

Phi Ep Annexes Fraternity Diadem; Cody Comets Take Independent Title

Learn Racks Up 17

LEARN, spelled victory! Elmer Learn, sharpshooting forward for the Cody Comets, spelled victory for his team Tuesday night, as he almost single-handedly whipped the Berlectics 34-30, and annexed the independent IM cage title for the Comets.

His 17 points, although considerably less than the 29 he scored Monday night against the Berks Independents, were the margin of victory for the winners. In addition his all-around floor play time and again kept a team that was obviously off form from falling to pieces.

TALLER TEAM

Although they were never behind, the taller Comets quintet at times looked pitiful as the players missed easy lay-ups, threw passes to all corners of Rec Hall, and garnered only two out of 14 foul throws.

The Berlectics squad, playing with only five men, put up a game fight against superior odds, and several times threatened to take the victory. After a slow first half which ended with the Comets in the lead, 14-10, the losers came back to knot the count at 17-17 midway in the third period.

At this point, Phil Preston, who had been missing shots with regularity all night, began to hit the mark and the Cody Comets once more forged into the lead. With one minute remaining, a field goal by Sulpizio and fouls by Palmero and Murphy made the score read 30-28. However, Learn once more came to the rescue with a twin marker and the win was assured.

Cohen Paces Scorers

Phi Epsilon Pi was crowned fraternity IM basketball champion Tuesday night when it defeated the defending title holder, Sigma Nu, 35-23, in the final playoff round of the intermural cage tourney.

From the initial goal, scored by Irv Cohen in the first minute of the game, the Phi Eps were never in danger. At no time did the losers come within five points of tying the score.

Led by "Slingin' Sammy" Freedson and mighty mite, Irv Cohen, the Phi Eps dazzled the slower Sigma Nu hoopsters with their fast-breaking offense in the first half.

SECOND HALF

At the halftime intermission, the Phi Eps led 21-10. Sigma Nu Gordie Wolfkiel paced an early third period attack for the losers, but the champions' back-court play, bulwarked by the polished captain Rodney Rittmaster put the brakes on with Phi Ep increasing its margin toward the contest's end.

Phi Ep "Mumbles" Kleinman, dislocated knee and all, was a major factor in the victors' weave and bob attack. His flawless passing engineered a number of twin-pointers.

Leon Greenwald and Jack Helfman, stars of the Phi Epsilon football team which had been crowned champion in last fall's tourney, also figured prominently in the win. Cohen with 11 points and Freedson with ten, led the scoring parade.

Cause for American Pride

That we may fulfill with the greatest exactitude all our engagements to foreign and domestic, to the utmost of our abilities whatsoever, and in whatsoever manner they are pledged: for in public, as in private life, I am persuaded that honesty will be found to be the best policy
That we may avoid correcting ourselves with the politics of any nation, farther than shall be found necessary to regulate our own trade; in order that commerce may be placed upon a stable footing—
our merchants know their rights—and the government the ground on which those rights are to be supported. — That every citizen would take pride in the name of an American, and act as if he felt the importance of his duty to his country, that we would support the dignity of our labor, if not annihilated, if we could not be absorbed, if further our nations may require) under the banner of

WASHINGTON'S FAREWELL ADDRESS

Here, in our First President's own handwriting, is part of the far-sighted speech he delivered to the American people 152 years ago. The spirit of the doctrine still applies. It calls for a firm unity among our people . . . emphasizing, above all, the need for "every citizen to take pride in the name of an American." The original is now aboard the "Freedom Train"—a traveling exhibit of the most significant documents in our history.
