

Lewis Talks Terms With Operators

Washington—John L. Lewis is ready to talk terms with the soft coal operators. He has accepted the proposal of the operators for a conference on the pension dispute this afternoon.

This bargaining session was one of the moves ordered by the government injunction issued to end the stoppage. But the walk-out itself is going strong. Yesterday, hard coal miners joined the soft coal men in sympathy.

Late yesterday the soft coal operators asked a federal court in Washington to make a decision in the pension dispute which led to the shut-down. The operators want a ruling on which miners are eligible for benefits.

Overseas Aid Runner

Washington—President Truman has appointed motor car maker Paul G. Hoffman to run the six-billion-dollar global aid program. Hoffman is the president of the Studebaker Corporation of South Bend, Indiana. He returned only yesterday from Japan, where he made an industrial survey for the army. He is 56 years old.

East-West Relations

Berlin—The British and the Russian commanders in Berlin got together last night for an internationally significant dinner party. The entire question of East-West relations in the German capital may have come up.

The whole affair has been kept under great secrecy. The host at the party was the British commander, Sir Brian Robertson. His chief guest was Russian Marshal Vassily Sokolovsky, the Russian military governor. Also present was Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery, chief of Britain's imperial general staff.

Faculty Performs In Schwab Show

A faculty talent show will be held in Schwab Auditorium Friday evening, April 23, sponsored by the student councils of all schools. Louis H. Bell, director of Public Information, will be master of ceremonies.

Proceeds of the show will be turned over to the World Student Service Fund.

Those wishing to participate or to suggest participants are asked to submit names in writing to the Student Union office. Unusual prizes will be awarded to all who perform.

Deans and department heads who are sounded out on the advisability of having the show say "we're all for it," said James Lotz of the arrangement committee.

Job Service Head Asks Frequent Office Visits

Due to the large number of jobs coming in to the Student Employment Bureau, students are asked to check with the office periodically when they are available for employment, said Allan M. Reece, head of the Bureau.

Formerly, students registered with the Bureau were informed when jobs were available, but this system is proving impractical, said Reece.

There are still various jobs open for students who are seeking employment this semester, and those interested are asked to register with the Employment Office.

Ad Contest

A Wear-Ever aluminum pressure cooker from the Marshall Electric Company will be added to the list of prizes in the "It's in the Ads" contest today. This prize brings the total value of the awards to over $40.

The other three prizes are:
1. Four Essley shirts—College Sportswear.
2. Electric iron—Hartman Electric Company.
3. $10 credit—Bill McMullen.

The Daily Collegian

VOL. 47—NO. 37

WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 7, 1948—STATE COLLEGE, PENNA.

May Queen
Final Elections
Page Four

PRICE FIVE CENTS

CORE Proposes Cash Pledges

Town barbers will be offered cash as advance payments for haircuts if they agree to eliminate discrimination, at the close of the drive currently sponsored by the committee on racial equality.

Although ticket purchasers are asked to indicate their regular barber, the tickets will be redeemable in any non-discriminatory shop, including the new one which CORE will establish as a last resort.

A booth on Co-op corner is planned as a ticket distribution point in addition to Student Union desk, TUB and the PSCA office. The tickets, costing $1, represent advance payment of 25 cents on each of four haircuts.

Ticket sales will be reported at the next meeting, Tuesday night, at which time the constitution will be voted upon. By last Monday, nearly half of the 5000-ticket goal had been reached.

The IFC representative of each fraternity is requested to obtain pledge tickets from 304 Old Main, according to Willard Agnew, IFC president.

PanHel, IFC Move Royalty Deadline

Deadline for submitting candidates for PanHel-IFC king and queen has been extended to Friday at 4 p.m., Joe Succop, publicity manager of the PanHel-IFC Ball, said yesterday.

He urged more sororities and fraternities to turn in the name and an eight-by-ten picture of a contestant to the Student Union desk as soon as possible.

The finalists, five for king and five for queen, will be selected from the entries by the dance committee. Sororities will elect a king from the five male finalists, while fraternities will elect a queen from the list of five coed finalists.

