

Outstanding Women Receive Theta Sigma Phi Invitations

Invitations to 100 outstanding women on campus for the Matrix Table, 11th annual dinner held by Theta Sigma Phi, were sent out yesterday, said Mary Ann Pletcher, invitations chairman.

Miss Pletcher requests that all guests purchase their tickets at Student Union by noon April 10. Each coed should sign her name on a paper at the desk.

Speaker for the dinner at the Nittany Lion Inn at 6:30, April 12, will be Mrs. Mary James Cottrell who operates a news bureau in Washington serving 10 papers. Mrs. Lois S. Lewis, a member of her staff who graduated from the College with a B.A. in Journalism in September 1946, will accompany her.

Quill Girl, Cap Girl, the coed with the most varied activities, and Matrix Girl, the coed who has best served the College, will be announced at the dinner.

Other committees for the affair are Roberta Hutchison, publicity; Marjorie Mousley, finance; Janet Adler and Helen Reed, entertainment; and Marie Thompson, decorations.

MONEY FOR YOU! $1300.00 IN CASH PRIZES!

Mollé "What do you say?" Contest!

Not too late to win the Grand Prize of $500! Individual prizes of $50 to winners at 16 different colleges!

Easy money! Here's all you do: Fill in balloons of cartoons, print your name, address, and college. Then mail! Contest runs 10 weeks.

This is Set #5. To be eligible, you must return all ten sets of cartoons. If you missed any of #1-#4, see previous issues of this newspaper.

Here are some hints to help you fill in Balloon #5B:

Mollé is brushless; Mollé is heavier; Mollé is kind to tender skin, rough on bristly beards; Mollé shaves you quicker, cleaner, closer, more painlessly!

And now for Set #5 of the big Mollé "What do you say?" contest!

What do you say when a gal says:

What do you say when a pal says:

Fill 'em in—mail 'em in! Read contest rules!

CONTEST RULES... Mollé "What do you say?" Contest

1. Merely write, in the blank cartoon balloons above, your answers to the questions. Mail your entry to the address given elsewhere in this ad. Be sure to fill in your complete name and address in the space indicated.

2. Each contestant must be a registered male student of the college in whose paper this contest is published, and each contestant must compete in all ten sets of cartoons in order to be eligible for prizes. If you did not receive a copy of this newspaper, a reasonable facsimile of the cartoon or a written description of it will be accepted.

3. With Sets No. 3 and No. 8, the contestant must include a cartoon from a 25¢ or 50¢ tube—or from any size jar—of Mollé. Remember, only two cartoons (of any size) are required, but be sure you send one in with No. 3 and one in with No. 8 of the sets.

4. Only one entry will be accepted from each contestant in each set and all entries must be the original work of the contestants, submitted in their own names.

5. Entries will be judged by the Reuben H. Donnelley Corporation, an independent judging organization. All ten cartoons submitted by a single contestant will be considered as a unit in judging, and the judges' decisions will be based on the originality, aptness and interest of each set. First prize winners of $50 from each school will be eligible for the Grand Prize of $500.00 to be awarded to the best series of entries from all the schools. The decision of the judges is final and duplicate prizes will be awarded in case of ties.

6. All entries become the property of Sterling Drug Inc., and no entries will be returned.

7. All ten sets of answers must be mailed before May 14, 1948, final date of the contest. Entries with inadequate postage will not be accepted. Prize winners will be announced here the week of May 24.
