

Gymnasts Meet Minnesota Tonight

Two titans in intercollegiate gymnastic circles will clash tonight when Penn State, Eastern Intercollegiate Champion, meets Minnesota, Big Nine Conference Champion, at 7 o'clock in Rec Hall. Students will be admitted to the meet upon presenting AA books.

Coach Gene Wettstone's Lion gymnasts, opening an extensive 1948 season, will seek their third series win in this fourth meeting with the Gophers. Before copping last year's Big Nine diadem, Minnesota's crack gym squad dropped only one dual decision—a 69-57 verdict to Penn State.

Leading the Lions tonight will be Ray Sorensen, team captain and a topnotch all-round performer; Bill Bonsall, 1946 National AAU-champion on the flying rings, and Steve Green, 1947 Eastern Intercollegiate side horse champion.

Tutored by Ralph Piper, the invading Gophers boast strong competitors in Don Hedstrom, Big Nine parallel bars champ; Jim Peterson, Big Nine all-around title-holder, and Howard Swanson, Conference high bar champion.

Tentative State lineup for tonight's meet follows: side horse—Clark, Sorensen, Greene; horizontal bar—Kurowski, Bonsall, Sorensen; rope climb—Postich, Lawfer, Linn; long horse—Howachyn, Sorensen, Bonsall, parallel bars—Meade, Greene, Sorensen; rings—Klotz or Morris or Sorensen and Bonsall; tumbling—Emery, Howachyn, Bonsall or Meade.

Malmen Seek First Win Against Temple Grapplers Niffany Ringmen Prepare For Western Maryland

Coach Houck's mittmen will try to duplicate last year's feat when they meet Western Maryland's Green Terrors at Rec Hall at 7 p. m. Saturday.

Chuck Drazenovich, injured Lion heavyweight, is now working out with the team and may be Houck's choice as a starter in the unlimited class.

Pat Conlon, TKO winner last week, will meet Carlo Ortenzi, Western Maryland's 175 pound Eastern Inter-Collegiate champ last year in what looms to be a gruelling fistic contest.

Coach Charlie Speidel's wrestlers, still seeking their first win, are in their third day of preparation for the team's encounter with the Temple Owls in Rec Hall at 8:30 Saturday night.

Temple opened its season last week by defeating Lafayette, 21-9. Lafayette had previously tied Bucknell, a team that was beaten by State's jayvees on Saturday.

Four Lion Trackmen Vie In Inquirer Run Friday

Four Penn State runners will make their indoor "debut" Friday evening when they take a break in their school work to vie with the country's best track men in the fourth annual Inquirer Track Meet in Philadelphia.

Leading the list of contenders for the first major indoor meet is Jerry Karver, who will defend his collegiate outdoor titles against Leslie MacMitchell, Bill Hulse and four other outstanding milers.

Horace Ashenfelter, Jim Gehrdes and Wilbert Lancaster complete the quartet of runners who will try to keep Penn State on the racing map.
