

Entries Still Pour In, But No One Guesses The Thing

Although 750 entries have poured into the Collegian office, no one has been able to name the "thing" in the clues.

To refresh the reader's memory, here are all 17 of the clues that have appeared hidden in the ads since the contest started April 2.

1. It started Christmas Eve.
2. One of many
3. It's immortal
4. It's vegetable
5. Yes, it's also mineral
6. Earthly matter
7. The "idea" started 58 years ago
8. Began WWV
9. Since 1920
10. It's in State College
11. Part of Penn State
12. One that lives on forever.
13. Figuratively speaking singular in kind
14. And oh,.....so straight
15. Singularly American
16. One that carried the ball
17. It wasn't at the tournament of roses

SDA Group Seeks College Charter

Students for Democratic Action has made application to the College Senate for recognition as a chartered organization, Corbin Kidder, secretary of the group, announced yesterday.

At a recent meeting, Lawrence Rothstein was elected chairman; June Wiley, treasurer; Corbin Kidder, secretary; and John Borne, program chairman.

In applying for campus recognition, SDA issued the following statement:

"The fight for the extension of democracy is best carried on through education, and it does not end with the elections in November. SDA, in applying for a College charter, is attempting to fight against the apathy which exists here in regard to political affairs.

"SDA is neither a political party, nor a part of any political party. Our main objective is the stimulation of interest in national and international affairs. To the extent that we may be able to achieve this aim, we feel that recognition of SDA will contribute to the educational program of the College."

West's Gridmen Win

Western Nittany gridmen topped those hailing from the East, 6-0, in an abbreviated intra-squad contest before 1000 fans on New Beaver Field Saturday.

The margin of victory was chalked up by the Western club on a 20-yard pass from Bill Luther, Osceola Mills tailback, to Dalton Rumberger, end from Mt. Lebanon.

Luther blasted a late bid of the Easterners by intercepting a pass on his own 4-yard stripe.
