

ARC Workers Study Nutrition

More than 100 Red Cross workers are attending the second annual Nutrition Workshop that opened Monday. It will continue through July 23. The workshop is sponsored by the Eastern area of the American National Red Cross and the department of home economics.

Among the speakers on the program are Dr. Charles G. King, scientific director of the Nutrition Foundation; Pauline Murrain, national director, Nutrition Service; Dr. Esther Phipard, food economist, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C.; and many other persons prominent in Red Cross and nutrition work.

Special Course

During the morning sessions, faculty members will conduct a special course in nutrition. Among those who will teach sessions are Ina Padgett, professor of home economics; Dr. N. B. Guerrant, professor of biological chemistry; Dr. Gordon H. Pritham, associate professor of physiological chemistry; Dr. Cyrus E. French, associate professor of animal nutrition; Dr. R. Adams Dutcher, professor and head of the department of agricultural and biological chemistry; Dr. Russell C. Miller, professor of agricultural and biological chemistry; and Dr. Mary Dodds, professor of home economics.

Other Members

Other Penn State faculty members on the program are Dr. M. Nelson McGeary, professor and head of the department of political science; Dr. Grace M. Henderson, director of home economics; Dr. Helen R. LeBaron, assistant director of home economics; Amy G. Gardner, professor of home economics; Dr. Paul R. Beall, associate professor of speech; Delpha E. Wiesendanger, assistant director of home economics; and Sara Warren, assistant professor of nutrition extension.

New Buildings Partially Done

Construction of the new Mineral Sciences building, Willard Hall and the Plant Industries building on the campus are on the average more than 10 per cent completed according to Harry O. Meyner, representative of the Pennsylvania Department of Property and Supplies on the projects.

The Plant Industries building on Ag hill is 14.6 per cent completed, Mr. Meyner says. Foundation borings have been completed and poured, he said.

Willard Hall beside the Armory is nine per cent completed, Mr. Meyner estimates. A portion of the concrete matting which forms the construction base for the building has been poured. The construction crew has set piers in this portion and workmen are now setting pans forming the floor base at the first story level.

Work on the Mineral Sciences building at the corner of Pollock road and Burroughs street is still in the excavation stage due to unforeseen formations which delayed the crew slightly.

Mr. Meyner said that the announced completion date of May, 1949, for all three buildings is being maintained.

At present there are 33 men and two pieces of equipment working on the Plant Industries building, 17 men and five pieces of equipment on the Mineral Sciences building and 22 men on Willard Hall. There are, in addition, eight plumbers working on the contract for the three buildings, Mr. Meyner says.

Equipment in the College power plant has recently been augmented by the installation of a $152,000 boiler, Mr. Meyner said.

Further improvements at the power plant coming under the cognizance of the Department of Property and Supplies are $650,000 worth of equipment to be installed next year, starting about the first of the year, Mr. Meyner said. This includes a 4,000 kilowatt turbine generator, a cooling tower and related piping.

Dr. Herbert R. Glenn, Dr. Ralph E. Carrier, and Dr. Edgar S. Krug, all of the College Health Service.

WHY... I smoke Chesterfield

(FROM A SERIES OF STATEMENTS BY PROMINENT TOBACCO FARMERS)

Liggett & Myers buy top quality cigarette tobacco and pay top prices for it... nobody will average paying more than they do, year in and year out. I've been smoking Chesterfields ever since I've been smoking. I just like them... they have real tobacco flavor.
