IM Hoop Tourney Attracts 1194 Men

Almost one out of every five men on campus, physically able to do so, participated in intramural basketball during the season just concluded.

This was the gist of figures released recently by the intramural athletic department of the College.

A total of 1194 individual cagers competed in IM hoop play. Broken down into fraternity and independent groupings, figures show that 579 fraternity and 615 independent men were represented on the 98 participating teams.

Forty five fraternity and 53 independent fives scheduled a total of 340 contests during regular season play. Only 34 of these scheduled contests, 10 per cent of the total, were forfeited.

The 98 teams represented in the court tourney set a new record for IM hoop entries. Winner of the fraternity trophy was Phi Epsilon Pi, while the Cody Comets annexed the independent league diadem.

Between the Lions—

By Ben French

John P. Tighe, also known by a variety of nicknames from "Tiger" to "Gentleman Jackie," fought the toughest bout of his career last Saturday night.

Making his final appearance in the Rec Hall ring, the two-time captain of the Lion boxing team accepted the Frank J. Goodman trophy as the outstanding senior boxer—in civilian clothes.

Sitting out his first dual meet in four years of varsity and freshman competition was harder for Jackie to take than a first round knockout. It was made more difficult when well-wishers slapped him on the back later and said, "With you in there, we'd have won!"

The EIBA champ didn't tell them what it meant to him to be sitting on the bench. A head injury, sustained in his Michigan State bout had practically left him paralyzed the week before and the team physician refused to allow him to box.

Hampered all season by a serious nose injury, he had entered the ring several times against the physician and coach's recommendations.

Jackie Tighe will box in the Eastern Intercollegiate tournament this weekend. Regardless of how well he does, many fans will always feel that the best exhibition of his career was the ninth bout last Saturday night.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO THE CLASS OF '48

Here's your chance to qualify for a job that pays $336 a month after one year's training

A special interviewing team will soon be here to talk with men interested in U. S. Air Force Pilot Training. It is equipped to interview applicants, give preliminary physical examinations and flying aptitude tests.

You may be eligible for appointment to the March 1 or July 1 Aviation Cadet Classes. If you qualify, you begin at $75 a month, with food, quarters, uniforms, medical and dental care provided. Upon successful completion of the 52-week training course, you're commissioned a Second Lieutenant, Air Force Reserve, and assigned to active duty as pilot with the U. S. Air Force at $336 a month to start. You also get an extra $500 for each year of active service. There are many other benefits that make this one of the outstanding opportunities offered to this year's graduating class.

Why not drop in and discuss it?
