

Student Leaders Take Oath of Office Today

Late AP News
Courtesy WMAJ

Allen Proposes UMT Substitute

WASHINGTON—Leo Allen, head of the House Rules Committee, offered a bonus system as a substitute for selective service yesterday.

The Republican representative from Illinois proposed offers of $1,000 for all two-year enlistments and $1,500 for those who would sign for three years.

On-the-Job Pay Raise

WASHINGTON—President Truman signed legislation yesterday which raised the ceiling of wages for veterans taking on-the-job training under the G. I. Bill. Veterans with no dependents received a maximum of $175 a month under the old ceiling. They will now be permitted to earn $210 a month.

Palestine Situation

PALESTINE—King Abdullah, of Transjordan, in a message to the UN yesterday said that calamities in the Holy Land will reach a new peak of horror after the British mandate leaves. Andrei Gromyko, speaking for Russia, said that the only way to avert tragedy is the enforcement of the partition plan.

Press Censorship

SYRIA—A Syrian government spokesman said yesterday that all indications point to censorship of foreign press messages by the Syrian Foreign Office. He said that censorship may be the rule all through the Arab states in a few days.

Cwens 'Gingham Fling' Features 'Travelers'

Novel and exciting fun will be the emphasis for students attending the "Gingham Fling," Cwens sponsored square dance, at the TUB from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock tonight.

Music will be by Andy and his his Woodycrest Travelers. Fred Hartwick, contrary to previously printed information, will perform the calling activities. Physical education majors attending the dance will supply help in the individual sets.

Tickets priced at 60 cents each may be obtained from any Cwens. Tickets are also on sale at Student Union and at the TUB, where they may be purchased during the dance.

'Years Ago' Stars Cohen, Feline Performer 'Punk'

Mothers viewing the Players production "Years Ago" may recognize one veteran performer, "Punk" the cat. The feline appeared in "Uncle Elizabeth" in "I Remember Mama," the Players show running last Mother's Day. "Punk," who lives the rest of his nine lives as the pet of Trudy Bowman, daughter of Thomas D. Bowman, associate professor of literature, has an affinity for radiators and the amazing ability of appearing when he isn't wanted.

Seats for "Years Ago," directed by Robert D. Reifsnider, are on sale at Student Union. Prices are 60 cents for Thursday and $1 for Friday and Saturday. The curtain goes up at 8 p.m. in Schwab auditorium. Very few seats remain for Saturday's production, according to reports late yesterday.

The play, written by Ruth Gordon, is based on recollections of the author's youthful struggle to break into the stage.

Ruthy Cohen holds the lead limelight, while Ann Balmer portrays her "Mother" and Winfield Clearwater, her "Father," a re-

MILES S. HORST

Horst To Speak At Dairy Banquet

Miles S. Horst, State Secretary of Agriculture, will be the principal speaker at the Annual Dairy Science Banquet to be held in the Presbyterian Church basement at 6:30 p.m. Saturday, announced Seymour Silver, banquet chairman.

Secretary Horst, a 1914 graduate of the College and member of the Board of Trustees, has agreed to help dedicate this year's Dairy Exposition to Prof. A. A. Borland, his life-long friend. Professor Borland plans to retire June 30.

Officers of State Breed Organizations and leaders of the dairy industry are also expected for the banquet at which all awards for the Dairy Exposition contests will be presented.

For many years Secretary Horst has been a prominent figure in Pennsylvania's varied agricultural activities. He has been active in the Grange and was editor of the Pennsylvania Grange News for four years. He served on the State Farm Show Commission from 1926 until he was appointed to his present cabinet position.

Cheerleading Tryouts

Sophomore men who are interested in trying out for the cheerleading squad are asked to meet on the lawn behind the armory at 7 o'clock tonight, said Stanley Eisman, head cheerleader.

Phys Ed Students Choose Council

Students in the School of Physical Education will elect members of the 1948-49 Student Council today, tomorrow and Friday at Irvin, Recreation and White Halls.

Nominations were made at a meeting of the school last Thursday night.

Candidates for president of the Council are Horace Ashenfelter, William Benyish, Josephine Bihl, and Harry Bragg.

Running for vice-president are Jim Gehrdes, Helen Milligan, Jim Mohny, Nancy Smith and Dick Wertz.

Candidates for secretary are John Bolger, Mary Lou Bower, and Helen Milligan. Candidates for treasurer include William Beuka, Katherine Bitner, William Bowser and Yvonne Worrell.

Two senior representatives to the council will be elected, one woman and one man. Nominees are Harris Bragg, Ivan Kline, Joan Cortright, and Jane McCormick.

Two junior representatives will also be elected from among the following candidates, John Apichella, John Hagerman, Thomas Masticola, Blanche Eyer and Ginny Miller.

Students are requested to vote only for representatives of their own class. Nominees' names for the various offices will be posted on the ballot boxes.

Correction

Elections for Education Student Council will take place in the lobbies of Burrows, Home Economics and in 216 Carnegie Hall all day today.

CORE Completes Drive For Credit Ticket Sales

CORE Days, three days of active fund-raising campaigns, concludes today.

During the three CORE days, male students and townsmen are asked to buy $1 tickets of advance credit toward haircuts in any non-discriminatory barber-shop.

Students and faculty members are conducting the campus drive for funds and State College churches are approaching their members for aid in the CORE drive.

Ad Contest

A "full house" consisting of five prizes from local merchants boosts the value of the awards in the "It's in the Ads" contest to $165.50.

- Today's prizes are:
1. Nylon hose—Mary Leitzinger's Shop.
 2. $10 Blouse credit—Charles Shop for Women.
 3. $10 credit slip—Clark Motor Company.
 4. Andre Kostelanetz Album of Exotic Music—College Book Store.
 5. $10 worth of photographs—Penn State Photo Shop.
- The other prizes are:
1. Old Town Trampes—Glick Shoe Store.
 2. Blouse—Smart Shop.
 3. Record Album—Book and Record Shop.
 4. Sweater—Young Men's Shop.
 5. 5-pound box of candy—Candy Cane.
 6. $10 credit—Mitchell's Dress Shop.
 7. Du Barry make-up kit—McLanahan's Drug Store.
 8. Fishing rod—Don Kepler's.
 9. $10 credit—Margaret Shop.
 10. Mirror-tone radio—Harmony Shop.
 11. Victrola attachment for radio—Music Room.

Miller Pitches Two Hit Game, Lions Win 7th

The weather at New Beaver Field was cold yesterday afternoon, but Lion righthander Cy Miller was red hot. The lanky speedball artist set the Bucknell Bisons down with just two scratch singles as the Lions shut out the Lewisburg nine 8-0 to record their seventh win in nine starts this season.

It was Miller's second victory of the current campaign, and his first shut out.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock the Bedenkmen play host to Gettysburg College on the New Beaver (Continued on page three)

Five Men Receive Class Day Honors

Senior men elected for Class Day honors by male members of the senior class are Eugene M. Fulmer, Gerald T. Karver, Thomas J. Lannen, John J. Nolan and John P. Tighe.

The five seniors will receive the names of barrel man, cane man, class donor, pipe man and spoon man, the name given to each man to be decided at a meeting of Class Day committee Friday. At the same meeting the name to be presented to the six honor women will be determined.

Valedictorian and salutatorian for Class Day will be selected at this meeting.

More than 600 members of the senior class participated in the voting, said Samuel Neely, chairman of the Class Day committee. This represents one-half of the senior class, Neely pointed out.

Excavation Preparation Begins on New Building

Work in preparation for excavation of a new $885,785 classroom building has been proceeding this week on ground between the Mineral Industries building and the Armory.

Lumber was dumped yesterday for contractor's office buildings to be erected on either side of Pollock Road near Carnegie Hall. Work on these will begin Monday.

Forty foot drillings have been made in the new building area to ascertain cavities in underlying limestone. Such cavities will be filled with concrete to prevent settling of the new building.

All shrubbery has been removed for actual excavation which will begin within two weeks.

Blue Band To Play At Inauguration

Installation of All-College and class officers will take place on the steps of Old Main at 11:50 o'clock this morning in the first outdoor inaugural in the College's history.

Students will be excused from classes at 11:45 to attend the inauguration. The installation will take place regardless of the weather.

All students are urged by Thomas J. Lannen, retiring All-College president, to attend the ceremony.

Urged to Attend

One-half the members of the Blue Band will participate in entertaining the audience by playing marches before the ceremony commences.

Lannen to Speak

William Lawless, who will become All-College president, will be sworn in by Alan Hack, Tribunal chairman. Lawless will then swear in Donald Little, All-College vice-president; Edmund Walcavage, All-College secretary-treasurer; Terry Ruhlman, senior class president; and Robert Wine, president of the junior class.

Before the playing and singing of the Alma Mater concludes the ceremony, Thomas Lannen will speak.

To permit the students to participate actively in student government, All-College Cabinet adopted the outdoor inauguration instead of the usual banquet installation.

Students To Pay $10 Fall Deposit

All students who desire to return in the Fall Semester must pay a $10 deposit next Wednesday to insure themselves a place, provided they meet all other requirements, William S. Hoffman, registrar, said today.

The ruling applies to full time students, those part time who expect to be in full time in the fall, graduate, undergraduate, special, and Navy ROTC students.

This amount will be credited to the student on his bill when he enters for the fall. In the case of veterans under the G. I. Bill of Rights, the deposits will be returned shortly after the opening of the semester.

Students who fail to pay and later decide to apply for readmission will be readmitted only on the basis of a priority list for admissions applicable to other students applying for readmission.

News Briefs

Pi Tau Sigma

Seventeen new members will be initiated into Pi Tau Sigma, national mechanical engineering honorary, tomorrow. They are Richard Calvert, George Chapman, Charles Dandois, Kenneth Flodin, John Fogle, Lester Hackenberry, James Hatch, James Herzog, Robert Jacobus, John Jones, Donald Keck, Thomas Kilgore, Charles Luddy, Joseph Rettger, Francis Schwenk, William Stahl, and Robert White.

Biddle to Speak

George Biddle, well-known Pennsylvania artist and author, will speak on Modern Painting in 121 Sparks at 7 o'clock tonight. Biddle's paintings are outstanding for their draftsmanship and character study. He is the author of "Artist at War" and "Autobiography."

AVC Meeting

The American Veterans Committee will meet for the last time this semester in 110 EE at 8 o'clock tonight.

Cwens Ticket Money

Cwens are requested to turn in their money and unsold tickets for the "Fling" to Eva Davies by 6 o'clock tonight.

Sigma Delta Chi

Sigma Delta Chi, men's journalism honorary, recently initiated Howard Back, Bennett Fairorth, Thomas Morgan, William Pade, and David Malickson.

El Circulo Espanol

El Circulo Espanol, Spanish club, elected Evelyn Armstrong, president; Charlotte Abbott, vice-president; Jeanne Haggood, secretary; and Sara Messina, treasurer.