

Late Registrants To Forfeit $5

Students Reminded Of Enrollment Dates

A $5 late registration fee will be assessed on students not reporting at the following scheduled times:

New, special, two-year agriculture, third and fourth semester students, 8 a.m. to 12 noon, February 6.

Fifth and sixth semester students, 1:10 p.m. to 5 p.m., February 6.

Seventh and eighth semester students, 8 a.m. to 12 noon, February 7. Graduate students, anytime before February 14.

After picking up signed schedule cards at their advisor's office, students should report to Rec Hall to fill out blanket forms. These forms will be obtained at the advisor's office and may be completed there.

Change of schedule forms must be obtained from the board of control at the Armory. Course cards will be issued for subjects added. Blanket forms must be filled out in the changed schedule after it is approved by the scheduling officer.

Students who failed to enroll in first phase registration must report to their advisor's to receive a signed schedule and then report to the board of control at the Armory to complete blanket forms.

Change of Sections

Change of sections from one hour to another or change of course after registration will require the filing of a drop-add card. Change of section which meets at the same hour will not necessitate the application of a drop-add.

A course dropped by a department because of insufficient enrollment or for other reasons will not require a drop-add card.

Dramatics Department To Show German Films

The dramatics department will present a program of early German films in 119 New Physics at 7 o'clock tomorrow night for the dramatics 61 classes and for all others wishing to attend.

"The Cabinet of Dr. Caligari," produced in 1919, is considered one of the best films ever made, said Kelly Yeaton, assistant professor of dramatics. It is an impressionistic movie featuring Conrad Veidt and Werner Krauss.

"Don Juan's Wedding" and excerpts from "The Golem" will be the other films shown.

Kansas University Co-op Breaks Textbook Monopoly

By Lois Bloomquist

The Student Union book store at the University of Kansas is lowering the cost of textbooks and classroom supplies for 10,000 students at Lawrence, Kansas, this year.

It has broken a monopoly on college supplies that was in the hands of a few merchants, and will return $12,000 to $15,000 in refunds this year to university students.

Why High Prices?

Generations of Jayhawkers wondered, as they stood in line to buy next semester's textbooks, why somebody didn't do something about high prices. During the 1945-1946 school year a group of students began talking about a university owned or co-op book store.

These students met with faculty members and gathered information

Final Refunds

Final refunds for books and supplies used in the first semester 1947-48 will be made to veterans at the bursar's office Friday. This payment is for the benefit of veterans unable to collect previously because of extenuating circumstances such as absence from campus.

JAMES MILHOLLAND

Thespians Sponsor Scenario Contest

First prize of $100 will be awarded by Thespians to the best scenario and $25 for the best skit in a contest which closes 12 noon February 28.

Second prize of $50 and third prize of $25 will be offered in the scenario class, with a second prize of $15 and a third of $10 for the runner-up entries in the skit category.

Applicants must be students at the College, and in cases of collaboration, the prize may be divided. Six prizes will be awarded, and one person is eligible to receive more than one prize.

Anonymous Authors

All scenarios and skits, which should be submitted at Student Union, must not be signed. A number will be assigned to each application that must be registered at the SU desk.

Judges will be two members of Thespians and three faculty representatives. The author of the winning scenario will be required to assist in its production if selected for the spring 1948 show.

Material must be typed double spaced on standard size paper with one original and four carbons.

In what promises to be the largest peace-time mid-year graduation in the history of the College, approximately 700 candidates will receive their bachelors and advanced degrees in Rec Hall, 10:30 a.m. January 31.

This large number is a natural result of the accelerated program conducted during the war, according to William S. Hoffman, registrar. An all-time high was hit in 1942, with 782 graduating, because of stepped-up schedules.

Since the commencement exercises will be held in Rec Hall, instead of in Schwab Auditorium, tickets will not be required for admittance, making it possible for anyone to attend, said Ray Conger, chairman of the Senate Committee on Public Occasions.

Acting President James Milholland will preside over the ceremonies and confer the degrees and honors. Mr. E. V. Condon, Director of the National Bureau of Standards, Washington, D. C., will address the candidates.

In addition, a bronze plaque will be presented to the College by Admiral J. L. Kauffman, Commandant 4th Naval District, in appreciation of the cooperation of the College and its participation in the Navy's training program. The invocation and benediction will be given by John H. Frizell, chaplain emeritus of the College.

The School of Liberal Arts will graduate the largest number of students with 214 candidates listed, 96 of them to receive BA degrees in commerce and finance.

27 in Education

The School of Education will award 27 BA degrees. Receiving BS degrees in the School of Agriculture will be 75 candidates.

Other Bachelor of Science degrees to be conferred include: the School of Chemistry and Physics, 30; School of Education, 57; School of Engineering, 153; School of Mineral Industries, 37; and School of Physical Education and Athletics, 17.

There are approximately 85 candidates for advanced degrees, nine of which will be Doctors of Philosophy.

