits will be showered on Penn State's football team soon when the State College Commerce Club honors the gridders at a testimonial banquet in mid-January.

Safety Lectures

Lorin J. Elder, college safety supervisor, will explain and demonstrate the use of fire fighting equipment at a mass meeting of all Windcrest residents in the Community Hall at 7 o'clock tonight.

room rates than a majority of schools.

Reports concerning unsatisfactory serving and preparation of food, unpleasant attitude of help, and isolated cases of discourtesy by the College employees were reviewed with Mr. Hostetter. He agreed that if these conditions are true they were unjustified.

Mr. Hostetter said that the College must perform a satisfactory service to the student body. He stated that he would personally care for the matter of student treatment.

WINNERS OF THE CHESTERFIELD BOWL!

A week before Penn State received a bid to the Cotton Bowl, it got a bid to the Chesterfield Bowl. Three Penn Staters had perfect scores. Maybe that's a premonition that Penn State will do as well in football as George, Tom and Charlie did in guessing the number of cigarettes in the bowl at the Corner Room. The three lucky students who scored 295 points in cigarettes were: George Herold, Pi Kappa Phi; Tom Botsford, Sigma Phi Epsilon; and Charles Gehring, 124 S. Pugh Street. Will the winners please notify Gloria Goldenstroth, 307 Woman's Bldg., and pick up their carton of Chesterfields—compliments of Chesterfields. And remember, for the month of December and the Christmas holidays, it's "AGC" . . .

Always GIVE Chesterfields
