

Intramural Softballers End in Tie

The race for the number one spot in the softball league ended in a deadlock in both the Fraternity and the Independent league.

Delta Sigma Phi and the Football House battled it out for the league lead in an extra game with Delta Sigma Phi coming out on top by a score of 9 to 5.

In the Fraternity league, Lambda Chi Alpha nosed out Phi Kappa for the top spot by a 2 to 1 score.

Delta Sigma Phi will meet Lambda Chi Alpha in a game that will decide the championship of the Summer Sessions softball tournament. The game will be played at New Beaver Field at 7 o'clock this evening.

Intramural Tennis, Golf Matches Wind Up in Summer Sessions Play

Stark, Panacchio Cop Mixed Doubles Crown

Final matches in the Summer Sessions tennis tournament were played between Klotz and Weidman and Stark and Panacchio in the mixed doubles, and between M. S. White and Weidman in the women's singles.

Stark and Panacchio emerged victorious over Klotz and Weidman by a 15-13 6-0 count in a hard fought match.

White defeated Weidman in the women's singles by a score of 6-4 6-4.

In the only uncompleted match, Stark meets Peters for the championship of the men's singles.

Gross Named Titlest In Golf Tournament

In the playoffs of the championship matches in the Summer Sessions golf tournament, Jack Harper was forced to forfeit his match to Bill Gross because of a severe case of poison ivy. Gross was named champion of the first flight.

John Kruper defeated Bob Bastian 2 up in the finals of the second flight, and Al Gutowitz took the honors in the third flight from W. R. Deutsch. Don Smith won the top spot in the fourth flight from John Jones. J. Gehris won the championship in the fifth flight from Dave Plank.

The winners and runners-up received prizes from varsity golf coach Bob Rutherford.

Flame Never Dies

The Olympic flame is kept alive this summer not by the torches of the original Olympiads, but by bottled gas—one thing the Greeks did not have a word for.

In the late 80's the gymnasium consisted of some rings and parallel bars in the woods back of Old Main.
