

Druid Drive Nets $85 for Lion Suit

Druids, sophomore men's honorary, has collected $85.68 toward a new Lion uniform, said Joseph D. Shein, chairman of the drive.

The money will be given to Harold R. (Ike) Gilbert, graduate manager of athletics, and will be used for the Lion suit. Further plans for collecting funds for the uniform are being formulated.

John Benglian, president of Druids, thanks each of the individual contributors and the contributing organizations who helped make the drive as successful as it was.

Shein listed the following organizations as having contributed to the fund for the Lion uniform:
