

Chapel Offers Carol Concert In Annual Christmas Program

The College Chapel Choir, consisting of 106 voices, under the direction of Mrs. Willia Taylor, will present its annual Christmas concert in Schwab Auditorium 11 o'clock Sunday morning and will give a repeat performance in the afternoon at 3:30.

The concert will be in the form of a Christmas service of worship through music and scripture readings, the latter given by James Smith acting College chaplain.

Organist and accompanist for the annual event is George Ceiga, teacher of organ and regular chapel organist.

Miss Rebecca Griffin will appear as soloist in one of the anthems entitled "Balulalow."

Numbers Listed

Choir numbers will be "Carol In Dulci Jubilo," a German carol arranged by Pearsall; "The Angels' Song" by Tschesnokov; "Shepherds, Shake Off Your Drowsy Sleep," a French carol arranged by Wasner; "The Three Kings" by Willan; "Balulalow" by Warlock; "Beside Thy Cradle Here I Stand" by Bach; "God Rest You Merry Gentlemen," a carol of England arranged by Lefebvre.

The prelude is entitled, "Chorale Improvisation on 'In Dulci Jubilo' by Karg-Elert." "Christmas in Sicily" by Yon will be the offertory organ selection. The postlude will be "Joy to the World."

Scripture Readings

Scripture selections will be taken from the books of Luke and Matthew. An offering will be received at both service for the support of Linsman University, Canton, China, the project of the campus for over 35 years and known as Penn-State-in-China.

Deadline Today

Students must complete first phase registration today, or the late registration fee of $5 will be assessed, Ray V. Watkins, scheduling officer, said yesterday.

Mutual Radio System To Recall Hig's Close Call

They're still toasting Bob Higgins for his first unbeaten, untied football season.

Tonight, over a nation-wide hook-up, Bill Brandt will pay tribute to Higgins over the facilities of the Mutual Broadcasting System. Radio Station WMAJ will carry the program at 7:45 o'clock.

Brandt will recall the famous pass play against Pitt in 1919 which thrust Higgins into the national limelight.

It will be the feature of his nightly "Once In a Lifetime" story, and will recall how Higgins took the pass on his own 15 and went the length of the field for the score.

The program, however, will not carry an incident that happened to the Hig last week. The 53-year-old mentor arrived at Clairton for a scheduled speech but learned to his embarrassment that he should have been in Clarion, 100 miles away.

The coach has renewed admiration for the "t."

AVC Plans Rally On Co-op Decision

Concerted action protesting the adverse decision on the student co-op store will begin at an American Veterans' Committee-sponsored meeting at 312 Sparks, 7 p.m. Tuesday, said Melvin Katinsky, public relations chairman of AVC's local chapter.

All campus organizations are invited to send representatives and to participate in the campaign to persuade the executive committee of the College Board of Trustees to reverse their refusal.

The national AVC field secretary assured the local chapter that some of the national officers will be available for lectures in Schwab Auditorium next semester. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr. and Cord Meyer, author of "Peace or Anarchy," may be among those asked to speak.

Permissions Granted

Eleven o'clock permissions will be awarded to women's groups going Christmas carol singing Monday through Thursday night next week, WSGA senate decided yesterday.

The presidents of the caroling organizations must first present a list of their group members and their dormitory address to the Dean of Women's office before permission can be granted.

Editorial Meeting

There will be a meeting of the senior editorial board in 8 Carnegie Hall at 4 o'clock today, and a meeting of the junior, sophomore and candidate editorial staff tomorrow at 2 o'clock.

Schwab Jazz Night True to Dixieland

Despite the be-bop tendencies which have plagued jazz circles of late, the Tru-Blu Sextet has remained close to the traditions of jazz and promise an entertaining program of the authentic Dixieland style for those who will attend "Jazz Night at Schwab," 7:30 o'clock Monday night.

Tickets for the concert can still be purchased at the Book and Record Shop, Hotel State College, McMullens, Student Union and from AVC members, said Ben French, chairman.

The band is one of the few on college campuses today that still cling to the early type of jazz. They stick to the tunes which are associated with such giants of jazz as the New Orleans Rhythm Kings, the Original Dixieland Jazz Band, and men like Louis Armstrong and Jelly Roll Morton.

Repertoire Listed

Included in their repertoire are many of the old evergreens such as "I Ain't Gonna Give Nobody None of My Jelly Roll," "That's a Plenty," "When the Saints Go Marchin' In," "At the Jazz Band Ball," and those immortal Blues from which jazz sprang.