Military Commissions

Twenty-two students will receive naval or marine commissions with their diplomas, (Continued on page four)

Ship Line Offers Trips to Sweden

A free trip to Scandinavia will be awarded to the six top winners of an essay contest sponsored by the Swedish American Line.

The subject of the essays, which are limited to 2500 words, is: "The Influence of Swedish Settlers on a Community or Region." They will be judged by a board of 14 prominent educators, and must be received before April 1.

Entries will be judged separately for college undergraduates; high school and preparatory school students; and adults, regardless of occupation.

Entries should be addressed to the Contest Editor, Swedish American Line, 636 Fifth Avenue, New York 20, N. Y.

The winners will board a liner of the Swedish American White Viking Fleet for a six-to-eight week trip this summer, with all expenses paid. Twelve additional prizes include government bonds and a $200 trip to the Swedish Centennial Celebration in the Middle West next year.

With final examinations beginning tomorrow, the Daily Collegian will suspend publication with this issue for the remainder of the semester. The next issue will appear on the first day of registration, Friday, Feb. 6.

Coeds To Vacate Town Dormitories

All women's town dormitories will be vacated at the end of the semester. Mrs. Cordelia Hibbs, assistant to the dean of women, said yesterday.

Coeds who are now occupying these dormitories will be transferred to the campus dormitories at the end of the semester.

The town houses, which have been used by coeds since the war emergency period, will be occupied by graduate students, secretaries, married couples, and men students.

Fraternities Take Over

Locust Lane Lodge will be the home of the newly organized Alpha Epsilon Pi fraternity, and Cody Manor has also been taken over by a fraternity. Davey House will be occupied by graduate students and secretaries, and Frazier and Wiley Dormitories will house married couples, men students and secretaries.

Co-op Tags Ready For Distribution

Co-op promotion tags will be distributed at regular Daily Collegian delivery points tomorrow morning and at Student Union tomorrow afternoon, according to Emory Brown, chairman of All-College Cabinet co-op committee.

To help lower the expense, the committee invited students interested in the establishment of a campus co-operative store to participate in stringing the tags at Alpha Zeta fraternity tonight.

Petitions to the Board of Trustees have been distributed to all fraternity houses and most societies. They will be forwarded to the president of the Board prior to its meeting at the College Saturday.

Some favorable response to the committee's efforts has been received, said Brown. One trustee acknowledged receipt of information relative to the formation of a co-op on campus, and promised to give it due consideration.

Actors Take Yogi Exercises For 'Hotel Universe' Roles

By Janet Adler

To walk into rehearsal of "Hotel Universe" cold would assure the spectator that Players have either gone absolutely crazy or are training for a combination of Yoga, the College choir and a gymnasium class on "how to relax those tired muscles."

"Hotel Universe" is the arena production that will be presented at Center Stage throughout next semester. The opening date is to be announced soon.

Antics for Relaxation

Kelly Yeaton, the director of this Philip Barry play, is quick to assure the observer that these odd goings on are merely exercises to relax the actors and separate them from the hub-bub of every day life. After they are completely at ease and normal human being, Yeaton says, they can more easily go into their parts as neurotic characters of a psychological play.

With their shoes kicked off and sitting on their heels or with their legs crossed, they assume the positions of Yogis. All is quiet. Suddenly someone starts

Honorary Plans Record Dance

New National Honorary Sponsors First Activity

Chimes, national Junior Women's honorary, will inaugurate the new semester with a get-acquainted disc dance immediately following the Syracuse basketball game, in Recreation Hall, February 7.

Tickets, priced at 25c for men and free admission for women, are available from any Chimes member, and during registration can be purchased at Rec. Hall, Student Union and the Corner Room.

The informal dance is planned as a pre-class mixer to help acclimate the new students to College activities and people, as well as give the old students a chance to become better acquainted, said Lois Resler and Wilma Brehm, co-chairman of the dance.

First Social Activity

This is the first social activity the newly organized Chimes group has sponsored. The local chapter, formerly Junior Service Board, and Temple University, Ohio State University, and the University of West Virginia have become charter members of the national organization. National headquarters are at State College, and Nancy Ault, former president of Junior Service Board, was chosen national president.

Lois Resler has taken over the presidential duties of the local Chimes chapter, and Eleanor Kelly has been elected vice-president.

Employment

The Student Employment Office in 420 Old Main is accepting applications for part-time jobs for the coming semester, said Allan M. Reese, in charge, today.

Students are requested to bring their tentative schedules, and to make application as soon as possible.

SU Recovered $7,000 In Lost Items Last Year

It's not the professor who is absent minded but the students.

George L. Donovan, manager of Student Union, today reported that lost items, valued at nearly $7,000, were returned to student owners during 1947.

"We almost never receive an item belonging to a professor," Donovan said, adding that women students are more forgetful than men.

Items most often appearing in the lost and found department were books and glasses. But there also appeared one day a pound of butter and one student even lost his trousers.
