

Two Lion tiddlywinks stars advanced to the final round of the College tiddly-winks championship play-off.

Crackjack expert Steve Sunday tiddled four times and won five to top ex-champ John Nolan, who tiddled four but could win only three.

Tomorrow Sunday will meet Parkhurst John Polskan, who today tiddled five times and

Tiddle for Title
Sunday, Polskan

In a recent interview Coach Robert Banner disclosed the morning on his home so we conducted it outside. How do you keep your boys in shape during the off season? I asked.

Coach Banner, slyly smiled and said, "I make 'em smoke and do some calisthenics. They walk a mile for them."

For the athletic advisory board meeting in a special session yesterday, voted a five million dollar field house, with all the trimmings. Location of the building will be west of the golf course.

This project, with blueprints ready to go, will move into the construction stage immediately.

The present labor shortage will be answered by a volunteer force of Blue and White letter men.

Graduate manager of athletics, like Gilbert has requested that all Nittany "S" winners meet with him in the water shed at 1 o'clock today to discuss work hours.

The new fieldhouse will house 15,000 fans, thereby eclipsing the capacity of one spectator.

Commenting on this sharp expansion of facilities, Elwood "Fry" Wisconsin University's auditorium.

DODGERS WIN

Hal Newhouser will not pitch the opening game for the Nittany Lions.

Rumor has it that Penn State may win the unlimited crown in the national boxing championship.

Mr. Rumor, he is associated with the registrar's office, said yesterday, "A ape en-

Every Other Word

By D. J. ADDELBRAIN

A odd thing happened to Bie yesterday in which they were trying to find out the winner of the annual hop skip and jump contest, which they hold every year. Lazarus Lightfoot, 14-pound hop skip and jumper, took a hop, a skip and then disappeared into the clouds. Police of three counties are conducting a search for Lightfoot. There is talk of a new record.

Hal Newhouser will not pitch the opening game for the Nittany Lions.

Rumor has it that Penn State may win the unlimited crown in the national boxing championship.

Mr. Rumor, he is associated with the registrar's office, said yesterday, "A ape en-

Officials Dispute
Houck's Record

Smith Puts Blast On Drazenovich

In one of the most startling upsets of the 1948 boxing season, little Freddie Smith TK'ed Chuck Drazenovich in 1:32 of the first round before a frothing at the mouth crowd in Rec Hall, last night.

Smith's first blow was what has since been described as a "scratching" punch. It decapitated Drazenovich, and Chuck thereupon lost his head.

Once headless, Chuck was no match for the headed Smith, who after the first blow couldn't be headed. Ahead on points, Smith in a lightning like move knotted

Wash on the Line
BY SHREDDED TUBIN

Now we won't lose so many balls. On the diamond, Don Stark regustruck a home run! The longest for Penn State sports fans have dreamed for will arrive. Those who have desired the lack of facilities in Rec Hall, and those who have deplored the inadequate seating facilities in this gymnasium, must hold their breath.

For the athletic advisory board meeting in a special session yesterday, voted a five million dollar field house, with all the trimmings. Location of the building will be west of the golf course.

This project, with blueprints ready to go, will move into the construction stage immediately.

The present labor shortage will be answered by a volunteer force of Blue and White letter men.

Graduate manager of athletics, like Gilbert has requested that all Nittany "S" winners meet with him in the water shed at 1 o'clock today to discuss work hours.

The new fieldhouse will house 15,000 fans, thereby eclipsing the capacity of one spectator.

Commenting on this sharp expansion of facilities, Elwood "Fry" Wisconsin University's auditorium.

Smith Puts Blast On Drazenovich

In one of the most startling upsets of the 1948 boxing season, little Freddie Smith TK'ed Chuck Drazenovich in 1:32 of the first round before a frothing at the mouth crowd in Rec Hall, last night.

Smith's first blow was what has since been described as a "scratching" punch. It decapitated Drazenovich, and Chuck thereupon lost his head.

Once headless, Chuck was no match for the headed Smith, who after the first blow couldn't be headed. Ahead on points, Smith in a lightning like move knotted

NITTANY NEWS GRIEFS

Irv Batnick, College basketball pivot man, set an unofficial mile mark of four minutes flat Sunday afternoon when he casually outran Gil Dodds by two laps.

Penn State's hopes for another championship football team received a severe setback yesterday when star end Sam Tamburo and center Chuck Beatty turned in their football togs to Coach Bo. Higgins.

The two gridders reasoned that since the College is installing pool on an intercollegiate basis, pool team and earn their letter the "easy" way.

Said Sam and Chuck, "We like the poolroom atmosphere much better than that damn mud."

Genial Joe Bedenk, genial mentor of the genial Nittany Lion baseball nine, yesterday bemoaned the lack of genial talent on this year's team.

"Honest, fellows, we ain't got a blasted thing this season. We'll probably lose every game," the smiling coach wept. "There ain't a genial guy in the carload."

Spring-Time is Trophy-Time

SEE BALFOUR ABOUT THAT TROPHY FOR THE LEAGUE YOU ARE STARTING . . .

A cup or plaque for activities or scholarship deserves some thought. . . .

BALFOUR'S in The Athletic Store

Did You Ever See Fishing Boots Worth $500 ?

... WELL, YOU CAN! AT THE

DON KEPLER SPORTS SHOW

- $500 FISHING BOOTS
- LATEST RODS and REELS
- Many Other Fisherman's Items

SPECIAL EXHIBIT

On display during the Sports Show, an Exhibit of Paintings and Drawings of Birds and Fish by Robert Leo Smith, well known Pennsylvania Artist and member of the class of '49, Penn State

WE'RE staging this big SPORTS SHOW to acquaint people with the new Don Kepler Fishing Boot—just out! It will soon be on sale on a National Basis—Same as the Don Kepler Hunting Boot. Get your free ticket on the prizes listed below, when you visit the Sports Show.

- When You Visit The Sports Show You Get A Free Ticket On These
- FREE GIFTS
1. $500 Fishing Boots
 2. Beaver Kill Fly Rod
 3. New Don Kepler English type Fly Reel
 4. Dozen Dry Flies, especially designed by George Harvey for Centre County fishing.
 5. Perrine Fly Box.

DON KEPLER INC.

PHONE 4433
UNDER THE CORNER STATE COLLEGE

STORE HOURS
Mon. & Sat. 9 to 9
Daily 9 to 5:30