Winning couple will receive prizes and will be crowned at intermission of the dance April 16.

'Travelers' Play For TUB Dancing

Square dancing will be the feature at the TUB Saturday night. The Ag Student Council offers the "Woodycrest Travelers" and a caller to round out the evening's entertainment which begins at 8:30 p.m.

Tickets to the square dance may be obtained at Student Union, from members of the Ag Student Council, or from members of the dance committee. The committee consists of James M. Freyer, Harry Schaffer, William J. Deisley, and Mary Jane Pollard.

The dance serves as a prelude to the annual Ag Student Frolic to be held on May 15.

Engineer Council Seeks Upperclass Nominees

Nominations for senior and junior representatives of the Engineering Student Council for next year will be open today through Saturday noon in the secretary's office of the department of industrial engineering, Engineering C.

Offices are open in civil, electrical, mechanical, industrial, architectural, and aeronautical engineering. Engineers who are 6th or 7th semester are eligible for senior representative, and 4th or 5th semester for junior. Nominees must have a one average.

Anyone may nominate himself. Al Petrowski, elections committee chairman, said. Details of the election next week will be given later.

Frosh Trump College In Tournament Misdeal

Campus bridge sharks Thursday staged a weighty session they thought was a prelude to the annual district tourney and the National Collegiate Bridge Tournament in Chicago.

But the experts were stunned by the news that official district playoff hands, sent annually from New York, this year were somehow delivered to the Altoona Undergraduate Center, where there are 300 Penn State freshmen.

Representing Penn State, the Altoona freshmen played, scored and returned the bridge hands to New York, while here on campus about 40 Culbertsons threw up their hands in profound disgust and trumped a good ace.

Dairymen Set Judging Contest

The annual Dairy Cattle Judging Contest sponsored by the Dairy Science Club will be held in the Dairy Barns, Saturday, afternoon. Eight classes of cattle representing the five major dairy breeds will be shown. In case of rain, the show will be held in the pavilion.

Lawrence Farb, show manager, invites students from all curricula to compete in this contest. They are urged to be at the barns at 1:30 p. m. as the show starts at 2 p. m. An entry fee of 25 cents will be collected from each contestant.

Bearer, Kmak Head 'Engineer'

George Bearer was elected editor-in-chief of the Penn State Engineer and Walter Kmak was chosen business manager at an editorial staff meeting Monday night.

Alexander Petrowski was selected as managing editor, and Robert Hetrick will serve as assistant managing editor, reported Nick Bibbo, editor, who released the new staff.

Other students chosen for next year's staff are Lewis Stone, feature editor; Harry Cornish, illustrations editor; Donald Dassandro, local advertising manager; Frank Richardson, national advertising manager; Raymond Lowalski, circulation manager; Ethel Senkovits, office manager; and Leon Locke, publicity manager.

The new staff will be honored at a banquet to be held in May, at which time keys will be given to this year's staff.

The April issue of Engineer will be distributed next week, reported Bibbo.

Hillel Offers Institute On Youth Leadership

The Hillel Foundation is sponsoring its first Youth Leadership Institute on "The American Jewish Community" from Friday, through Sunday. The week-end program will include informal student directed and participated seminars and an open house dance and reception Saturday evening.

An address by Mr. Arnold R. Ginsburg, a prominent Philadelphia community leader, columnist, and attorney, will highlight the luncheon to be held at Hillel at 2 p. m. Sunday.

Students interested in attending any of the seminars or the luncheon are urged to register at the Hillel Foundation by 5 p. m. Thursday.

IFC Mixer

Fraternity presidents and IFC representatives will attend a mixer at Phi Delta Theta at 8:30 tonight.

Hartley Says Bill Curtails Union Abuses

The Taft-Hartley Law, in banning the closed shop, mass picketing and the jurisdictional strike, is aimed at evening up the score for management and labor, contended Congressman Fred A. Hartley in the Community Forum lecture last night.

"Even now when the national security is at stake because of the coal strike, John L. Lewis is protected by the law," demanded the congressman, "for it permits a judicial interpretation of the miners' contract and allows Lewis to sue the mine operators if they are wrong."

