Faculty News

Dr. Eugene T. McDonald, director of the Speech and Hearing Clinic, will conduct a table clinic at the meetings of the Pennsylvania Dental Association in Atlantic City today and tomorrow. The clinic will deal with speech training for the cleft-palate patient.

Dr. Ralph A. Van Meter, father of David Van Meter, assistant professor of electrical engineering, has been named president of the University of Massachusetts at Amherst, Mass. He had been serving as acting president since last June.

Five papers, prepared by faculty members of the School of Chemistry and Physics, were published in the March issue of the Journal of the Optical Society of America.

Howard S. Coleman and Samuel W. Harding are authors of an article on "Loss of Resolving Power Caused by Primary Astigmatism, Coma and Spherical Aberration in Telescopic Systems" while Dr. Coleman and W. S. Verplanck, of Indiana University, are authors of an article on "Comparison of Computed and Experimental Detection Ranges of Objects Viewed with Telescopic Systems from Aboard Ships."

David H. Rank and J. S. McCartney are authors of "Some Spectral Characteristics of Mercury Arcs for Use in Study of the Raman Effect." Dr. Rank and Alexander E. Douglas are authors of "Determination of the Depolarization Factors of Highly Polarized Raman Lines" while Dr. Rank, Dr. McCartney, and Dr. George J. Szasz have contributed "Intensity and Polarization of Brillouin Spectra."

Donald W. Davis, professor of journalism, has been selected by the Advertising Federation of America as one of three university educators to serve on a six-

Armed Student Gives Philosophy Class Invasion Scare

An astounded group of philosophy students thought World War III had broken out Thursday afternoon when they looked up from their books to see a late-comer to the class dash in complete with carbine, caliber .30 M-1.

While Prof. Ernest H. Freund and his philosophy 2 class waited to hear some remark such as "To arms, the Reds are coming," the weapon-bearer calmly selected a seat.

Closer investigation revealed that the armed student, William Fricke, was carrying the impotent firearm, minus a bolt, on the way from a class in ROTC.

man panel on "The Training of Advertising Personnel."

The panel will be included in the program for the convention to be held in Cincinnati on June 16. The other three members of the panel will be advertising executives from industry.

$1300 Cash Prizes! Get in!

Mollé "What do you say?" Contest!

Here is Set #10 of the Mollé "What do you say?" contest! It's the last of the series—but there is still time to enter—time to win!

Dig out the back issues of this newspaper. Fill in all ten sets of answer balloons. Mail them all in at once!

$500 to Grand Prize Winner! $50 each to winners at 16 different colleges! A cinch to win! Just fill in your answers in the balloon spaces indicated. Fill in name, address, college. Then mail. That's all there is to it! Here are some hints to help you with Balloon #10B: Mollé is brushless. Mollé is heavier . . . softens whiskers. Mollé is kind to tender skin, tames tough whiskers.

Mollé sets whiskers up straight so your razor can whisk through 'em. With Mollé, you shave cleanly, quickly, smoothly, closely, more comfortably.

And now for #10. Fill 'em in! Mail 'em in!

What do you say when a gal says:

What do you say when a pal says:

O. K., fellows! This is the wind-up. Give it the gun!

CONTEST RULES... Mollé "What do you say?" Contest

1. Merely write, in the blank cartoon balloons above, your answers to the questions. Mail your entry to the address given elsewhere in this ad. Be sure to fill in your complete name and address in the space indicated.
2. Each contestant must be a registered male student of the college in whose paper this contest is published, and each contestant must compete in all ten sets of cartoons in order to be eligible for prizes. If you did not receive a copy of this news-

- paper, a reasonable facsimile of the cartoon or a written description of it will be accepted.
3. With Sets No. 3 and No. 8, the contestant must include a cartoon from a 25¢ or 50¢ tube—or from any size jar—of Mollé. Remember, only two cartoons (of any size) are required, but be sure you send one in with No. 3 and one in with No. 8 of the sets.
4. Only one entry will be accepted from each contestant in each set and

- all entries must be the original work of the contestants, submitted in their own names.
5. Entries will be judged by the Reuben H. Donnelley Corporation, an independent judging organization. All ten cartoons submitted by a single contestant will be considered as a unit in judging, and the judges' decisions will be based on the originality, aptness and interest of each set. First prize winners of $50 from each school will be eligible for the Grand Prize of $500.00 to be

- awarded to the best series of entries from all the schools. The decision of the judges is final and duplicate prizes will be awarded in case of ties.
6. All entries become the property of Sterling Drug Inc., and no entries will be returned.
7. All ten sets of answers must be mailed before May 14, 1948, final date of the contest. Entries with inadequate postage will not be accepted. Prize winners will be announced here the week of May 24.
