

Late AP News Courtesy WMAJ

RR Unions Refuse To Call Off Strike

WASHINGTON—The unions have refused to call off the scheduled railroad strike. Secretary of War Kenneth Royall has asked the Attorney General to obtain a court order to halt the walkout. The strike is scheduled for 6 a.m. today. Royall acted just 11 hours before the deadline in his last-minute effort to avert the walkout.

Funds for Air-Groups

WASHINGTON—A Senate and House Conference Committee has agreed on legislation providing more than $800,000,000 for a 70-group air force. The program calls for about 6800 active combat planes as compared with about 5500 in the present 55-group force.

Violence in Korea

KOREA—Voting in the American-sponsored election in South Korea was a violent affair. At least 25 persons were killed in election violence attributed to Communists. The bloodshed, however, did not prevent 6,000,000 Koreans from going to the polls for the first time in 4,000 years.

PSCA Continues Marriage Seminar

Dr. Paul Popenoe, director of the American Institute of Family Relations, will continue the Christian Association's Marriage Institute today with private consultation in the Christian Association office, 304 Old Main, 9 to 11 o'clock.

Seminars, "The Physiology of Reproduction," led by Dr. C. R. Carpenter, 121 Sparks, and "Early Post-Marital Adjustment," Dr. Will Smith, 304 Old Main, will take place at 11 o'clock.

Seminars, "The Spiritual Side of Marriage," led by the Rev. Robert H. Eads, 304 Old Main, and "Sexual Adjustment," Dr. W. U. Snyder, 121 Sparks, will be at 4 o'clock.

The Institute will close with a panel discussion featuring Prof. Jessie Bernard, the Rev. Bruce Gideon, Dr. Winona Morgan, Dr. Popenoe and Dr. Snyder on the topic "Marriage Today," 121 Sparks, 7:30 o'clock.

Original Musical Skits Spark Thespians' 'Great White Bear'

Tickets for "The Great White Bear," current Thespian show, are on sale at Student Union. Seats for Thursday night's production, which begins at 7 o'clock in Schwab, are unreserved and cost 75 cents. Curtain time Friday and Saturday is 8 p.m. and admission $1.

The show, a product of the pens of Pepper Birchard and Jack Saling, took first place laurels in the Thespian Club's script-writing contest. Directed by James (Sock) Kennedy, the production is sparked by many original musical numbers.

Julianne Seashore and Robert Koser hold the romantic spotlight as Penny Peters and Bill Wallmark. Miss Seashore, who transferred from Northwestern last semester, is one of the five to be initiated to the Thespian footlights. The others making their debut are Aaron Osipow who plays the big-bad director of a Russian dramatic group; Barbara Cooper as Miss Pringle, the Benson University music teacher; Ted Mann and JoAnn Roroback, who portray Elmer and Francie, members of the burlesque troop. Virgil Neilly, a Thespian veteran, is President Wallmark of

Fee Payment

A 10 dollar deposit must be paid tomorrow to insure a place for all students who intend to return in the fall, provided they meet all other requirements. The fees will be paid in Recreation Hall from 9 to 5 o'clock continuously.

Hat Societies Tap 61 New Members

Sixty-one men were tapped Friday by Skull and Bones and Parmi Nous, upperclass men's activities honoraries, said Richard McAdams and Gerald Karver, president and vice-president of the respective organizations.

Those tapped by Skull and Bones are Willard Agnew, Robert Auman, David Barron, George Bearer, Abram Bosler, Emory Brown, Harold Brown, Philip Cease, Raymond Dieterich, John English, James Gehrdes, Larry Gerwig, Paul Grove, Richard Hill, Theodore Hissey, Vance Klepper.

William Lawless, Arthur Lorenz, James Lotz, Barclay Moyer, Daniel Pearson, Frank Philippbar, James Robinson, George Schautz, Spencer Scheckter, Elliot Shapiro, Sidney Simon, Joseph Sitkin, Lewis Stone, Thomas Smith, Frank Tidona, Robert Troxell, Albert Vigilante, Edmund Walacavage, Arthur Ward, and Malcolm White.

Men honored by Parmi Nous include Charles Drazenovich, Joseph Drazenovich, James Etters, John Fast, Harold Hackman, Robert Hicks, Ralph Hosterman, Joseph Jackson, Paul Kelly, John Krusen, John Kulp, James Levinson, Theodore Lieb.

