

Where Do You Live?

After viewing both parties' plans and inducements, the Pollock Circle-Nittany Dorm "political representatives" have decided to string along with the State party again this year.

The prize the State party gave the Circlites was the permission to name the party's candidates for All-College president, All-College secretary-treasurer, Senior Class vice-president and Junior Class president.

Quite a price to pay for the promise of a block of potential votes!

Last year the Circle politicians did get out the vote but there is no guarantee that they can do it again this Spring.

Who says that the best possible candidates for these positions live in the temporary living units? The best qualified men should be selected for the office whether they are independent or fraternity.

Campus politics should not deteriorate into a system that gives important offices to certain groups and then lets them choose the candidates.

Pollock Circle-Nittany Dorms is not a solid block of votes this year. It is not a well-knit group such as a fraternity and even the Greek-letter houses are split this year.

Maybe the State party has given in too far to the Splinterville politicians and should reconsider the agreement as soon as possible.—BIF

"Golly, this is better than Brother's Froth!"

'Borrowed' Froth Sale Begins Today

Froth readers will have a chance to chuckle at the nation's best collegiate humor in the March Embezzlement issue now on sale.

The exchange issue was compiled by the foolish gentlemen from 75 humor magazines and contains over 50 cartoons plus the regular columns, jokes, and photos. Another special feature in the 64 page magazine is the parody on the Daily Collegian, which inspired Editor Ostar's recent editorial. The issue is one of the largest ever put out by a college humor magazine.

Froth may be recognized by its sad cover picture of Frothy in jail for embezzlement, and is on sale at Student Union, The Corner, the Tub, Graham's, and Rea and Derick's.
