

Bissey, Zettle Receive Graduation Honors

Joan L. Bissey was named valedictorian and Frank S. Zettle was chosen salutatorian of the June, 1948 graduation class.

Eugene M. Fulmer was selected men's class donor; Gerald T. Karver, spoon man; Thomas J. Lannen, pipe orator; John J. Nolan, cane man; and John P. Tighe, barrel man.

Named for honors among the women are Joan L. Bissey, fan girl; Violet R. Gillespie, class poet; Virginia R. McCluskey, class donor; Susanne R. Romig, slipper girl; and Jacqueline A. Zivic, mirror girl.

Psychology Major

Miss Bissey, a psychology major, is vice-president of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. She is secretary of Mortar Board and secretary of the symphony orchestra. Listed in Who's Who in American Colleges, she is also a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, Cwens, Psi Chi, Pi Gamma Mu, WSGA and co-chairman of Religion-in-Life Week.

Zettle served in the European theatre of operations as a corporal in the army during World War II. He is vice-president of the Clover Club and is a member of Phi Sigma Eta, Phi Kappa Phi and Gamma Sigma Delta.

Class Day

Samuel E. Neely, chairman of the class day committee, will give the introduction at class day exercises. Dedication of the class memorial will be made by Edward W. Banyai.

Louis Cohn Heads Hillel Foundation

Louis Cohn was elected president of the B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation, according to Norman Horowitz, retiring president. Other new officers are Sylvia Levy, woman's vice-president; Seymour Barash, men's vice-president; Sylvia Ockner, secretary; and Betty Ruth Gibbons, treasurer.

In addition to the executive committee, eight members-at-large were elected to the Governing Board. They are Abe Freund, Harold Gittlen, Selma Lampert, Judy PoKempner, Shirley Ring, Elliot Rosengarten, Myrna Tex, and Selma Zasofsky.

The new officers will be installed at Sabbath eve services on May 28.

Engineer on Sale Today

May issue of the Penn State Engineer will go on sale today at Student Union and in front of the Corner Room.

Featured among the articles will be Charles Luddy's "Fundamentals of Plastics," a timely report on magnetic recording by Francis Yonker and Gene Marir's "Concepts of Modern Physics."

Expect Palestine Battle Decision in 48 Hours

Late AP News Courtesy WMAJ

JERUSALEM—Arab troops of Trans-Jordan have forced their way deep into the modern section of Jerusalem. The Arabs expect that the battle of Jerusalem will be decided within 48 hours.

Planes bombed the new Jewish capital of Tel Aviv today with heavy explosives— heavier than those which killed 41 persons in a bus station Tuesday.

Reds Rap U.S. Attitude

MOSCOW—The official Russian news agency Tass quotes certain Soviet circles as saying that the deadlock with the United States is due to the aggressive attitudes of the Truman administration. The Russian agency declares the State Department has displayed a "negative attitude" toward the negotiation proposals made in the exchange of letters between Premier Stalin and Henry Wallace.

Diehl Wins Medal For Architecture

John R. Diehl, senior architecture student will be presented the medal of the American Institute of Architects at the Esquisse, architecture club, picnic at Whipple's Dam this afternoon.

The medal and a book, "Mont Saint-Michel and Chartres," a novel on architecture by Henry Adams, is annually awarded to the graduating senior who demonstrates outstanding ability in architectural design.

Stanley Cole, runner-up for the award, will receive a copy of the novel.

Robert Widder, also a senior in architecture, will be awarded the Alpha Rho Chi, national professional architectural fraternity, medal for outstanding leadership, service and promise of professional merit at the picnic.

Blue Band Presents Outdoor Concert

The College Blue Band will make its final concert appearance on the Library steps 3 p.m. Sunday with selections ranging from Sousa's "Stars and Stripes Forever" to Kern's "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes."

James W. Dunlop, conductor of the band, stated that three specialty numbers will be included in the concert.

A cornet solo of Creston Ottemiller, David Briner and Russel Nickerson will play "Three Kings" by Smith. Robert Skipper will play a clarinet solo, "Nola," Rebecca Griffin will be featured as soloist in the "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes Number."