Organized by jazz connoisseur Hughie Riddall last February, the Tru Blu has now become an institution at the College. The instrumentation of the band represents the conventional Dixieland lineup of a trumpet, clarinet, trombone, bass, piano, and drums with a vocal thrown in now and then.

"Shoeless" Lou Levi plays the piano and doubles as vocalist when called upon. It is said that

Tickets Still Available

"Out of the Frying Pan," Players' arena production, will be presented at Center Stage, 8 o'clock tomorrow night. Tickets are still available and may be obtained at Student Union. The price is $1.10 which includes refreshments after the show.

Blanks Available For Fee Deferment

Students who wish to defer payment of second semester fees may pick up application forms at the bursar's office, Russell E. Clark, bursar, said yesterday.

The forms must be filled out by the student's parent or guardian and returned to the bursar on or before January 10, 1948, to avoid payment of the $5 late application fee, Mr. Clark added.

He pointed out that the deferment service is entirely free when applications are submitted on time. The fee for late application is charged to cover the expense involved in making the necessary adjustments during registration procedures.

Complete information on fee deferment appears on the application forms.

Michigan Coach Asked to Dinner

Coach-of-the-year Fritz Crisler of the Michigan Wolverines has been invited to speak at the testimonial dinner to be given the Nittany Lion football team by the Commerce Club of State College January 12.

Other famous coaches are also expected to join in praising the unbeaten, untied Penn State team. New York Giant coach Steve Owen, recognized for years as one of the nation's best professional mentors, has accepted a bid to attend the dinner.

Matty Bell, coach of Southern Methodist, has been invited to meet the Lion team over a banquet table instead of the gridiron. Bell was runner-up in the coach-of-the-year poll.

Indiana coach Bo McMillin is also expected to be one of the speakers. Only a few years ago he was chosen coach of the year.

Chester L. Smith, sports editor of the Pittsburgh Press, will direct the program at the dinner and act as toastmaster.

Donovan To Direct New SU Department

The department of Associated Student Activities and Student Union has been established by the Trustees of the College, and George L. Donovan, manager of Student Union, has been named head of the department.

The work of the new department, James Milholland, acting president of the College explained, will embrace the activities previously handled by the Associated Student Activities and by Student Union.

Student Union was organized in 1930 and in 1943, when the Associated Student Activities was established, became a part of that office.

4-Point Plan Approved

WASHINGTON — The House banking committee gave its approval to the Republican four-point voluntary anti-inflation program today.

However, President Truman made it plain that he is entertaining no possibility of a substitute for his ten-point plan to combat inflation. As long as he remains president, the anti-trust laws will be fully enforced.

The Republican program would be based on relaxation of the anti-trust laws to permit voluntary action by businessmen to keep prices down.

9 Jews Slain

PALESTINE—Nine Jewish settlers were killed and three others were wounded by Arab gunmen between Jerusalem and Hebron. Palestine Jewish policemen are said to have driven the attackers away from a five-truck convoy but only after a running gun battle.

Hot 'n Gold Runs a Little Cool

By William E. Reimer

Thespians' golden anniversary revue, "Hot 'n Gold," a somewhat slapped-together attempt to present the best from Thespian shows of the past 50 years, fell short of the ballyhoo it has been receiving around the campus and looked as though it had been put together fast, as the program so apologetically states.

If the production had lived up to its advance notices there's little doubt that "Hot 'n Gold" would have been one of the troupe's finest shows . . . but if you like the regular run of Thespian shows you'll like this one, and give due credit to the people who made it what it was last night, cast and crews included.

Grove's Sour Note

In the opening music just before the curtain rises, Paul Grove's orchestra strikes a few sour notes that will probably be eliminated in tonight's show but does an otherwise fine job in providing the music.

The curtain-raising scene, an eye-filling line of coed-chorines, gets things off to a pretty fast stepping start that continues midway through the first act until Marcie Romanoff gives out her "Call To Love."

One of the best Thespian sets seen in a long time provides the background necessary for the song, "Make Me the King of an Island," during which the male hula line gives out with some antics that brings some of the best laughs of the evening . . . someone's "padding" slipped, and whether or not it was intentional is left for you to decide . . . if it wasn't planned that way there would be no tears if they left it in the routine.

Adele Yablon and Bill McCurt's "I've Got My Designs on You" is no exception to the usual fine performance these two turn in. "Fortie's Four," with some new faces, brings back an old song in big-time fashion, and the
