Stark Paces Lion Hitters, Gehrett, Miller Top Hurlers

Don Stark, last season's leading hitter, is again leading the parade of Lion sluggers as the College baseball season enters its final weeks. The hard-hitting little fly-chaser has an average of .377 with figures complete as of Saturday's contest with Navy.

Jim Masticola and Southpaw Bill Benyish lead the Blue and White hurlers in effectiveness, both pitchers boasting records of one win and no defeats for a percentage of 1.000. Captain Bob Gehrett owns the most wins, four, and both he and Cy Miller have winning percentages of .667.

Gehrett's record is four wins and two defeats while Miller sports a mark of two victories and one setback.

Stark not only leads in hitting, but has a stranglehold on practically every hitting record on the team among the regulars. He has collected the most hits, 20, the most triples, two, the team's only home run, and has smashed out the most extra base clouts, six.

Hal Hackman and Tom Hogan, both with batting averages of .333, rank behind Stark in the race for the team batting title.

IM Track

Three intramural field events—shot put, broad jump and high jump—will be held on the New Beaver Field track at 8:30 o'clock tonight. Finals in both track and field are slated for tomorrow night at the same time.

Nittany Nelmen Oppose Lehigh

Sights of the College today are trained on the varsity courts, where the Lions will seek to regain winning stride by combating Lehigh at 3:30 o'clock.

Saturday the Lions were stopped by a well-rounded Syracuse team, 7-2, making the Blue and White record three victories against two setbacks.

Only Ralph Peters and the doubles team of Herb Beckhard and Al Sopp posted victories for the Lions against the New York school.

Beckhard, however, bowed in singles competition to Henry Baron, 4-6, 7-5, 6-4. Bob Tuttle

Intramural Sports

Soccer

A four extra-period game and a 4-0 landslide featured the intramural soccer card Monday night.

With less than a minute to go in the regulation scrimmage, Jerry Leanness, ZBT, booted the ball into the goal from midfield to tie the game at 1-1 after Ed Wilson, PIKA, marked up a goal earlier in the period.

The teams battled for three extra periods without being able to crack the opponents' defense when Bob Louis kicked the ball into the cage in the fourth overtime to give the PIKA's a 2-1 victory for their third intramural win.

Chuck Lang, SAE, was the hero of the 4-0 whitewash his house handed the Beta Sigma Rho's. Lang smacked three field goals through the cage while was topped by Harvey Berdich, 6-2, 6-4. Dick Greenawalt lost to Ronald Goodman, 7-5, 6-4.

Lloyd Haldeman accounted for the fourth.

In other games Stephen Neuman, Pi Lambda Phi, kicked the winning tally that defeated TKE, 1-0, and Murray Rosetski, Phi Epsilon Pi, garnered the goal that topped Chi Phi by the same count.

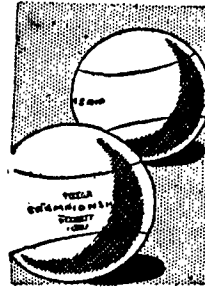

Horseshoes

Recent results of the intramural horseshoe pitching league show four fraternities ready to battle for the semi-final round.

Joe and Chuck Drazenovich, pitching for DU, nudged out Dave Sims and Harry Reed of Acacia with a 21-8, 21-12 score. Robert Burden and Ted Kubicki of Phi Kappa won the nod over Bill Colteryahn and Justine Fides, Alpha Gamma Rho representatives, by a 21-3, 21-6 decision.

Throwing for Sigma Phi Epsilon, Bill Cregar and Bill Belden took Lloyd Amprim and Bill Schrage of Kappa Delta Rho with a 21-10, 21-10 final listing. Alpha Zeta and Triangle are also scheduled for the quarter-final playoff.
