

Coeds Honor Visiting Mothers At Traditional May Day Teas

Coeds in campus dormitories will honor the visiting mothers this weekend by their traditional Mother's Day Teas, held in all dormitories Saturday afternoon.

As in past years, all the dormitories have "open houses" for mothers, and any visiting friends. Betty Jean Patterson and Betty Jane Chappellear are co-chairman of the teas.

Northwest Atherton unit will hold its teas from 2 to 3:30 in NE Atherton lounge. Officers of the unit, Gene Gillmore, Jean Moul, Joan Frederickson and Josephine Rotllil will pour. Unit counselors will act as floating hostesses. Dor will also be in charge of the tea. Background music will be furnished by records during the tea. Margaret Getz is dormitory president in charge of the affair, with Beatrice Ringling, head of refreshments; Lois Zubler, serving; and Marian Johnson, head hostess.

Southwest Atherton plans to hold its tea in the west court of Atherton from 2 to 4 p.m. Mothers of the girls will be asked to pour. Jean Wahl is president of the unit and Lillian, Skraban social chairman in charge of the tea. Edith Cope and Kathryn Peters are in charge of refreshments; Isabel Leach and Marian Flater will be receiving the guests and Frances Rice is in charge of clean-up.

Northwest Atherton will have its tea in its lounge under the supervision of Joan Berchtold; unit social chairman. Mrs. Mrs. Berchtold; Mrs. Gillespie, mother of Vicky Gillespie; and Mrs. Hall, mother of Marion Hall, will pour. Maryellen, Imboden is in charge of serving and Annette Alexander, unit president will help Mrs. Grace Hall, house mother, receive guests. Jacqueline Heckert, soprano, and Birdie Berman, violinist will provide the musical entertainment.

Women's Building will entertain its guests in the main lounge. Members of Alpha Chi Omega and Gamma Phi Beta are invited to attend. Vilma Greisimer is in charge of the affair and Helen Baker is dormitory president.

Grange members will also entertain in the Grange lounge. Seely Snyder, social chairman, is in charge of the tea assisted by Diane Scuderi and Joan Green, president of the dorm.

Tri-Dorms will hold their tea in Irvin Hall lounge from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. The president of each of the dorms, Louise Drozdak of Irvin; Madelyn, Bush of Watts; and Shirley Gauger of Jordan, will pour. Jacqueline Fry, social chairman of Irvin, is in charge of arrangements. The hostesses of the dorms will be in the receiving line and chosen students will act as floating hostesses.

McAllister Hall will hold its tea from 2:30 to 4 p.m. in the lounge. A short skit "Life in a Dormitory" will be presented by dormitory members. Shirley Cogswell will play a few piano selections, and Janet Neff will sing. Miss E. Mae Parker, dorm hostess will pour. Phylis Tamor is in charge of arrangements and Joy Stewart will take care of entertainment.

Girls living in sorority houses in town are invited to come and bring their guests to any of the dormitory teas.

Committee Permits Street Dresses for Coronation Ball

The Coronation Ball, WSGA girl ask boy dance, in White Hall, from 9 to 12 p.m. Friday night, will be semi-formal.

Street length dresses will be permissible, according to the dance committee. This decision was reached because of the complaint of many coeds about the amount of semi-formal dances this spring.

Profits from this year's girl ask boy dance will go to WSSS.

Pat. Grove's orchestra will provide the music and refreshments will be served.

Pan Hel Treasurer

Lillian Scraban, Kappa Kappa Gamma, was recently elected treasurer of Pan Hellenic Council to serve for the coming year.

Treasurer is the only officer elected from the floor in Pan-Hel. All others are chosen on a sorority rotation basis.

Home Ec Students Prepare Luncheon

Several students in the home economics department will participate in a special Mother's Day foods demonstration in 108 Home Ec at 10 a.m. Saturday. They will prepare a simple buffet luncheon of quickly and easily prepared foods suitable for serving at summer meals.

The luncheon will be served to visiting mothers, who will also receive free recipe booklets. Those participating in the demonstration are Vilma Griesemer, Beverly Haxton, Joyce Hodgins, Joan Lutz, Beatrice Silverstone and Helen Zoll.

Weddings

Oyler - Schlee

Harriet Schlee, sixth semester chemistry and physics major from Haddonfield, N. J., and Glenn Oyler, of Fayetteville, also a chemistry and physics major, were married in the State College Baptist church Sunday.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Alpha Chi Sigma house of which the groom is a member. Mrs. Oyler is a member of Delta Zeta sorority and Alpha Lambda Delta.

"IT EXPLAINS ABOUT WOMEN."

Milholland Appoints Radioisotopes Group

A committee to survey the need for radioisotopes at the College and to coordinate the ordering and using of them has been appointed by James Milholland, acting president.

The committee consists of Dr. R. C. Raymond, assistant professor of physics, chairman; Dr. H. M. Davis, associate professor of metallurgy; Dr. M. A. Farrell, assistant director of the Agricultural Experiment Station; Dr. H. R. Glenn, director of the Health Service; Dr. Arthur Rose, associate professor of chemical engineering; and Dr. J. A. Sauer, professor of engineering mechanics.

It was explained that the use of radioisotopes would facilitate the work of various departments on the campus in tracer work.

Methodist, Wesleyan Forums Start Sunday

St. Paul's Methodist Church and Wesley Foundation are holding a series of four forums in the Church at 7:30 p.m., starting next Sunday and continuing through the next three Sundays.

The discussions will include the problem of World Peace and World Government. Dr. Carrol D. Champlin and Prof. and Mrs. James Keim will be the speakers and will discuss the question, "United Nations, Success or Failure."

Mr. Montgomery and Mr. Gideon, pastors of the church, will preach in the morning on subjects that have bearing on the evening forum discussion. The morning sermon for Sunday will be "The Paradox of America."

Queen Reigns At Pageant On Front Campus

The annual May Day ceremony will be held on front campus, 4:30 p.m. Saturday.

The colorful pageant sponsored by WSGA each spring is an all-girl event with the exception of the Queen's youthful trainbearers, William Henning and Paul Rogers from State College.

Another participating group in addition to the Hemlock Chain, composed of the first fifty senior women to sign up; the twenty honor women, chosen by the May Day Committee; and the Modern Dance Group, are the May Pole Dancers.

They are Helen Baily, Barbara Brown, Diana Bryan, Eileen Drennan, Dorothy Finkel, Virginia Gallup, Shirley Gauger, Margaret Howe, Marian Judy, Lucille Larson, Joan McKeon, Renayne Parks, Molly Patrick, Dolores Piccone, Barbara Prevost, Bunny Rosenthal, Lois Schnure, Nancy Smith, Violet Telford, Fay Trimmer, Dorothy Yarnall, Ann Zekauskas, and Loretta Neville, pianist.

Algie Ann Moser's flower girls are Judith Alexander and Katherine Gemmell from State College.

Practice for the May Day Festival will be held Friday from 3 to 5 p.m. in the second floor lounge of Old Main. Excuses will be issued which may be obtained in the Dean of Women's Office.