William Meade, Thomas Morgan, Negley Norton, Robert Ritz, Robert Sankey, John Sheehy, Milton Simon, Carl Sturges, Ste-

(Continued on page four)

Phys Ed School Elects Officers

Horace Ashenfelter was elected president of the Physical Education student council at a recent balloting of that body.

Other officers elected were Richard Wertz, vice-president; Mary Lou Bower, secretary; and William Bowser, treasurer.

Jane McCormick and Harris Bragg were named senior class representatives, and Blanche Eyer and John Hagerman junior class representatives. Wanda Rickard is alumni representative.

Benson University and in this capacity sings "One of the Boys," his own original composition. Jack Saling, co-author of "Bear," holds the role of Buzz Williams, the burlesque troop manager. Charlotte Halpern stars as the love of his life, Mable Muir from Brooklyn.

Robert Cobaugh, Cynthia Doan, and Roslyn McCollom are other members of the burlesque troop. James Dunaway and Larry Pino play the roles of two policemen, and Thaddeus Komorowski and Selma Rudnick are the college prexy's servants.

The musical's plot takes a floundering burlesque team across the country in search of an honest dollar. At each stop they find their prospective jobs taken by another more artistic group. In the face of hunger, the troop decides that "art is sweeping the country," and helped by a maze of circumstances, they attempt to find a place in the hall of cultured entertainment with the production of "The Great White Bear" at Benson University. The 'show' with its Russian pantomime is expected to be the humor highspot of the show.

Alumni Plus Brains Transforms Room To 'Tavern'

A furniture storeroom in State College which was once a bakery has been transformed into a Colonial-style restaurant through the planning and work of two College graduates, John O'Connor and Ralph Yeager. "The Tavern" opens today.

In striving for a friendly atmosphere where customers can relax, the partners abandoned the idea of furnishing the restaurant in modern fashion. Instead, they patterned their place in a Pennsylvania version of Colonial America.

O'Connor and Yeager first conceived the idea of the restaurant before the war. When they returned to the College while completing their graduate courses, they finished plans and began work on the restaurant.

For more than six months they considered and discarded more than 100 names for the restaurant. Then, faced by an opening deadline, they agreed to the name, "The Tavern."

National Honorary Holds Initiation

Phi Kappa Phi, national honorary society, initiated 40 undergraduates, four graduate students and one faculty member at a banquet Friday night.

The executive committee of the College chapter was elected after the initiation. It includes Dr. John F. Harkins, president; Julia G. Brill, vice-president; Maloise S. Dixon, secretary; Charles C. Dilio, treasurer; Edwin H. Rohrbek, correspondent.

Other members elected were David L. Markle and Mary J. Wyland.

Dean Lyman E. Jackson of the School of Agriculture spoke on "Comprehensive Education."

National president of the society, which covers all fields of education, is Dean Frank D. Kern of the Graduate School. The College is one of the three founders of Phi Kappa Phi, along with the University of Maine and the University of Tennessee.

Students Meet Faculty In LA Mixer in Ath Hall

Students will have a chance to meet their instructors without a rostrum between the prof and the pupil in the Northwest Lounge of Atherton Hall at 7 o'clock tomorrow.

Sponsored by the Liberal Arts Student Council, the mixer will include professors and students in every department of the Liberal Arts School.

Nancy Hoffman, chairman of the mixer, urges everyone to attend this final social affair of the School before the final exam period.

Ad Contest

With the value of the prizes in the "It's in the Ads" contest aiming toward the $300 mark, over 800 post cards have come into the Daily Collegian's contest office.

Latest prize for the identity of the "thing" is $10 in credit from G. C. Murphy's. This makes the total value of the prizes, $220.50.

The other prizes are from: Book and Record Store, Candy Cane, Charles Shop, Clark Motor Co., College Book Store, Don Kepler's, Glick Shoe Store, Harmony Shop, Keeler's Book Store, Margaret Shop, Mary Leitzinger, Mitchell's Dress Shop, Music Room, McLanahan Drug Store, Penn State Photo Shop, Schlow's, Smart Shop, State Motor Sales, Wolf Furniture Co., and Young Men's Shop.

Modern Dance Club To Repeat Concert

Students and faculty will be guests of the Modern Dance Concert Group again tonight when the Spring Recital is repeated for the Combined Arts Festival.

The concert, originally presented three nights in April, will be given in the modern dance room at 8 o'clock tonight.

Mildred Taylor Shaw, Boston violinist, will provide music between dance numbers.

