Promotions Approved For 84 Faculty Members

Promotions for 84 faculty members at the College have been approved by the Board of Trustees, according to James Milholland, acting president of the College. All are effective Thursday.

Palmer C. Weaver, administrative assistant to the dean of the School of Education, has been named assistant dean of the School of plant pathology research; R. Wallace Brewster, political science; Albert Buffington, German; Charles Burge, animal husbandry extension; Frank Butler, education.

Associate professors promoted to professors are Walter Beach.

Thomas Mason analytical chemistry; Robert Meail, ornamental horticulture; Joseph Nageotte, dairy husbandry extension; Hans Neuberger, meteorology; Sylvain Research

o the rank of associate professor ing research in the Ordnence Re-re Miss Helen Adolf. German: corch Laboratory.

Russell Alderfer, soil technology: Seven promotions were made Cussell Alderfer. soil technology; Seven promotions were made incering: John Anderson, philosophy; William Armstrong, instrial engineering; Jay Beck.

David Campbell, engineering awing; John Dilworth, menanical engineering; Miss Sybil merson, art education and home conomics; Cortland Eyer, rounce languages; Lent Forster, istory; John Hayes chemistry; odney Hersh, petroleum refing; Francis Hyslop. Jr., fine arts; ennings Jones, petroleum reping ning.

John Lester, mechanical engi-cering: Miss Marguerite Little, fe; Everett McLaughlin, engi-reering research; John Mourant. hilosophy; Russell Rusk, petrol-um refining; Randall Stout, conomics; Abram VanderMeer, ducation; Miss Sara Warren, nu-rition extension.

Paul Beall was promoted from structor to associate professor speech; Charles W. Stickler com research assistant to asso-late professor of mining engi-pering; and W. E. Youngdahl. om assistant agricultural extenn representative to agricultur-extension representative.

sistant Professors

rs. Marian Fraser, home eco-mics; Miss Marguerite Horn. Miss Parker will leave State mechanical engineering; H. David Frederick Axelson, instructor and assistant supervisor of min-Walter Coutu, sociology; Mrs. Elizabeth Dye, home economics; Miss Amy Gardner, home economics; Evan Johnson, mathematics; Harry Krall, mathematics; Chauncey Lang, agricultural extension; Miss Mabel McDowell, clothing extension: M. Nelson McGeary, political science.

Thomas Mason analytical chamating data assistant professor and supervisor of fuel technology extension was named assistant professor in charge of supervisory extension training. Luther Bernard, lecturer in sociology, was promoted to professor. ing extension, was named assistant professor and supervisor of ther Bernard, lecturer in soci-ology, was promoted to profes-sorial lecturer in sociology (part

Research Assistants

Research assistants promoted Pirson, geophysics; Urwin Rownincluded Robert Geier. Robert ree, industrial education; J. Kenneth Stern, agricultural coperation; R. Hadly Waters, ecoperation; R. Hadly Waters, ecoperati tions were also made in under-graduate centers.

Firabeth Parker, who has ro orded more than a quarter of a million student grades in the post ^o8 vears, retired last week, Sho had worked at the College for the past 37 years.

A native of Canton, Miss Parker came to the College in 1911 as secretary to Raymond H. Smith then alumni secretary and graduate manager of athletics.

In 1920, she transferred to the office of Dean Ralph L. Watts. of the School of Agriculture. where she served as recorder and secretary. Among her duties there was the job of checking each student's scheduling card to be cer-

Those promoted from instruct to assistant professor are Missiances Andrews. music education: Samuel Bayard. English mposition: Miss Jane Ann Boyho adley, economics: Joseph adley, economics: Miss Dorov Briant, physical education: omas Brice, chemistry. Itoseph Dahmus, history: Sherin Fogg. physical education ords for more than a thousand n Fogg, physical education ords for more than a thousand ome economics: Philip Lovett. College about August 1 for Ar-ochanical engineering E. Orth cadia. Florida. where she will alott. economics: Edwin Nye, make her home.

GRIN AND BEAR IT

"It's a shame more women aren't candidates for office!—The things they'd say about each other would be much more interesting!

By Lichty

Lingnan Library To Get Books

Used textbooks of all descriptions and in all subjects were donated to replenish the war-devastated library of Lingnan University, Shanghai, known for 35 vears as "Penn State-in-China" by students, faculty members and townspeople.

Nearly 2500 books were contributed in the end-of-semester drive sponsored by the Daily Collegian after seniors had defeated a proposal to donate the class gift, approximately $6500, to the li-

The Penn State-in-China committee, with Dr. Henry S. Brunner as chairman, will sort, pack and ship the much-needed books to the Chinese institution, to which regular Chapel offerings have been sent for the last 35

ROTC Men in Camp

Training in five summer camps in three states are 66 advanced ROTC students at the College. The camps last for six weeks.

Students training for reserve commissions in infantry are at Fort Meade, Md.; air force, Langley Field, Va.; signal corps, Fort Monmouth, N. J.; ordnance, Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md.; and engineers, Fort Belvoir, Va.

marks the spot that you know well

Delicious Steaks Spaghetti Dinners

The CROSSROADS

. . . AT . . .

BOALSBURG

Thesis

- 16 lb. and 20 lb. BOND PAPER
- WEBSTER CARBON
- THESIS and TERM PAPER FOLDERS

at

The Athletic Store, Inc.

OPPOSITE MAIN GATE

PICNIC SUPPLIES

BAKED BEANS BAKED HAM FRESH POTATO SALAD

Wednesdays - Saturdays - Sundays ONLY

To Place Your Order Call

THE NITTANY DELL

322 E. College Avenue