

Mortar Board Taps 17 Coeds In Dawn Rites

Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, tapped 17 women at 6:30 o'clock yesterday morning. After meeting in the second floor lounge of Old Main tappers and old members were served breakfast in McAllister Hall at 7 o'clock.

Immediately following the breakfast an official ceremony was held in the Dean of Women's office. Girls were required to wear Mortar Boards, black graduating caps yesterday morning and were given gold cords to wear as a sign of pledging until initiation.

The girls tapped were Nancy Ault, Sarah Beiber, Susan Bissey, Helen Dickerson, Jane Fouracre, Jo Fox, Pauline Globisch, Marjorie Gorham, Frances Keeney, Patricia Kinkead, Martha Koons, Claire Lee, Janet Lyons, Lorraine Munz, Elaine Nelson, Lois Resler, and Beatrice Silverstone.

Leadership, service to the College, and scholarship, the minimum average being two-tenths of a point above the all-college women's average, served as the basis for determining the girls to be tapped.

Members of Mortar Board are planning a TNT (tried n' true) Breakfast for senior women to be held 7 a. m. Thursday morning. The breakfast will honor all those seniors whose leadership and contributions have been the mainstay of Campus organizations.

Organizations on campus have been asked to list girls who they think would be eligible and some have also been recommended by Mortar Board. Seniors who are not a member of Cwens, Chimes, or Mortar Board, and who have worked for their organization at least two semesters have been considered.

Louise Homer Club To Elect Officers

Love's Labor Lost As Billfold Vanishes

LOST—Diamond ring in girl's billfold, near lab.

Once upon a time a boy and a girl fell in love. The boy gave the girl his fraternity pin as a symbol of his lasting affection.

During the ensuing summer he worked long and arduously and saved his earnings. In the fall, he obtained a part-time job and continued to add to his savings. Finally he had enough money for a diamond ring. The girl was overjoyed.

Her joy was short-lived, however, for through some quirk of circumstances she lost the ring. At the same time she lost a billfold, a birthday present. The ring had been placed in the billfold to avoid corroding it in chemistry lab where the girl spent much of her time.

Ads placed in the College paper as well as in the town paper brought no results. This is a final appeal. If you have any knowledge of anyone's finding a diamond ring, please call either the Collegian office or 4720.

Modern Dance Group To Repeat Recital For Arts Festival

The Modern Dance Concert Group will hold another performance of its Spring Concert in White Hall at 8 p.m. Tuesday as a part of the Combined Arts Festival.

The program includes a demonstration of techniques by members of the dance club; "Spring Night," a solo by Miss Dorothy Briant, club director; "Alley Capers," a duet by Mary Barnett and Louise Grossman; "Fantasy of a Big City," "The Casey's Shopping at Macy's," a trio by Miss Briant, Gladys Lou Miller, and Lee Ann Wagner, as well as several other numbers.

Miss Mildred Taylor Shaw, a concert violinist from Boston, Mass., will play during the concert.

Members of the Modern Dance Concert Group include Mary Barnett, Josephine Bihl, Joan Bissey, Susan Bissey, Margaret Cunningham, Pauline Globisch, Louise Grossman, Arlene Mack, Jane Miller, Elaine Nelson, Wanda Rickard, Lee Ann Wagner, and Jacqueline Zivic.

Admission to the concert will be free and everyone is invited to attend.

Ellen H. Richards Club

The Ellen H. Richards Club has been accepted into Phi Upsilon Omicron, National Home Economics Honorary. Installation will take place the week-end of May 15.

NAACP Seeks Local Members

NAACP, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, officially began its drive for membership in the local chapter last Tuesday and will continue an extensive campaign next week.

Personal contacts by members of the chapter will be made with students for the purpose of obtaining new members. A booth, prominently located, will be set up in order to distribute information relevant to the work of NAACP.

A regular meeting of the local chapter will be held in 304 Old Main, 2 p.m. Sunday, at which final plans for the conference and the drive will be completed.

Watson, Bass-baritone, To Sing Lead in 'Elijah'

Chester Watson, oratorio bass-baritone, will sing the title role in the Chapel Choir's presentation of Mendelssohn's "Elijah," to be held in Schwab auditorium at 7:30 p.m., Wednesday, May 19.

Watson, who has appeared with the New York Philharmonic and CBS Symphony Orchestras, has also performed in many radio presentations and world premieres of musical works. He is a veteran of World War II.

Other soloists appearing with the 107-voice choir are Barbara Troxell, soprano; Martha Albert, contralto; and Boyd Bell, tenor. Prof. George Ceiga will be organist, while Mrs. Willa Taylor will direct the group.

Although no tickets will be sold for the concert, the public will be asked to contribute a free offering.

Drama Students Give Original One-Act Plays

Four one-act plays written by members of the Dramatics 21 class will be presented in the Little Theatre at 7:30 p.m., Monday. The plays are being given in connection with the Combined Arts Festival.

One of the plays, "Now I'm in the Fives," by Edward McCoy, recently won first prize in a contest sponsored by the North Carolina Women's College of the University of North Carolina. Other plays to be presented are "Epilogue" by John Marion, "Some Are Lucky" by Portman Paget, and "For Old Time's Sake" by Manuel Herbert.

Anyone interested in seeing these experimental plays is invited to attend, said Warren S. Smith, the class instructor. There will be no admission charged.
