

YMCA Secretary Discusses 'Week'

Fred Miller, general secretary of the Y.M.C.A. at the University of Pittsburgh, who has organized Religion-in-Life Weeks at various campuses, spoke to the Campus Committee for Religion-in-Life Week at the College Tuesday.

Mr. Miller explained the objectives to be accomplished during the week, which will have as its theme, "Faith—Nucleus for Living."

A. O. Morse, assistant to the president in charge of resident instruction, presented the official welcome. He assured the committee that the administration is in complete support of the Religion-in-Life Week program. "Not only the administration, but the trustees, alumni and faculty are all eager to see this supplement to the students' character development succeed," Mr. Morse said.

IRC Sponsors "Week"

Religion-in-Life Week is sponsored by the Inter-Religious Council, composed of representatives of churches of the various faiths. The Penn State Christian Association is part of this council.

The week will begin its program with retreat Saturday, February 21, at 2:30 p.m. and continue with seminars, classroom and house lectures, and personal conferences through Thursday, February 26. It is hoped, Mrs. Byers said, that students will gain a deeper knowledge and appreciation of the purpose of religion as a result of this project.

Speakers Scheduled

Religion-in-Life Week will secure speakers from the University Christian Mission, part of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America.

Among the speakers scheduled to appear are Brooks Hays, congressman and lawyer; Herick B. Young, commentator on world political and religious affairs; Col. Charles I. Carpenter, chief chaplain of the U. S. Army Air Forces; Roy Dickerson, national authority in Marriage Counseling, and Alfred J. Thomas, counselor of pre-theological students.