Included in the program are a solo by Miss Dorothy Briant of the physical education staff, a duet by Mary Barnett and Louise Grossman, a comedy number by Miss Briant, Gladly Lou Miller and Lee Ann Wagner, and another duet by Miss Miller and Miss Wagner.

Two of last year's most popular numbers, "Fantasy of a Big City" and "Jungle Rhythms," will be repeated for this program.

All choreography is done by members of the dance group assisted by Miss Bryant. Accompanist for the program is Mrs. Hermande Reese.

CA Dinner Honors Chinese Students

The annual Penn State Christian Association banquet to be held at the Presbyterian Church at 5:30 p.m. Saturday will follow a Penn State-in-China theme.

Chinese students on campus will attend the dinner as guests of honor, said Mary Armes, publicity commissioner.

George W. "Daddy" Groff, '07, will speak on "What Can America and China Share." For many years "Daddy" Groff was associated with the agricultural department at Lingnan University which is partially supported by Penn State chapel collections.

Movies depicting college life in China and scenic views of the country will be shown.

The Board of Directors will be elected at the meeting. Tickets may be purchased at the Christian Association office in Old Main until Friday.

Colleges Take Part In NAACP Meeting

A Central Pennsylvania Conference of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People will be held at the College Saturday and Sunday. Four colleges, Penn State, Lycoming College, Bucknell University, and Wilkes College will participate.

The conference will open with a closed meeting in 304 Old Main 2 p.m. Saturday. At this time there will be discussions of organizational problems, discrimination in Central Pennsylvania, and future action on legislation. A co-ordinating committee for Central Pennsylvania will also be appointed.

Sunday's program begins with breakfast at 9 a.m. for visitors and Chapel Service at 11 a.m. Reports will be given by attending colleges on the impact of discrimination at an open meeting in 121 Sparks at 1:45 p.m.

Conference delegates and visitors will then attend a tea in Southeast Atherton Lounge at 3:30 p.m. Paintings by Rufus Williams and John Biggers will be on display.

Concluding the conference will be another open meeting in 121 Sparks at 4:30 p.m. when Dr. Walter Coult, professor of sociology at the College, will speak on "Racial Discrimination in Our Society." A vocal selection and a reading will be presented by William Himes and Mrs. James Smith respectively. The conference will culminate in the NAACP membership drive now being conducted.

First Traffic Violators Appear Before Tribunal

The students listed below will be brought before the Student Tribunal Committee for reported violations of the College traffic regulations in 201 Old Main at 7:30 o'clock tonight for those in the first group and at 8 o'clock for those in the second group, according to Alan Hack, Tribunal Chairman.

Hack said that over 90 students have been reported by the Campus Patrol officers to date, but that only the 32 cases of May 4 will be tried tonight. He stressed the fact that students will be fined, if guilty, as previously stated in the Daily Collegian. (Continued on page four)

College Named As Convention Site

The College will again be the site of the National Student Association Regional Conference, Robert Troxell, regional vice-president, said yesterday. Two hundred and twenty-five delegates are expected to represent Pennsylvania's 45 member schools at the convention, which will be held June 10 to 13.

Anticipating All-College Cabinet's approval of the conference and selection of an administrative committee and 12 delegates from the College, the local chapter will formulate plans for the event in 16 Sparks, at 6:30 o'clock tomorrow night. Topics which will be considered are student welfare and government, a Pennsylvania Culturale, and election of regional officers.

Culturales, successfully organized in several other regions, consist of musical and dramatic programs to which member schools contribute Players' and Thespians' productions, choral groups, bands, and orchestras.

News Briefs

PanHel-IFC Refunds

Fraternity and sorority representatives may pick up refunds of assessments from the PanHel-IFC Ball in 102 Old Main at any time today.

La Vie Photos

All students graduating this summer who are not in the 1948 La Vie should contact the Penn State Photo Shop immediately for senior photo appointments for the 1949 La Vie.

In order to have a senior picture appear in the 1949 La Vie seniors must be photographed before May 25, 1948.

Students for Wallace

A special meeting of Students for Wallace will be held in 418 Old Main, 7 o'clock tonight, for the purpose of planning summer campaigning in and around State College.

ASCE

Students attending the meeting of ASCE at the Civil Engineering Camp are asked to form an auto caravan in the parking lot behind Mechanical Engineering Laboratory at 7 o'clock tonight.

Penn State Club

Installation of officers will be held in 321 Old Main at 7 o'clock tonight. Plans for a combined picnic with Philotes will be discussed.