

Parties Fete Mothers Over Big Weekend

Sororities and clubs will honor their mothers this week end with a round of breakfast, teas, luncheons and coffee hours.

The Kappa Kappa Gamma's will entertain their mother's with a luncheon at the Allencrest Saturday and the Phi Mu's will have a tea for their mother's in the afternoon. Theta Phi Alpha will have a coffee hour Saturday afternoon to celebrate the day and also to honor their new patroness Mrs. Wilbur B. Hoy. A tea will also be held by the Kappa Alpha Theta's.

A buffet supper will be held at the Alpha Omicron Pi house Saturday evening. For Delta Delta Delta parents there will be a dinner dance at the State College Hotel.

Phiotes and the Penn State Club will hold a Mother's Day tea in the Penn State Club room from 2:30 to 4 p.m. on Saturday.

Sunday morning the Gamma Phi Beta's will hold a breakfast in their suite, as will the Alpha Chi Omega's. A breakfast is also on the agenda for the Delta Gamma's. The State College Hotel will be the setting for the mother's of the Zeta Tau Alpha's, Cook's for the Alpha Gamma Delta's, the Allencrest for the Beta Sigma Omicron's, and the Alpha Xi Delta's, the Anchorage for the Alpha Epsilon Phi's, and the Nittany Lion Inn for mother's of the Kappa Delta's.

Delta Zeta members will hold a tea Sunday afternoon in the McAllister Hall lounge and the Sigma Delta Tau's in the Southwest lounge of Atherton.

Glennland Pool

There will be no recreational swimming at the Glennland Pool Monday night because of Red Cross life saving tests. The schedule for the rest of the week will remain unchanged.

Froth —

Stewart Montgomery, and Lawrence Remstein have been appointed to the sophomore board.

Edward J. Tylkowski has been elected as art director. The art junior board will be Robert Levine and Ralph Meier. Sophomore board appointments are Mary Lou Behney, Jean Bickerton, Margaret Ann Eckbreth, Evonne Lott, and Alan Pottasch.

Pi Lambda Theta Installs Officers

Helen Dickerson was installed as president of Pi Lambda Theta, women's education honorary, at a recent meeting. Other officers installed were Dorothy Fowler, vice-president; Sarah Ann Curry, secretary; Ruth Graber, keeper of records; Marjorie Munsie, treasurer; Joanne Pepper, member at large.

The meeting, presented by the junior board, also included a presentation of the History of Alpha Kappa from 1936 to 1943 by Dorothy Harpster.

Frances Culver gave a report on the Pi Lambda Theta Service Project and Mrs. Willa Taylor, club advisor, spoke about Summer Session Hi-Lites and program plans for 1948-49. Jane Wyland told of the identification and operation of the Mabel Kirk Scholarship Loan.

Faculty Luncheon

Dr. Paul Popenoe, director of the American Institute of Family Relations, Altadena, Calif., will address the Faculty Luncheon Club at the State College Hotel at noon Monday.

Author of more than 10 volumes, the majority of them dealing with marriage, Dr. Popenoe has headed the AIFR since 1930. He is also a biologist and an agricultural explorer.

New Room System To Be Explained By Assistant Dean

Mrs. Cordelia Hibbs, assistant to the Dean of Women, will explain the women's dormitory room system to be used next year to all coeds and hostesses at dormitory house meetings next week.

These meetings have been scheduled because of the various circulating reports on the dormitory room system. Mrs. Hibbs will conduct an informal meeting in which any questions of the girls will be answered.

She will be in Tri-Dorms Tuesday night, Women's Building, Grange and McAllister Wednesday night, and Atherton Hall Thursday night.

Mrs. Hibbs also requests that all sorority presidents bring in the list of girls who will live in the suites or houses next semester to her by Monday. She will check these lists with the presidents.

Co-Edits

Engineer Open House Features Novel Displays, Presentations

Many and novel are the displays that have been arranged for visitors attending the annual Engineer Open House scheduled to begin at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

A demonstration of a link trainer and wind tunnel in operation has been prepared by the aeronautical department on the first floor of Engineering "B."

The industrial engineering department has prepared a precision model of the production line used by Curtiss Wright Aircraft Corporation during the war.

At the EE display in the Electrical Engineering building visitors will have an opportunity to send short wave messages to almost any city in the world by means of an amateur radio station in operation there.

A beam of light used to transmit sound, and demonstrations of high voltage equipment will also be put on exhibition by the EE students.

Diesel engines, steam turbines, and internal combustion engines in operation will highlight the ME department's showing in the ME laboratory.

Army and Navy ROTC departments will display latest-type equipment in the Armory. The architecture department will feature an elaborate display of proposed buildings and drawings on the third floor of ME.

A series of tests on water, coal, and road-paving materials will be made by civil engineering students in the basement of Engineering "A."

A series of arrows will guide onlookers to the various displays. No conducted tours will be made.

There is no admission charge to any of the displays, and all are open to the public. The open house will be staged for the one day only from 2 till 10 o'clock tomorrow.

Moore Proposes New Psych Club

Bruce V. Moore, professor of psychology, and Aaron L. Osipow, sophomore psychology major, will outline a proposed psychology club at a meeting in 204 Burrowes at 7 o'clock tonight. The meeting is open to all psychology majors.

The meeting is intended to acquaint students with and arouse interest in the planned organization prior to bringing the idea before the Education student council for a charter.

Osipow, one of the pioneers in the movement to initiate the first psychology club in the history of the College, will explain the proposed organization at tonight's meeting.

As now planned, membership in the group would be open to all psychology majors on campus. According to Osipow, the prime purpose of the club would be to promote interest in the field of psychology.

If sufficient interest is shown by tonight's turnout, the plans will be carried to the School of Education student council and a charter will be asked for the club.

Navy Offers Graduates Air Training Program

The Navy has announced plans to accept 650 college graduates to become officers in the regular Navy and get 18 months flying service.

Applications must be mailed to the Naval Procurement Officer in Washington, D. C. by May 15. The first group will be ordered to start their training at Pensacola, Florida about July 1.

Every officer appointed under the program will receive a four months indoctrination course, an 18-month flying course and must agree to stay in the Navy for two years.

College students who are graduating this June and who are interested in the program are urged to contact Lt. Thomas Francis of the NROTC unit in Engineering E.