Guest conductor Robert Fredrickson will lead the band in Cole Porter's "Night and Day," and conductor Franklin B. Hege will lead Hall's "The New Colonial March."

In case of rain, the program will be held in Schwab Auditorium.

Recital Features Music Students, Original Scores

Original compositions written by the students in the music department will be an outstanding feature of the student recital in 117 Carnegie at 8:15 o'clock tonight. This is the first of two recitals; the second is to be given Monday night.

The numbers in the program are "Come Ye Sinners," a Negro spiritual by Robert Golby and Janet Shute; "Elegy for Soprano" by Janet Neff and Shirley Cogswell; "Slumber Song" for male voices by Ray Fortunato; "Chorale" for trombone choir by Francis Fuge, Rex Norton and Darrell Rishel; "Hunting Song" for two horns and piano by Clyde Shive; "Catastrophe," a short song by the harmony class; and "College Song" for male voices by Ray Fortunato.

Some students have made arrangements of pieces by well known composers. They are "Children Skating" for string quartet by Rebikov, arranged by Ray Fortunato; "Small Fugue" by Handel, arranged by the students in the counterpoint class; and "The Lame Witch" for brass ensemble by Rebikov, arranged by Elmer Wareham.

Soloists for the evening are Josephine Rotli who will play "D Major Piano Concerto," the second and third movements by Haydn; Jacqueline Heckert, soprano, who will sing "Il Est Doux, Il Est Bons" by Massenet, and "Dich Teure Halle" by Wagner. Maynard Hill, tenor, will sing "Come Sweet Death" by Bach; "Traume" by Wagner, and "Jueignung" by Strauss. Lois Schaeffer, contralto, will sing "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice" by Saint Saens, "Thy Voice" by Miller, and "My Native Land" by Gretchaninoff.

Sarge Receives Journ Citation

Richard H. Sarge has been nominated by an authorized committee of student, faculty and professional Sigma Delta Chi members to receive the Sigma Delta Chi citation for the outstanding male graduate in journalism. He was selected on the basis of general excellence in character, scholarship, and competence to perform journalistic tasks.

Sarge served as News Editor of the Daily Collegian, editor of the Student Handbook and president of the sophomore class. He also is a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity and Skull and Bones honorary.

Seven seniors in journalism were awarded certificates for having maintained a high scholastic standing in all college work and ranking in the upper 10 per cent of the class. Those to receive this commendation were Robert Eldridge, Owen Spann, Marie Thompson, John David Lambert, A Roberta Hutchison, and Meryl Brown.

Dean's Office Lists Final Room Drawings

Final room choosing by third and fourth semester women will be held in the Dean of Women's office beginning at 6:15 o'clock tonight. Roommates must come together when selecting their room.

Tonight's schedule is as follows: fourth semester, numbers 86 to 170, 6:15 to 6:45; fourth, numbers 171 to 255, 6:45 to 7:15; fourth, numbers 256 to 340, 7:15 to 7:45; fourth, numbers 341 to 425, 7:45 to 8:15; third semester, numbers 1 to 20, 8:15 to 8:30.

Seniors Select Press As 1948 Class Gift

A student press was selected overwhelmingly as the gift to the College by the class of 1948 in ballots tabulated last night.

Of the votes cast, 496 seniors favored a student press, 191 wished to donate the $7,000 to Lingnan University in Canton, China, and 46 desired an observatory as the class gift.

The seniors agreed to the trust fund of $500 to be used to keep all members of the class informed of the names of men running for the Board of Trustees who will best serve the interest of the College.

In voting for a class gift, 512 members participated in casting ballots Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Approximately 550 postcards were mailed to students who graduated in February. Of the 550 sent, 221 cards were returned with choices indicated.

Edward W. Banyai, president, announced a meeting of the senior class in 121 Sparks at 7 p.m. Tuesday. At the meeting a report will be made by all senior class committees.

