

Seniors Choose Honor Women For May Day Participation

Twenty outstanding women will be honored at the May Day ceremony Saturday afternoon. These girls, chosen by the vote of all senior women for their service and contributions to the College, will wear white and carry the hemlock arches.

They are Mary Margaret Barnett, Joan Bissey, Carolyn Currier, Jane Fouracre, Vicky Gillespie, Gene Gilmore, Jean Haxton, Roberta Hutchinson, Barbara Keefer, Terry Klosterman, Louise Martin, Patricia Meily, Virginia McCluskey, Ann Pearson, Jo Ann Roraback, Beatrice Silverstone, Jane Spicher, Jane Weigle, Betty Worrall, and Jacque Zivic.

Also taking part is the Modern Dance group composed of Josephine Bihl, Susan Bissey, Margaret Cunningham, Pauline Globisch, Louise Grossman, Arlene Mack, Elaine Nelson, Wanda Rickard, and Gladly Lou Miller, soloist.

Others participating will be Suzanne Romig, retiring president of WSGA; Lee Ann Wagner retiring president of WRA; and Patricia Woods, president of PSCA; the Hemlock Chain, and May Pole Dancers.

May Day Ceremonies will be held on the lawn in front of Old Main at 4:30 p.m. Saturday. In case of rain, however, it will be held in Recreation Hall.

Women's Honorary Serenades Tappees

Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, will serenade its prospective tappees the latter part of this week. Girls will be tapped the morning following the serenade.

Sixth and Seventh semester coeds are eligible for Mortar Board, which chooses its members for service, leadership, and scholarship. All coeds with sufficient averages were considered. The minimum is two-tenths of a point above the All-College average for women. Girls were chosen as leaders in their particular fields, or because of a great many varied activities.

Kline - Diefenderfer

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Jean Diefenderfer to Ivan Kline, a junior at the College majoring in physical education.

Miss Diefenderfer, a graduate of Gettysburg College, is a member of Delta Gamma and is now teaching in Hazleton. Mr. Kline of Frewsburg, N. Y., is president of Delta Chi.

Moser, May Court Guests of Honor At Coronation Ball

Algie Ann Moser and her May Day court will be presented at the Coronation Ball Friday night by Janet Lyons, president of WSGA.

The boy ask girl semi-formal dance will be held in White Hall from 9-12 Friday night instead of Saturday night as was incorrectly stated in yesterday's Daily Collegian.

During intermission Miss Lyons will disclose the names of Miss Moser's court. Her entourage will include the Maid of Honor elected from among three sophomore finalists, two senior attendants and two sophomore attendants elected by the woman student body, and two junior attendants chosen by the May Day Committee. These girls, who have already been notified by the committee, will be brought forward by jesters and heralds and presented to the audience.

NSA to Discuss Plans, Hear Regional Reports

Plans for a Pennsylvania regional conference will be the topic for discussion at National Student Association meeting in 16 Sparks at 6:30 o'clock tonight. Harold Brown, regional vice-president in charge of international affairs, will report to the local chapter on the decisions concerning the conference made by the executive committee in Philadelphia last weekend.

Further reports on a scholarship survey, student travel, and orientation will be considered.

Contest ending soon! Not too late to enter!

$1300 CASH PRIZES

in Mollé "What do you say?" Contest!

The big Mollé "What do you say?" contest is ending soon! But it is not too late to enter!

If you haven't entered as yet, dig out issues of this paper—all the previous Mollé sets are in them!

This is set #9! Fill in your answers to the questions asked in the balloons provided! Write your name, address, college. Then mail. That's all there is to it!

Here are some hints to help you fill in Balloon #9B:

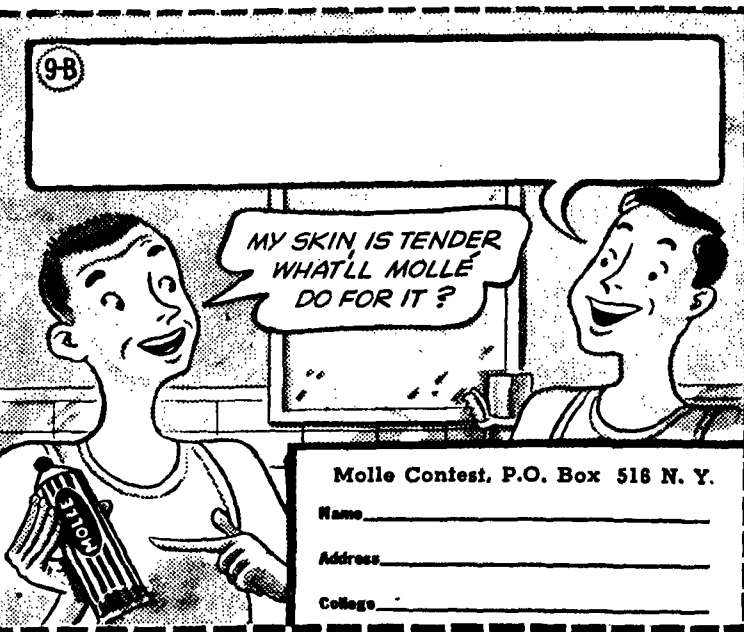

Mollé is a heavier brushless cream. It treats tender skin kindly, and yet is rough on bristly whiskers.

Because Mollé is heavier, it holds your whiskers out straight so your razor can glide right through 'em. With Mollé, you shave cleaner, closer, quicker, and more comfortably. Try a tube today!

And now for set #9:

What do you say when a gal says:

What do you say when a pal says:

O. K. There it is! Fill 'em in! Send 'em in! Read contest rules!

CONTEST RULES... Mollé "What do you say?" Contest

1. Merely write, in the blank cartoon balloons above, your answers to the questions. Mail your entry to the address given elsewhere in this ad. Be sure to fill in your complete name and address in the space indicated.

2. Each contestant must be a registered male student of the college in whose paper this contest is published, and each contestant must complete in all ten sets of cartoons in order to be eligible for prizes. If you did not receive a copy of this newspaper, a reasonable facsimile of the cartoon or a written description of it will be accepted.

3. With Sets No. 3 and No. 8, the contestant must include a carton from a 25¢ or 50¢ tube—or from any size jar—of Mollé. Remember, only two cartons (of any size) are required, but be sure you send one in with No. 3 and one in with No. 8 of the sets.

4. Only one entry will be accepted from each contestant in each set and all entries must be the original work of the contestants, submitted in their own names.

5. Entries will be judged by the Reuben H. Donnelley Corporation, an independent judging organization. All ten cartoons submitted by a single contestant will be considered as a unit in judging, and the judges' decisions will be based on the originality, aptness and interest of each set. First prize winners of $50 from each school will be eligible for the Grand Prize of $500.00 to be awarded to the best series of entries from all the schools. The decision of the judges is final and duplicate prizes will be awarded in case of ties.

6. All entries become the property of Sterling Drug Inc., and no entries will be returned.

7. All ten sets of answers must be mailed before May 14, 1948, final date of the contest. Entries with inadequate postage will not be accepted. Prize winners will be announced here the week of May 24.
