

Unpredictables Meet When ...

Lions Descend on Templars, Pin Hopes on Bottling Bobb

"Stop Nelson Bobb," will be the orders of the day when Coach John Lawther's basketball team moves into Convention Hall tonight to try to increase the Temple cagers' losing streak by one more game.

The Templars, who are sporting an unimpressive record of 11 wins and 8 losses, dropped a one-point decision to NYU, a 27-point landslide to Holy Cross, an 81-75 loss to West Virginia U. and Tuesday night lost an intra-city contest to St. Joseph's by a 59-64 count.

Although the Owls aren't headed for post-season encounters, their highscoring ace Bobb, has already surpassed the previous high for a Temple player and is aiming at a berth on the 1948 All-American team.

OTHER ACES

The Lions will have not only Bobb to contend with but also his set shot twin, Eddie Lerner, and tall, rugged Ike Borsavage. Will Haakevich, who won a starting berth on the Temple team at the beginning of the season, injured his back a few weeks ago and will not see any further action this season.

This battle will mark the last home fray for Coach Josh Cody's team and with tough battles lined up for the following four contests, he will be especially anxious to end his home stand on a high note.

In last year's games, the Templars won on the Convention Hall court a short time after they had been soundly trounced by the Lions in Rec Hall.

Coach Lawther will use the same lineup in tonight's game as he used last Wednesday against Navy. Captain Jack Biery and Milt Simon will form the attacking wall, Willard Parkhill will jump center, and John Kulp and Whitey McKown or Terry Ruhlman will have the job of stopping the high-scoring Owl forwards.

Lions Race Irish In Last Indoor Race

The shortest season for any Penn State athletic team will end this afternoon when Coach Chuck Werner's track team vies against Notre Dame at South Bend, Indiana.

Starting its dual meet season last week, the team dropped a decision to Army and today it will end its season with a contest against the Irish.

Horace Ashenleiter will take another crack at the mile chore in the beginning of the meet and will later compete in his usual two-mile stint.

Baseball Prospects

Prospective varsity baseball players who have not contacted Coach Joe Bedenk may do so next week. He can be reached in Rec Hall or under the East stands of the football field, from 2 to 5 p.m.

Speidelmen, Navy Tangle on Mats

This afternoon, in Annapolis, a revamped Lion wrestling squad meets an undefeated Navy mat team in the grapplers' bid for win number two.

Coach Charlie Speidel has done some shifting in the heavier weights in order to give the team more balance in its quest to end the Middies' streak of 43 straight dual meet victories, which stretch over a period of five years.

Grant Dixon, EIWA 155-pound champion in 1946, will start for the first time this season today, while Wally Chambers is back at the heavyweight post after a four-weeks' absence.

Spider Corman has dropped down a weight to the 165-pound class, replacing Earl Long, who, in turn, has moved up to the 175-pound division.

The other Blue and White starters will be Georgie Schautz, 121 pounds; Al Vigilante, 126 pounds; Don Arbuckle, 136 pounds, and Jim Maurey 145 pounds.

Nittany Fencers Seek Season's First Triumph

The Nittany Lion fencing squad will be seeking its first win of the season when it engages the Philadelphia Fencer's Club in Rec Hall at 3 o'clock today. The meet has been moved up an hour from its previously scheduled time.

Coach Arthur Meyer, whose Lions dropped close matches to Army and Temple and were completely routed by NYU, will probably start Dave Ozarow, Harry McCarty and Robert Hollis at foil.

At epee will be Rolf Wald, Arthur Ward and Floyd Eberts, while Robert Thompson, Paul Younkin and James Stewart will handle the sabres.

Miners Upset Berletics

Miners defeated the previously unbeaten Berletics 14-12 and Delta Upsilon annexed the fraternity league "D" crown by downing Theta Chi 18-13 in IM cage competition.

Other scores were: Lutheran Students 30, Brother Rats 7, Ath Hall 21 Marauders 19; Beers 16, I.T.K. 12; Coai Crackers 24, Penn Haven 8; Dorm 5, 23 Red Flash 19; Cody Comets 43, Dorm 6, 9; Murgas 26, Anonymous Five 6; Newman Club 29 Eagles 12.

Monday night's schedule: 8:45 Pi Kappa Alpha - Sigma Chi (1), Phi Epsilon Pi - Alpha Phi Alpha (2), Sigma Pi - Chi Phi (3), 9:25 Pi Kappa Phi - Phi Delta

Benglian, Tighe Lead Ringmen Against Supercharged Badgers

Heading the list of boxers who made the trek to Wisconsin are John Benglian and Jack Tighe. Benglian, with a three won and one tied record, battled Paul Kotrodimos, a two-year ring veteran, in one of the feature bouts at Madison last night.

JOHNNY BENGLIAN

Captain Tighe also had a tough assignment on his hands, being pitted against Dwaine Dickinson, runner-up in the NCAA finals last year.

The Badger ring artists have won 77 dual meets while losing but seven and tying six over a fifteen year period. Again this year, Wisconsin sports a team that is powerful enough to cause consternation among the staunchest Lion boxing optimists.

Since the meet did not commence until 9 o'clock central standard time, Daily Collegian was unable to obtain the results prior to press time. Complete summaries will appear in Tuesday's issue.

In the 165 pound contest, Hal Howard faced Wisconsin's ace slugger, John Lendenski. Lendenski last season was unbeaten in all of his matches and won the 165-pound national crown.

Other Lion starters were two Smith lads—Fred, a 125-pound battler, and Paul, a 175-pounder. Curt Crooks again received the starting nod in the 135-pound division, while Jack Sheehy was Coach Houck's choice at 145-pounds. Chuck Drzenovich competed in the unlimited weight class.

Gymnasts Meet Cadets

Penn State's high-flying gymnasts, only current Lion team sporting an undefeated record, encounter their toughest foe so far when they take on Army today at West Point.

The West Pointers also boast a spotless slate to date, victims including Minnesota, West Chester State Teachers, Lock Haven State Teachers, Syracuse and Jersey City Recreation Center. The last-named team is an Amateur Athletic Union outfit.

Although the Cadets had little difficulty trouncing other foes, the Gopher meet resulted in a tight 57-56 verdict. This is in contrast to an impressive 71½-40½ lacing administered to the Minnesota team. Big Nine champ, by the Nittany gymnasts.

Coach Gene Wettstone's squad will face the Cadets with virtually the same lineup that defeated Syracuse. However, Pete Howachyn may displace Byron Emery in the tumbling event and Don Stogoski may supplant Wendell Lomady in the rope climb.

Tankmen Take on Pitt, In Quest of Second Win

Encouraged by a fine showing in the Dickinson meet, during which the Lion tankmen annexed their first victory, Coach Bill Guterson's swimmers will invade Pittsburgh today.

Riflemen Drop 11 Out of 12 Meets

Suffering its worst series of defeats in many years, the varsity rifle team was defeated in 11 out of 12 encounters recently.

Postal matches held the week of February 14 saw Coach Yount's men lose to Michigan State, Washington University Marine Barracks, Philadelphia, and Ohio University. The Lions downed Clemson Agricultural College for their lone victory.

Prior to that the riflemen fell victims to the University of Wyoming, University of Nevada, United States Coast Guard Academy, West Virginia University, State University of Iowa and Colorado School of Mines.

Gerald Prange paced both matches with scores of 279 and 281 respectively.

The season record of the Yountmen now shows eight victories and 11 defeats.
