

Bedenkmen Face Colgate at Home

With its final road trip of the season completed, the Nittany Lion baseball team returns to New Beaver Field tomorrow afternoon to meet Colgate in the first engagement of a final four-game home stand.

Captain Bob Gehrett, who dropped an 8-5 decision to Navy in his last turn on the hill, will draw the starting assignment for tomorrow's encounter.

A banner "Big Weekend" crowd is expected to attend tomorrow's tilt to watch the Blue and White diamondmen seek victory number ten for the year.

FOUR AT HOME

After a disastrous road trip that netted only one victory in three starts, the Bedenkmen are favored by a schedule which has their final four engagements on home territory.

Following tomorrow's contest with the Red Raiders, Temple's powerful nine invades State College next Wednesday for a single game.

The Presidents of Washington and Jefferson help the Bedenkmen round out the 1948 baseball season by meeting the Lions in single contests here next Friday and Saturday.

TWO IN A ROW

During the three-game stand on foreign fields, which ended with a 6-1 victory over Bucknell Wednesday, the College nine dropped tilts to both Navy and Villanova. It marked the first time this season that the Nittany nine found itself on the losing end of the score in two consecutive tussles.

The one win and two defeats left the local team with a record of nine wins and four losses for the year to date.

Nittany Lacrossemen Clash With Colgate in Finale

The Lion lacrosse team will strive to get back in the win column by tangling with Colgate's Red Raiders tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock on the golf course field.

Six members of the varsity squad will be closing their collegiate careers against the Raider stickmen. Captain "Wild Bill" Hollenbach, Joitin' Johnny Nolan, George Locotos, John McCleary, Art Lorenz and John Whitaker will don Blue and White uniforms for the last time.

GRADUATE

In addition, George Meeker, Jack Watkins and Jim Wolf, members of the squad, will be lost via graduation. Wolf, a letterman, has been sidelined with an injury since the season's opening game with Drexel.

Veteran defenseman Tom Smith was added to the injury list when it was discovered that he had a broken hand. Smith played both the Syracuse and Army games despite the injury. Either Jack Hayes or Whitaker will start at Smith's position against Colgate.

MIDFIELD CHANGE

Coach Nick Thiel also plans a change in his second midfield combination. McCleary suffered a slight leg injury in the Army fray, and Rocco Iannetta will be shifted to his post.

Colgate has triumphed only once in five starts this season, its lone win being registered over Sampson College. The Raiders have bowed to Cornell, Hobart, RPI and Syracuse. However, Coach Mark Randall's forces have been improving with every game, and Lion Coach Thiel expects a fairly close contest.

The visitors will be led by Mark Galloway, second team all-American last year. An all-American hockey goalie, Galloway was a mid fielder on the North all-star team in 1947.

The Army lacrosse team topped the College team, 7-1, Saturday with Bradley and Egbert each scoring three goals for the Cadets and Bob Louis marking the lone Nittany goal.

Karver in Los Angeles as ... Lions Battle Red Raiders In Final Dual Track Meet

Track activity will open tonight for the College when Jerry Karver competes in the Coliseum Relays at Los Angeles and will continue tomorrow all day with the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association meet in the morning and a dual meet with Colgate in the afternoon. Both meets take place on the New Beaver Field track.

Running in the 1500-meter race at Los Angeles, Karver will vie in the first of a series of Olympic pre-tryouts.

Compared to his usual mile run, the 1500 meter race is a little shorter. The record is held by Jack Lovelock of New Zealand who ran the event in 3:47.8 for an Olympic mark.

Entries in the event include, besides Karver, John Twomey and Bob Rehberg, Illinois; Bill Mack of Michigan State; Roland Sink of Southern California and Jerry Thompson of Texas.

Saturday's schoolboy events will start at 10 o'clock and the morning session will end at noon. Afternoon activities will be resumed at 2 o'clock and continue until all the events are finished about 5 o'clock.

"KARVER-LESS"

The Wernermen's final meet will open with the Karver-less mile" at 1 o'clock. Bob Auman, who has hit the 4:30 mark, will try to fill Karver's place, plus

John Boar, Lou Nicastro and Ted Hissey.

Having run the fastest two-mile outdoor race in the country in 1948, Horace Ashenfelter will strive to lower his last week's time of 9:18 in Saturday's Colgate meet. Ash has run 9:14 indoors and will be aiming at this mark against the Red Raiders.

Bob Harrison, who has run the 120 high hurdles in :14.8, will lead the timber toppers this Saturday. Gene Love and Bob Senior also are slated for the barrier runs.

THOMAS, ROBINSON

In the 100-yard dash event, Red Thomas and Jim Robinson will represent the College, while in the quarter-mile race, Ike Evans, Rea Carrol and Jack Stevenson will compete against the Colgate runners.

Intramural Sports

Track

Beta Theta Pi and DU scored 8½ points Wednesday night in the intramural track and field meet when Negley Norton, Beta Theta Pi, threw the shot 38' 8¼" for a first place in that event, and Bob Harter, DU, set a record in the high jump with a leap of 5' 8½".

Another meet record was set when Ed Yorkgitis, Theta Kappa Phi, jumped 20' 3¾" in the running broad jump.

Lacrosse Banquet

All members of the varsity and junior varsity lacrosse squads are urged to be at the Anchorage at 5 o'clock Sunday evening for the annual lacrosse banquet.

Soccer

Sparking his team on both offense and defense, Sam Axe, Triangle, kicked the deciding goal in the intramural soccer final yesterday to down SAE, 1-0.

With less than two minutes left in the first half, Axe booted a 15-yard goal into the cage. In the second half, he dropped back to the defense zone and kicked the ball away from his goal time after time to repel the SAE team.

Bill Ewing, Triangle goalkeeper, deflected two SAE markers in the second half when the losers attempted to score in the closing minutes.

Triangle gained the final bracket by topping Delta Tau Delta, 1-0, after downing Alpha Chi Rho, 1-0. Before losing to Triangle, Delta Tau Delta gained the semi-final round by outscoring Alpha Chi Sigma, 1-0.

SAE squeezed out a 1-0 overtime win over Pi Lambda Phi and then defeated PiKA, 1-0, to gain the final round.
