'Chris Bean'

particularly well-done. Miss Toll turned out a creditable performance in a rather limited role of the ingenue, Susan. Susan, and Warren Creamer, a struggling young artist well-handled by Omar Lerman, supported the cause of young love as the Haggett family tried to thwart their romance. The honesty and integrity of "Davenport," dealer in legitimate art, was clearly expressed by Harry Natschke, who appears as the plot becomes highly involved to expose his underhanded art colleagues. Bouquets to the summer debut of Town and Nine Players, and director James Ambandos for the professional manner in which they presented "The Late Christopher Bean."

"Smoking pleasure means Chesterfield to me every time"

Anne Baxter

STARRING IN "THE WALLS OF JERICHO" A 20th CENTURY-FOX PICTURE

WHY... I smoke Chesterfield

(FROM A SERIES OF STATEMENTS BY PROMINENT TOBACCO FARMERS)

Chesterfield buys the best mild, ripe, sweet tobacco. They consistently pay the best prices to get the kind of tobacco they want.

I've been smoking Chesterfields more than 25 years. It's a good, mild cigarette with more real tobacco taste.