Without the law, the President would have been powerless to set up a fact-finding board to attempt to safeguard the nation's security with an imminent injunction order, or to call an arbitration board, Hartley claimed.

Rep. Fred A. Hartley

Counter Argument

Collective bargaining has been undermined by the controversial labor law, countered Prof. Arthur H. Reede of the economics department in pointing out the imperfections of the act.

Congressman Hartley offered numerous illustrations of labor abuses which the act is attempting to curtail. Muscle men and women were brought from Buffalo and Cleveland by the United Auto Workers in Detroit to force workers to stay away from the plant.

A make-up artist in Hollywood is only permitted to work on a certain section of an actor's face. AFL electricians will not install equipment made in CIO factories. Petrill, alone can grant licenses to phonograph makers.

"The Taft-Hartley Act was passed to stop this nonsense," said the co-author of the bill. "A watch-dog committee to study the workability of the law has been set up, but no union leaders have showed up to indicate its inadequacies."

PSCA Elects Ten To Cabinet Post

Ten students were elected to the PSCA Cabinet nucleus recently. There were also 21 nominations for cabinet members.

Those elected were Ted Allen, Patricia Babbitt, David Binns, Dorothy Fleagle, Walter Gabel, Marjorie Gorham, Ruth McWhirter, Dorothy Park, William Renshaw, and George Rhoad.

From this group will be elected the president, vice-president, recording and corresponding secretary, and treasurer. Officers form the executive committee.

The nucleus group will meet with the present cabinet and will draw up plans for the coming year on policy and structure of the PSCA Cabinet.

Banyai Spikes Gown Rumor

Caps and gowns will be worn for the June graduation ceremonies, Ed Banyai, senior class president stated last night.

Banyai revealed that there was no basis to the rumor that this year's ceremonies would be held without the academic trimmings.

Orders for the caps and gowns, as well as invitations and announcements, will be taken at Student Union in the near future. "It would take a vote of the senior class to chance the ceremony," Banyai added.

Staff Officers Chosen For ROTC Summer Camp

Staff officers have been selected and an inspection made of Fort George G. Meade in preparation for the combined Infantry and Armored Cavalry ROTC summer camp, said Colonel Ben-Hur Chastaine, professor of Military Science and Tactics.

Colonel Chastaine has been named as Commander of the camp. General A. S. Peterson, head of ROTC at Lafayette college, will be senior infantry instructor. Col. E. P. Luckert, University of West Virginia, will be camp executive. Lt. Col. Gryer, University of Pennsylvania will be co-ordinator of training. Lt. Col. Virgil R. Miller, of the College, will be co-ordinator of supplies and equipment.

News Briefs

Students For Wallace

A special meeting of the Students for Wallace has been called by chairman John Hamer. The group will meet in 418 Old Main at 7 o'clock tonight to accelerate plans for campaigning in Centre, Clearfield and Mifflin counties.

May Queen Elections

Final elections for May Queen and her attendant will be held in the lounge of Old Main from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. today.

WRA Bowling

WRA Bowling Club meeting has been changed from tonight to tomorrow night at 6:30. Girls unable to attend the meeting, but interested in bowling telegraphically, are asked to contact Marjorie Riley, 2593.

ASME Field Trip

Members of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers attending the field trip to Chambersburg will meet at 10:15 this morning at the ME Lab. All ME students attending may pick up excuses at the ME office.

BIO-Forum

The Bio-Forum will meet in the seminar room on the second floor of Frear Lab. at 7:30 tonight. Dr. Hubert Frings and Mr. Charles Hamrun of the zoology department will speak on the taste organs of insects.

Home Ec Meeting

The Home Ec. Club, Omicron Nu, the Ellen H. Richards Club, and the Greeters' Club will meet in 14 Home Ec. at 7:30 tonight.

Daylight Saving Time

State College Borough Council approved the adoption of Daylight Saving Time at its regular meeting Monday night. Clocks will be turned back one hour on Sunday, April 25, at 3 a.m.