Indicating a desire to have the trust fund established were 484 members of the senior class. Seniors who did not favor the Board of Trustees information numbered 226.

Donald Mitchell, chairman of the senior class gift committee, pointed out that in former years five per cent of the seniors voted for the gift. Approximately 37.2 per cent of the June, 1948 class voted.

Engineer Council Elects Officers

Milton Stone was elected president of the 1948-49 Engineering Student Council at elections held in 103 ME Tuesday night. John Chiquoine received the office of vice-president, and George Potter was elected to the post of secretary-treasurer.

Prof. MacLean M. Babcock was re-elected faculty advisor.

The new officers will assume their duties at the beginning of the fall semester. Stone succeeds George Bearer, present council president, while Alexander Petrowski is the current vice-president. Donald Perry is secretary and George Beseparis is the outgoing treasurer.

Why Proofreaders Turn Grey

A typographical monstrosity listed as a menu will be served in the Grace Lutheran Church at 6:30 p.m. Saturday at the annual Senior Banquet of the Lutheran Student Association.

The dinner will be in the form of a Swedish "Smorgasbord" with the following menu: Limpa Bullar, Knackebrod, Kax, Smor-ost, Kaviar, Norska sardiner, Gaffelbitar, Agg och ansjovis.

Sillsallat Strommingrullader, i gele, Rakor i toatgele, Slnat och agg, Inglada robotot, Potatis, Bruna boner, Svanpomelett, Kaldolmar, Kallskuret Kott, Wienerkorv, Skinka, Kottbullar, Ungstekt lax Rokt oxtunga med oliver, Tarta, Kaffe-te-mjolk.

Carl Lud-Quist, national Lutheran student leader, will be the guest speaker. Tickets may be obtained for $1.50 by contacting any LSA member or calling 4736.

Bar Bell Club Elects

Roy McClenaghan was elected president of the College Bar Bell Club at a meeting last week. George Heller was chosen vice-president and John Barnholdt secretary. Activities chairman for the coming year will be Mid Yezzi.

Honorary Chooses Bieber President

Sarah Anna Bieber was elected president of Mortar Board, senior women's honorary in elections held Tuesday night.

Patricia Kinkead was chosen vice-president, Frances Keeney was elected secretary. Beatrice Silverstone was chosen treasurer, and Lois Resler was elected historian. Miss Bieber and Miss Keeney will represent Mortar Board on Hat Societies Council.

Installation of 17 newly tapped women was held preceding the elections.

Cancer Contributions

honorary groups that have not turned in their contributions to the 1948 Student Cancer Drive, are urged to do so at once by Harry Patchin, chairman of the student committee. All additional contributions by individuals or groups, will be accepted at the Student Union desk.

News Briets

Engineering Lecture

Congressman James E. Van Zandt will speak on "How Congress Works" at the senior engineering lecture in Schwab at 4:10 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

The talk, originally scheduled for last Friday, was postponed until this week.

Organ Recital

Helen Dickerson will present the organ recital in Schwab at 4:15 o'clock this afternoon. Her program includes "O Lamm Gottes," Bach; "Prelude and Fugue in B Flat Major," Bach; "Picardy," Sowerby; and "Concert Overture," Rogers.

Olympic Film

A movie of the recent Olympic gymnastics will be shown in 119 Osmond Lab at 7:30 o'clock tonight. Gene Wettstone, United States Olympic gymnastic coach, will explain all the performances.

Bible Fellowship

The Penn State Bible Fellowship recently elected Horace Glover, president; Charles Waring, vice-president; Marie Card, secretary; and Craig Frantz, treasurer.

Phi Epsilon Kappa

Phi Epsilon Kappa, men's national physical education honorary, elected Howard James, president; Carl Sturges, vice-president; Thomas Smith, secretary; and James Simpson, treasurer.

Dr. Arthur F. Davis and Mr. Charles M. Speidel will be the faculty advisors for the coming year.

Electronic Warfare

The Campus Electronic Warfare Company, composed of veterans and civilians, will meet in Engineering "E", second floor NROTC headquarters at 8 o'clock tonight.