Truman Budget

WASHINGTON, D. C. - President Truman sent the biggest peacetime budget in the nation's history to Congress yesterday. The billion dollar budget included 11 billions for national defense and seven billion dollars for m-ternational affairs, including the Marshall Plan for European recovery.

Stassen vs. Pauley

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Harold Stassen, an avowed presidential candidate, opened verbal fire again trops of Edwin Pauley, special assistant to the secretary of the army. In an open letter to the President, Stassen challenged Pauley's right to keep his post Victor and Henry Lambert, Pauley's right to keep his post atter admittedly making nearly a million dollars in commodity speculation. Gridders at Banquet

by Ted Rubin

"You had one of the finest teams I've seen anywhere . . . we never played a team all year which played a cleaner or a harder game," commented SMU coach Matty Bell at the Commerce Club banquet before an estimated audi-ence of 800 at Rec Hall last night. The featured speaker on a three and one-half hour program which paid homage to the 1947 Penn State grid quad, Bell represented his team and the city of Dallas in joining in the praise showered on the gridders and their coaches.

Chet Smith, sports editor of the Pittsburgh Press, was toastmaster for the evening, coloring the program with his bottomless repertoire of humorous sports colloquialisms.
